Two Notes to the Curious and Attentive

As a sign of not elevating our enemy I will write demon names with a small starting letter. I will not give them the honour of a big starting letter in their names. They hate me – I hate them. In Christ, the God of peace, they are under my feet – and yours (Romans 16:20)! They are pure evil, dark, haters, destroyers, death bringers to all that is good, beautiful, lovely, pure, true, honourable, and valuable in Christ. On the other hand, I do capitalize certain pronouns that refer to Abba (the most intimate name for Father) Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – my 3 Best Friends, and yours.

One more thing: you will notice my style is direct, emotional, and informal – repetition, and all. That is fully intentional. I write the way I speak with my Father and with my closest friends – and I invite you into that same freedom.

Receiving the Greatest Miracle of All

The Christian Core Message is: Experience God Directly for Yourself – And Be Best Friends

How To Open Your Life To God – Or Return To Your First Passionate Love For God

The biggest miracle of all is to ask Jesus to forgive all your sins – believing that He has already done so by taking on Himself the penalty of that sin – which we deserve due to our selfishness and bad non-loving judgment calls. So, the good message of Jesus is: Let yourself be reconciled to God. You cannot undo the unloving unjust things you have said or done against God, people, and yourself by doing loving just things.

So, we need to die, like a seed in the ground, to the idea that we can fix it by ourselves through doing enough good to cover the bad. The good message is: When God looks at you, He already loves you and has already forgiven you and cleansed all injustice and lack of love away from you – for Jesus has already ensured your sin is fully atoned for (paid for) forever. All your sin, shame, guilt, condemnation, rebellion, and unbelief in His goodness were laid on Him. So, you are already always loved because of what Jesus did on the cross. There He took the death on Him that our injustice and selfishness causes. This completely exonerates the Father, the Son, and Spirit from ever intending any harm on you or initiating any dislike of you!

The requirement now just is that you need to decide to receive His forgiveness, love, reconciliation, restoration, intimate friendship now by grace – for free. He is right there, where you are, and He longs for you – immediately and permanently. When you do – you will be born-again on the inside – by the Holy Spirit – who comes to live inside you. That is the biggest of all miracles, bigger than someone rising from the dead or someone miraculously getting a brand new arm or eye – that we receive the adoption as sons and daughters of God. And we become best friends with the Friend of Friends – our dear "Abba" (most intimate Hebrew name for Father God), God the Father, and Jesus, our brother, and the Holy Spirit – our guide, advocate, comforter, and Spirit of truth.

How do you experience the biggest miracle of all? You can pray this prayer and mean it with all your heart, mind, soul, and strength:

Dear Jesus. I turn away from all rebellion against Your genuine goodness. I ask for your forgiveness for all unloving and unjust and impure things I have done against Love, Truth, Justice, Honor, and Holiness – which You ARE. I choose to believe you are alive, for You are Life and You rose from the dead, defeating death. I choose to receive Your forgiveness for all I have done wrong. And I choose to make You my Master, my Leader, my King, and my Very Best, highest, first Friend of all Friends. I do that seeing that on the cross You chose to make me Your best friend, taking all my sin on You. I am therefore completely forgiven and perfect in Your eyes. I commit to giving You everything in my life – and to submit all areas of my life to Your love, justice, holiness, and truth. I will follow You and submit to You the rest of my life. You lived and died wholeheartedly for me – so I will live and die wholeheartedly for you.

If you have just prayed that prayer with all of your heart to Jesus – congratulations! He has heard you – and He has accepted you as His child, forgiving you, and coming to live inside you by His Spirit. That is the most important decision you have ever made. If you meant it – that is true, no matter if you feel a difference or not. Christianity is not first emotional – but based on truth above feelings – but feelings may come later.

> Christianity is not first emotional – but based on truth above feelings – but feelings may come later.

Now it is important that you invest in getting to know your Best Friend – His will, His ways, His likes, His dislikes – and His family. Please contact us and we are happy to help you get started on this amazing lifelong journey it is to know and walk as friends of God. You will find it is both deeply challenging and amazing at the same time. Our encouragement to you is – this lasts, it is not a short-lived gimmick. Jesus calls you to give up everything each day and trust Him. (Luke 9:21-26, Luke 14:25-35) Jesus calls you to live intimately with Him – and from that foundation only – to then practice His will, His life, His honor, holiness, truth, passion, justice, love, care on earth – even though there will be trials, storms, opposition, injustice, and persecution against you. This is what He did. We now live like Him and follow Him in this world.

Let us know you prayed this prayer by writing to Discipleship@ActionChristianity.com. We really want to help you grow in faith and friendship with Jesus, Abba Father-God, and Holy Spirit.

Get The Fire Back For God – For He Is 100% On Fire In Love With And For You!

To get back the purity, faith, fire, and passion of your first love for Jesus. Learn to seek God intimately as your best Friend. If you have left your first passionate fire and first love for God, and you are living in compromise, excuses, and sin – if you are living in disobedience to His love, justice, and holiness – then turn around to Him. Receive His forgiveness. Receive His love. Do what you need to do to get your life in order. Cry out with your whole heart – giving yourself completely to Him – just like He gave Himself 100% for you on the cross and through the rejection and suffering He took for your sin – and the sins of everyone.

10 Steps on How to "Turn Yourself In" to God Again

- The first and best step is to take total ownership of your decision to sin – realizing – sin is completely evil and is rebellion against the pure goodness, love, and justice of God.
- Secondly, ask Him for mercy, grace, and compassion. Cry out with all your heart for help!
- Turn away from all your sin completely. This is your decision. If you ask God for help – He will help you. But you must proactively choose to ask, and choose to be humble, soft-hearted, and obedient when He lovingly and clearly corrects and helps you do right.
- Turn TO Him. Run TO Him. The best thing is: He is waiting on you to do this. He will not force you! He honors you and your decisions that much.
- Decide to acknowledge now and forever, past, present, and future – as a continuous mental state – that you are loved and best friends with the Father through the blood of Jesus only.
- Forgive who you need to forgive. Stop being in fellowship with those you need to cut out who cause you to sin.

- Daily – Spend Quality Time With The Father. Be in fellowship with other believers. Fill yourself with the love of God and challenging input.
- Expose the roots of false interpretation of the events in your life that accuse the goodness of God – and accuse the demons, the free will of humans, and the fallen state of the world for the injustices done to you – not the heart of the Father, the Son, and Holy Spirit.
- Get freedom sessions of inner healing, repentance, and spiritual freedom to do a thorough deep cleansing from trauma, bad theology, blindness to sin, and demonic spirits.
- Be an obedient disciple, who makes disciples, who make disciples. Join us all at Action Christianity – become an "Action Christian" who bears much stable exponentially reproducible fruit to the glory of the Father (John 15:8).

I Dedicate This To...

You, Abba Father, Jesus Christ, My Friend And Brother, And Dear Holy Spirit!

Words completely fail to fully describe the eternal reality of Your roaring, extreme, all-in, yet gentle, humble, understanding and non-compromising – intimately friendly and pure true love for me. All 3 of you are my Friend of Friends over and above all – forever. I will gladly walk with You forever in the cool of the day. I continually accept and decide as is my gift from You to remain in Your chosen intimate friendship with me and give wholehearted unreserved friendship back to You, also even if everything and everyone around me and the flesh in me tempts me and treats me with injustice, suffering, and pain – then I will still go, bear much fruit to Your glory. I LOVE You for disciplining me, speaking truth to me to get me to choose to repent out of lies, darkness, sin, and the chains of the enemy. Thank You, that Your grace is NEW – every morning. You have rebirthed my spirit by Your Holy Spirit indwelling me. You free my soul, heal my soul. You make me whole, body, soul, and spirit, and give me authority over all the power of the enemy, so I can serve You efficiently in the holy glory of Your presence.

My Dear Amazing, Beautiful, And Beloved Wife, Mona Skov!

You have stood by me and remained – even in my adultery of watching porn – you have truly wholeheartedly forgiven me. Thank you for being on this amazingly challenging adventurous journey with Abba Father God, in Christ, empowered by Holy Spirit with me. Thank you for your love, your respect and trust that you have given me back – and thank you for attacking the true enemy with me, and with Jesus Christ, Abba Father, and Holy Spirit. And thank you for being humble and bold enough to also choose to be on your own broken journey of inner healing and deliverance and for standing with me to help others.

My Dear Kids, Sarah & Son In Law, Adrian, Elisabeth, & Son In Law, Rouven, & Son, David!

Champions of courage and awesome tender wonder. God has given me His most precious jewels to co-steward and co-parent. You are His kids. Sorry for the many serious mistakes I made in your upbringing. Thank you for forgiving me and rising above it all – finding your very own intimate friendship directly with your real Abba Father, real Brother, Jesus, and real Helper, Comforter, and Guide, the Spirit of Truth, Holy Spirit. Watch out, Heaven. Watch out earth. Watch out hell. Here come my kids and grandkids and AMAZING in-laws! I am so blessed! Let the generations of blessing flourish!

A Life-Changing Book

This is a life-changing book written by a man whose life was changed. Peter Skov is a great man of strong conviction with a mountainous heart. He has passionate determination to see the positive change that he knows is possible through the power of Jesus' healing love and deliverance power. The reason that he knows it's possible to see the world around him healed and free is because he has been living in freedom for years now, after having lived in tormenting bondage. He's now applying the same transformative truths, with compassion, as he helps countless people receive the same type of freedom that his Father God gave him!

This book provides the reader with valuable insights and approaches that have proven to be effective in the lives of people who simply turned to Jesus when they had tried everything else and had nowhere else to turn. These pages will guide you into an intimate relationship with your Creator, Who has never stopped pursuing and completely loving you! If you want to be whole, at peace, live with purpose, and be truly free, this book will show you how to come to Jesus to receive exactly what you need!

A Great Mix of Theology, Tools, and Real-Life Experience

Peter Skov has written a book that is an interesting mix of real-life experience and well researched theology. Peter's heart to see people delivered shines through all the pages. This book could be what you need to experience freedom in Christ for yourself, and it could be a useful workbook for you as you bring deliverance and reconciliation to a world that desperately needs it.

An Antidote to "Apathy Theology"

What a book! Peter shares generously and freely his countless hours of study and experience in the area of the spiritual world of principalities, laws, contracts and the authority of good over evil. This book is a true gift to every church, believer and seeker. Peter uses a great image at the opening of his book: he opened a small door and found himself in a huge room! You will do the same as you read this book.

I have had to revise a lot of ingrained thinking and theology ('apathy theology') in order to internalize and start taking baby steps into the things that Peter describes in this book.

I think many of us have been comfortable reading about evil spirits and deliverances in the Bible, but have been uncomfortable thinking about that these things are realities in our modern world today. Peter points out that we need to rise up in purity and authority in Jesus' Name to change the course of people's lives and make a true impact on our society today for the glory of God (Abba Father).

Thank you, Peter, for venturing boldly forward into this present darkness and urging us to come along and bring the Light!

Engaging Wisely With Spiritual Realms

Peter Skov addresses an unknown or taboo subject with his book. If the church is to respond to the needs of the times, we cannot avoid engaging with the spiritual world, which is once again asserting itself, including its darker side.

The modern individual encounters this dimension both personally and culturally, and if the church lacks language and answers, they turn to the alternative world, which ends with "evil must be driven out with evil" in the church's eyes, instead of the Christian response where Jesus has all power and has given us authority.

Of course, Christian truths can be exaggerated, and one can go beyond what the Bible says. But I think Peter Skov tries to be clear about what might be an interpretation and assumption beyond what is in the Bible and what is clearly described in the Bible.

Rediscovering a Christian truth can naturally invite one-sidedness, where one answer becomes the answer to everything. Specifically, a deeper problem / captivity might need to be met with authority over demonic forces. But the solution can also be inner healing or discipline, or sometimes all parts can be part of the solution. I think Peter Skov shows humility and understanding of the above, even though his focus is on opening our eyes to a neglected approach to "renounce the devil and all his works."

It is a bold initiative focusing on an area that is too unknown and taboo because modern culture did not understand it. But today we live in the postmodern era. And because sects and "solo ministries" have abused the subject to the detriment of the people who had to endure it, it has often been easier to suppress it.

I welcome the book with hope that healthy "ministry teams" in healthy congregations will begin to seek biblical tools to "renounce the devil and all his works" in a concrete and liberating way.

Perhaps we should also remember that the early churches in our own world never renounced this ministry, no matter how inconvenient it might be. Just as it is worth remembering that Protestant churches encounter or practice this ministry in other parts of the world.

My prayer is that we soberly adjust our ministry again and again according to Jesus' example to meet the world's needs.

Former Principal, Mariager Pentecostal Bible School & Pastor Emeritus of The Pentecostal Church of Copenhagen, now called “Ark Cph”

Foreword

By Jacob Viftrup

I am the national leader of the Danish Apostolic Church Movement, and Peter's local church pastor and accountability along with the 5-fold leadership team and leaders in HAVEN, Copenhagen NV.

In our network of churches, we long to see people live in the freedom Christ has won for them. We want communities where the gospel is not only proclaimed but experienced as a transforming reality. Free Will, Inner Healing, & Freedom From Evil Spirits is a timely and valuable contribution to this calling. It brings together theological clarity, pastoral wisdom, and practical guidance in the areas of inner healing and deliverance – areas many pastors navigate regularly, yet often without training and tools and a shared language.

As Peter's pastor and friend, I have seen his integrity, compassion, and deep commitment to serving people with humility and spiritual maturity. This book does not emerge from theory alone but from years of ministry shaped by prayer, presence, and authentic love for God's people. Peter's passion for inner healing and deliverance also emerges from his own experience of being delivered himself after many years of being captive to strong unbreakable patterns in his own life.

Three qualities make this book especially helpful for pastors and leaders:

First, it presents a biblically grounded understanding of the human condition – one that takes wounds, lies, and spiritual oppression seriously without exaggeration or fear. It brings balance, sobriety, and hope to a topic that is often misunderstood.

Second, it offers practical tools that are simple, relational, and Christ-centered. This is not a manual of techniques but a way of guiding people into truth and identity in Christ. The approach is safe, accessible, and well suited for use in pastoral conversations and discipleship contexts.

Third, the real-life stories throughout the book give voice to what many in our churches are facing today. They remind us that Jesus meets people in the mess and complexity of their lives – and that freedom is possible.

> They remind us that Jesus meets people in the mess and complexity of their lives – and that freedom is possible.

I have had the personal joy of being led into freedom through Peter's ministry. During a very difficult time in my life and ministry, I gave the devil a foothold by returning to an old habit of smoking as a way of feeling sorry for myself. Without realizing it, I bought into a lie that was robbing me of my freedom, my boldness, and my authority as a leader. As a pastor and leader, I tried to avoid the pain of exposing my struggle to anyone. But the solitude and shame only led to further condemnation – and I could not win the battle on my own. Trust me, I tried everything.

I confided in Peter and asked for his help. He walked me through the process you can read about in this book – in a pastoral and gentle way, yet with authority and wisdom. The devil's foothold was broken, the lies were exposed. And I have been completely free since that day.

I warmly recommend Free Will, Inner Healing, & Freedom From Evil Spirits to all pastors and leaders in our network. My hope is that it will equip you with greater clarity, confidence, and compassion as you walk with people toward healing and freedom – and that many will experience the "Free Will, Inner Healing, & Freedom" between Heaven and earth that Jesus himself establishes.

You might find some of Peter's language new, unfamiliar, blunt, or even uncomfortable. But this is not an easy task Peter has undertaken – and we must find a healthy way to talk about these things. For too many years, we have outsourced this topic to Hollywood or random YouTubers. Peter is a healthy, experienced, and faithful follower of Christ. He is deeply committed to the local church. He has a wonderful family where everyone serves God wholeheartedly. He is submitted to my leadership and to our pastoral leadership team. He is exactly the right person to write this book and to restore this important ministry to the church of today.

Importantly, this book does not replace the need for medical, psychological, or professional support. On the contrary, I wholeheartedly encourage pastors to use the insights of this book alongside the wisdom of doctors, therapists, and mental-health professionals. Spiritual care and health care do not compete; they strengthen one another for the sake of the whole person.

> Spiritual care and health care do not compete; they strengthen one another for the sake of the whole person.

May God bless you as you read this book. I pray it brings healing to you, and I pray it equips you to lead people to salvation and freedom.

Jacob

How to Get the Most Out of Reading This Book

Not Merely An Intellectual Exercise – A Real Handbook

See this book, not merely as an intellectually interesting book and a study. That is one of our foundational errors in the church in the West especially. But see it also as a handbook, a down-to-earth practical manual for effectively helping people into freedom. For that is what it also is. It is written so that ordinary Christian people can help ordinary people, just like the 70 unnamed but trained followers of Jesus did in Luke 10 – and it worked!

You Are Entering a Large Room

When I entered this world of deep true repentance, inner healing, and deliverance by first submitting myself to be free and whole, I thought it would be a small door and a small room of things to learn and practice. But I found a giant hall full of tools, principles, ways to do it – things I need to learn and master over time and with practice, as well as doing it all under the leading of Holy Spirit and in collaboration with the recipients. And I found that the most important first understanding is that I am lovingly commanded to choose to constantly walk "in the cool of the day" with Abba Father, God. In fact, that is the very meaning of life. Wow! The depths of true and real freedom, complete healing, intimate relationship with Holy Spirit are so real and above all in importance. So wonderful and beautiful! Dad, God, is here, now – to be trusted wholeheartedly.

Jesus said: Seek and keep on seeking. And you will find. Knock – & open. Ask – & get. I believe many of you reading this, maybe from the clairvoyant, spiritist world, or the health care world, or seekers of freedom, will become Christians reading this. Many of you will be set free from evil spirits and many will experience freedom from trauma. Many will be trained to do self-deliverance, and many will start to help others into deliverance and freedom from trauma through inner healing from Jesus.

Please, let me hear your stories on: Discipleship@ActionChristianity.com. And let me know how you think this book can be improved as well – in the same Email address.

Also contact me if you want to work alongside me to see ourselves get free first, and also help others get free, healed, whole, and mature in life and faith, being the honorable, valiant, deeply beloved, authoritative sons and very favored best friends of God we were truly created to be – and which we are in Christ through His blood by faith now.

How to Avoid Offence at Certain Things in This Book

Many of us have not yet learnt to be mature in evaluation and judgment. We are too either-or – all or nothing in our language and thinking. We are not good at holding truths up in non-exclusive tensions with different correct priorities. And we are not good at handling when things are said and done that confront our present understanding.

Please ponder. Please pause. Please ask Holy Spirit – and be sure you are not deceived by a false "holy spirit". Religious, self-righteous, deceiving theology spirits, demons quoting Scripture – they do exist (Matthew 4:5-6). Hold all things directly up against the fullness of Jesus Christ – what He said and did.

When Jesus called His Father, "Abba Father" = Dad, He restored us and gave it to us to do too. The only place Jesus called God "God" was when His Abba Father was distant due to our sins on Him on the cross! We are therefore all through faith restored to Abba Father absolute nearness in our heart in Christ. So, know that I on purpose in my prayers at times use the word "Daddy", for Abba Father, for Father God – and I even personally sometimes use the word: "Daddyo" – to push myself even further – and all of us – positively towards continually remaining in simple childlike and true intimacy with Him. This is then also reflected in my language, for being "best friends forever with Daddy (= Abba Father)". This is the very meaning, purpose, and goal of life. It is the reason Abba, Son, & Spirit created us. To have nearest fellowship and friendship with us – walking with us "in the cool of the day" (Genesis 3:8). "Abba" is the intimate Aramaic cry Jesus Himself used (Mark 14:36) and Holy Spirit speaks this very same truth and language in us (Romans 8:15). If "Daddy" feels too familiar to you, let that very discomfort become the doorway to explore His nearness (Matthew 18:3).

If you're looking for a high level academic, high ivory tower theological, deep psychological work – then this isn't the book you should read. Think of it more as a practical manual for the normal level practitioner. I'm a practitioner who has experienced very good and truly wild things. This represents the way I've done it and understood it until now. And I am certainly still growing. It is for Mr. and Mrs. Smith, so they can help people as well as they can. This is a work manual that also answers common theological questions from many Christians as well as some of those asked by pre-Christians.

How to Resist Spiritual Resistance to Reading This Book

Some of You Might Experience Sleepiness, Fear, and Other Attacks of Distraction as Well as Discouragement During Your Reading

Some of you might experience some of these feelings above as you try to read and understand this. Realize this: You have the full power of God and authority over all the enemy's power in you through faith in Jesus (Luke 10:19). Holy Spirit in you is stronger than he who is in the world (1 John 4:4). And you have the full love of the Father, Son, and Spirit in you, proven through the blood, death, and suffering of Jesus for your sin. And you have the full authority in the name of Jesus to rightfully stand against all resistance.

So, if distractions or disturbances influence you, say the following in an attitude of bold authoritative confident faith as a deeply beloved and true son or daughter of God: "I take full responsibility for me now! I choose by my free will choice and trust in truth and fact – not feelings – to believe and say and act on the following: I am a beloved ruler with Abba Father, God, on the earth (Genesis 1:28). I am a fully loved child of my Abba Father, God, my brother Jesus Christ, and Holy Spirit in me (Romans 8:15). I am fully bought free with the precious price of the blood of Jesus (1 Corinthians 6:19-20). I remain in that love of intimate complete adoption now and forever (John 15:9). I now command in the name of Jesus, for I have been given perfect authority over ALL the power of the enemy (Luke 10:19): Spirit of fear: GO! Spirit of heaviness: GO! Spirit of rejection: GO! Spirit of discouragement: GO! Spirit of sleepiness and mockery: GO! Spirit of lust: GO! Snake and python spirit of strangulation: GO! Spirit of death and accusation: GO! You are all losers to Jesus in me and under my feet (Romans 16:20). I reject all agreement with and submission to you (James 4:7). I submit to the love, friendship, and sonship of my true Abba Father God through the blood of Jesus only! And I run into the gift of restoration and intimate freedom I already fully have in Christ (1 John 3:1-2, Ephesians 1:5, Galatians 3:26): By grace already given and purchased by the blood, I am the satisfaction and joy of Abba Father, God (Matthew 3:17). I have the perfect love and peace and dominion in Christ from my Father – completely and only, but YES(!) perfectly and fully, through the blood of Jesus. (Revelation 5:9-14). Amen!"

This prayer will help you. That is my belief, my experience. Stand firm. Do not move. Repeat it if needed. Remain there – also when feelings and thoughts go the opposite way. Do not let the liar lie and deceive and whisper and lie about anything contrary that you receive and act on. Act on remaining in the love of Abba Father, through Christ – also when you absolutely do not feel like it and have normally done the opposite and disbelieved His love and adoption of you. The cross, blood, and suffering of Jesus has already qualified you. But you must freely choose to believe that – and stay there, remaining there – not leaving, by your patient choice.

The Bible & the Spirit – Two Rock Solid Foundations

1 - The Holy Living Loving True Bible

This teaching is on purpose absolutely filled with Scripture references and quotes (Matthew 7:24-27, Matthew 5:18-19). To be mature, and not be swayed by every wind of doctrine (Ephesians 4:14-19), we must become "read and do" Christians who are rooted in the Word of God, the Bible, and in the love of Christ. We must have fellowship with, and move in the power of, Holy Spirit. And we must be mentored by, led by, taught by, trained by, personally discipled by, and served by healthy mature 5-fold ministers of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers (Ephesians 4). We must become copy paste Christians (1 Corinthians 11:1). Please, I urge you, look the Scriptures up for yourself. Be like the people from Berea in the Bible, who went and studied it thoroughly, as they nobly did in Berea, to see if this is so. So, I charge you: Go see in the Bible if this is so (Acts 17:11-12). I firmly believe that the fullness of the Word is truth (Psalm 119:160). And Jesus is the Living Word of God (John 1:14) – who practices the written Word (John 5:19). I, therefore, boldly and clearly, wholeheartedly challenge you who read this to look up every Bible Scripture reference yourself – and to read my teaching: "A Bible Study – About Correct Bible Study" on ActionChristianity.com/We-Believe. To be mature, we must learn to study the Word for ourselves in as healthy a way as we can (2 Timothy 2:15).

Listening Versus Reading

If you are listening to this, great. I will not read out all the verses – I read out the book name, chapter, and verse here. So, by all means, do listen to this. The best learning experience is to actually read and study this out personally as well. For the fastest way to look up the Scriptures is to sit with a phone or computer with an electronic version – as there are URL links directly to online Bibles under each Bible reference.

2 - All Holy Spirit Gifts and Power and All Authority for All

Please read a Bible Study like this one on whether all gifts of the Holy Spirit are for all believers. I am fully convinced by the Bible. It says that they are, and I see the evidence of it in my life and in the lives of those around me: ActionChristianity.com/Books

Why is this very foundational and important? So many Christians deny obedience to the disciples' clear command from God through Jesus for them to do deliverance and a host of other supernatural things because: "God has not given me that supernatural gift". Let's say that in this case it is the gift of discerning of spirits. This Bible study clearly proves that God has given you every spiritual power gift through the fullness of the Holy Spirit living in you, for the situation you need it for and under His will! Therefore, the conclusion now is – we need to take responsibility. We must act: Take the education and get under trainers who can show us how to step out into practicing all gifts in a healthy way – thereby bearing much fruit to the glory of the Father.

What Is Normal Discipleship - As Defined by Jesus?

My Story of Repentance and Freedom From Sins and Demons

I know I have been set free from demons while I was also a true Holy Spirit born-again Christian believer in my Lord Jesus Christ. Through difficult circumstances, demons tempted me to believe I was not fully loved by the Father, Abba Father God. I believed it and acted on it. To obey a lie is the very definition of sin, and it is to be worshipping a false God. In the deliverance "world" and understanding, I thereby chose to open up a legal door to a demon of rejection. Effectively I then intellectually believed God was 100% good – and emotionally I believed that He was not 100% good – but halfheartedly not so good. I repented based on the blood, the cross, the extreme suffering of Jesus – and the response of Jesus to that injustice we and demons and the world gave Him: He did not go into self-pity. He remained loved by His Abba Father. For He was. And He remained obedient to loving Abba Father, Himself, and others – despite extreme suffering. Now I have learnt that this is how I am to live as well. And I have learnt to take authority over demons of temptation – like Jesus did in Matthew 4:10. I have broken a 17-year porn addiction as a result of that repentance from lies to truth and identity of full true perfect (in God's eyes) intimate sonship through the blood and death of Jesus alone – and through using that authority over all the power of the enemy (Luke 10:19).

> To obey a lie is the very definition of sin.

The Results in the Outcome of My Life Now

This is normally how my life is now: On a weekly and sometimes daily basis I cast demons out of true born-again Christians as well as pre-believers in the Lord Jesus Christ. They report freedom that they have sought for so long. And the freedom is real and lasting (unless people go back to the sins that opened the door to those demons). And pre-believers decide to open their hearts to the love of Jesus – through His blood, His cross, the evidence of His love. And the reality of evil they see in their lives.

All Glory to Jesus Christ

As I write theologically around this, this has become my beautiful, Jesus-glorifying reality. All glory to Jesus Christ who has given us authority in His name! And power by and in Holy Spirit through faith. All bought by His precious cleansing blood.

Therefore, my perspective is one of: This is real. Inner healing, repentance to truth and intimate friendship with Abba Father, and deliverance is extremely necessary. 75% of Christian men view pornography at least occasionally (Barna), breaking their marriage (if married) and sinning according to Jesus (Matthew 5:28). And therefore, the enemy also works hard to ensure we as Christians do not believe in deliverance theologically and that we do not practice it in a healthy way if we do.

Do We Really Dare Let Jesus Define Discipleship?

Jesus Himself, according to Himself, spent significant time in his 3½ years of ministry doing deliverance (Luke 13:32, Matthew 8:16-17). He also commanded His 12 Apostles (Matt 10-11, Mark 3:13-15, Mark 6:7-13, Luke 9:1-6) – and then the 70 "others" (Luke 10:1-24) to do deliverance. Just like He had lived it out, taught it, demonstrated it before them, and trained them to do it while He delegated it to them and corrected them (Mark 9:14-29), and in all the other times Jesus was with His disciples and He / they did deliverance, healing, prophecy, etc. He then, as the last big command before He went to Heaven, commanded all disciples to obey everything He had commanded the 12 and the 70 (Matthew 28:18-20). That means us today with a Biblical straightforward "read and do" reading of the Bible: In Acts (of the disciples and the Holy Spirit) they acted on that obedience – see for instance where they went out 2 people doing exactly what Jesus did and He commanded the 12 to do, Paul and Barnabas, in Acts 13-16. And none of those 2 were among the 12 – nor the 70!

I, like the Bible says, believe Jesus is exactly the same, yesterday, today, and forever (Hebrews 13:8). Therefore He also still wants to train all His leaders and disciples – all believers – in deliverance, to do deliverance (Mark 3:15 & Mark 6:7). And then He wants them to train others to do deliverance – and all the other things He trained His followers to do – just like we see in Paul's instruction about the handing on of info from good people to more good people to more good people, etc. (2 Timothy 2:2). And especially as leaders we need to be careful not to do any sin of omission (non-action) compared to how Jesus trained His followers. What we omit in teaching and example – our followers will naturally omit… And let me be the first to extend to every Christian leader the very same grace and patience God has so richly extended to me. I was slow to see much of this myself for many years – so I condemn no one; I simply invite us all further in, together in this learning and practice journey, now, not tomorrow, for the fields ARE white for harvest now (John 4:35).

> Jesus is exactly the same, yesterday, today, and forever.

According to this research article – 10% of the entire story of Jesus according to Mark is about deliverance or teaching about deliverance:

ActionChristianity.com/Mark10PercentDeliverance

According to this research article about how many deliverances there is out of all the miracles of Jesus – 10 out of 37 miracles were deliverances. That is 27% - a little more than one fourth of them:

The 13 Places, Jesus Did Deliverance

Please nerd them. Apprentice, learn from the Master

- Many – (Mark 1:32-34, Matthew 8:16-17, Luke 4:40-41)
- People in Galilee – (Mark 1:39)
- A man at the Capernaum synagogue – (Mark 1:21-28, Luke 4:31-37)
- A man in Capernaum – (Matthew 9:32-33)
- A second man (maybe in Capernaum) – (Matthew 12:22, Luke 11:14)

- People in Capernaum – (Luke 6:17-19)
- The Gentile woman's daughter – (Matthew 15:21-28, Mark 7:24-30)
- Mary Magdalene (and other women) – (Luke 8:2, Mark 16:9)
- People at the Sea of Galilee – (Mark 3:10-12)
- Two men in the region of the Gadarenes – (Matthew 8:28-32, Mark 5:1-13, Luke 8:26-33)
- A man's son at Caesarea Philippi – (Matthew 16:13, Matthew 17:14-21, Mark 9:17-29, Luke 9:38-47)
- A crippled woman – (Luke 13:10-17 – "satan has bound")
- Many before Jesus goes to Jerusalem to die – (Luke 13:32)

You can find and make another list for Acts where His followers did it after the resurrection.

The conclusion, then, if we were to ask according to Jesus (who is Lord, Perfect, Master, Creator, Role Model, Example, God, Teacher): what is normal for a disciple to spend time on? Deliverance would 100% be a part of what is normal. So, let's normalize deliverance, inner healing, miraculous healing, prophecy, Holy Spirit baptism, and above all that – salvation by the blood of the Lamb, Jesus Christ – for that stands forever – even if healings, deliverances, etc. do not happen as we hope and believe.

Now the real question is. Will I, will you, will we submit to His training of us as His direct disciples? Here – we personally stand accountable directly to Jesus and His Word on our own first. Only He will judge and evaluate our life choices and chosen beliefs and then actions at the end of our lives – and it will be according to His commands, not what we ourselves or people expected.

This Bible study is here to extract and expose facts (Ephesians 5:11-14) about the darkness and the demonic and deliverance straight from the literal words and sentences about it in the Bible – so that light and understanding can come. So we can disarm (Mark 3:27, John 8:31-32), and truly Biblically humbly and responsibly resist the attacks of the enemy (James 4:7 & Matthew 3:17-4:11).

My aim is that this writing should not be truly disputable to someone who honors the Bible as the eternally perfect inspired Word of God like I do on my website in the Bible study: "A Bible Study About Bible Study."

Paul said in 2 Corinthians 2:11: We are not unaware of the devil's schemes / plans – so that he might not outwit us. The problem is, and one reason for this book, that many Christians are literally unaware – and are then outwitted. I was! Are you? I woke up – and I have been free since for years now – not struggling and losing as I was before – but truly free! Are you free? Have you woken up?

> Ephesians 5:11-14 - 11 Have nothing to do with the fruitless deeds of darkness but rather expose them. 12 It is shameful even to mention what the disobedient do in secret. 13 But everything exposed by the light becomes visible--and everything that is illuminated becomes a light. 14 This is why it is said: "Wake up, sleeper!"

One of the devil's plans is to come as ANY false angel of light (2 Corinthians 11:14) – even a false teacher and a false religion and an "off" interpretation of the Bible (Genesis 3:1, Matthew 4:1-7). This Bible study is built to help us show and expose these plans as well as how to do healthy efficient deliverance as Jesus commanded it and practiced it.

Jesus, who is God, and is our Master, and is perfect. And we are His disciples, apprentices, His followers, made in His image – is by far the One that did the most deliverances by number of detailed accounts in the Bible. We should learn directly from our good, loving Master – in all that He did. That's what He did with His disciples then – and still does today (Hebrews 13:8). Agree?

Why Should Everyone Take the Time to Do This Study?

I, as a fully, truly born-again believer, even as a 5-fold charismatic theologically educated church planting pastor and minister, clearly needed deliverance. And I didn't know it. I could see it when I finally got set free. They operated by stealth, causing me to think my emotions and thoughts were only mine. I was manipulated and bound from the inside! But I found and used the right tools of repentance, inner healing, and authority – and it set me free. For 17 years I had been battling and struggling with these things; I had repented of their fruits, but was still bound by their roots to keep doing them. I am now helping other Christians – and pre-Christians – both leaders of churches and ministries as well as believers in general and "willing to get help" not-yet believers – to get set free and training others to do deliverance. Yes, I have found – it is sooo much more needed than what I can do and what most Christians know and realize today. So honestly, I pray, hope, and believe that this writing will wake so many people up – yes – you – the one reading this now, and, yes, in trusting faith I say, even billions of us – to get trained and to start doing it in a healthy efficient way.

Please hear my story here – I go deep, thorough, and long – and the reason is – up to 90% of all Christian men – including church and ministry leaders struggle with porn: actionchristianity.com/MyStory. And porn is just one form of self-satisfaction, coming out of self-pity, which comes out of believing the satanic lies of rejection by God, loneliness from God, unfairness by God. Other forms of self-satisfaction are over-eating, sugar, smoking, drinking, over-working, time-wasting, fearing people's opinions, gambling, gaming, fantasizing, being a control freak, self-harming, and over-exercising.

Healthy Christian Life and Deliverance

It is important to note, first, that for a new believer the demonic and deliverance – as well as end times, conspiracies, and finding the love of their life – can easily become an unhealthy, unbalanced, and distracting diet of spiritual intake. Especially because so many believers have not come into sonship through the cross alone – independently of all circumstances and emotions. Therefore, if you are a new believer, I encourage you to major on the love, goodness, and close intimate friendship with the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – not first on demons, deliverance, conspiracies, end-times, and on trying to find that special someone. The love of the Father proven through His command to His beloved Son to die for us all and the result: The identity as a beloved friend and child of God is always first, for that is the very meaning of life and can therefore never come second place!

Therefore – I urge you to please go through my 2 discipleship series and the teachings there to really get a solid foundation in the cross, grace, the love and character of God. And really get that and understand that as a HUGE first priority – over and above understanding demons, deliverance, end-times, conspiracies, and finding someone on earth who loves you.

Two Foundational Understanding Stones – The Character and Personality Traits of God and of the Enemy

Here is a very important list on the foundational characteristics of who God is as a person. Which words describe His nature, essence, and character? Knowing this list will help you navigate the many so-called "truths" out there about God and demons:

ActionChristianity.com/WhatIsGodLike

When that foundation both relationally and doctrinally is solidly laid in your life, then here is a list of the character traits of demons / satan – with Bible Scripture references:

The Origins of Demons

What Is a Demon? Were Demons Created by God and When Were They Created?

What Is a Demon?

Traditionally they are simply seen as fallen angels. And this view is very clear in the Bible. The Scriptures for this are below. That is true. And then there is another, very interesting theory as well.

Here are the 3 main descriptions of the creation and fall of lucifer and the other angels who fell and became demons.

> Isaiah 14:9-15 - 9 The realm of the dead below is all astir to meet you at your coming; it rouses the spirits of the departed to greet you--all those who were leaders in the world; it makes them rise from their thrones--all those who were kings over the nations. 10 They will all respond, they will say to you, "You also have become weak, as we are; you have become like us." 11 All your pomp has been brought down to the grave, along with the noise of your harps; maggots are spread out beneath you and worms cover you. 12 How you have fallen from heaven, morning star, son of the dawn! You have been cast down to the earth, you who once laid low the nations! 13 You said in your heart, "I will ascend to the heavens; I will raise my throne above the stars of God; I will sit enthroned on the mount of assembly, on the utmost heights of Mount Zaphon. 14 I will ascend above the tops of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High." 15 But you are brought down to the realm of the dead, to the depths of the pit.
> Ezekiel 28:12-19 - 12 "Son of man, take up a lament concerning the king of Tyre and say to him: 'This is what the Sovereign LORD says: " 'You were the seal of perfection, full of wisdom and perfect in beauty. 13 You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone adorned you: carnelian, chrysolite and emerald, topaz, onyx and jasper, lapis lazuli, turquoise and beryl. Your settings and mountings were made of gold; on the day you were created they were prepared. 14 You were anointed as a guardian cherub, for so I ordained you. You were on the holy mount of God; you walked among the fiery stones. 15 You were blameless in your ways from the day you were created till wickedness was found in you. 16 Through your widespread trade you were filled with violence. And you sinned. So, I drove you in disgrace from the mount of God, and I expelled you, guardian cherub, from among the fiery stones. 17 Your heart became proud on account of your beauty. And you corrupted your wisdom because of your splendor. So, I threw you to the earth; I made a spectacle of you before kings. 18 By your many sins and dishonest trade you have desecrated your sanctuaries. So, I made a fire come out from you, and it consumed you, and I reduced you to ashes on the ground in the sight of all who were watching. 19 All the nations who knew you are appalled at you; you have come to a horrible end and will be no more.' "
> Revelation 12:3-4, 7-10 - 3 Then another sign appeared in heaven: an enormous red dragon with seven heads and ten horns and seven crowns on its heads. 4 Its tail swept a third of the stars out of the sky and flung them to the earth. The dragon stood in front of the woman who was about to give > birth, so that it might devour her child the moment he was born. ... 7 Then war broke out in heaven. Michael and his angels fought against the dragon. And the dragon and his angels fought back. 8 But he was not strong enough, and they lost their place in heaven. 9 The great dragon was hurled down--that ancient serpent called the devil, or satan, who leads the whole world astray. He was hurled to the earth, and his angels with him. 10 Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Messiah. For the accuser of our brothers and sisters, who accuses them before our God day and night, has been hurled down.

Were Demons Made Evil by God?

No. Clearly, when we look at the cross, God is good and only creates good things. Demons have rebelled against the truth and goodness of God and are 100% evil. For love to have value, free will is given by God to both humans and demons. Demons are now permanently in a fallen state – where humans can still choose evil or good every second until death. So, good people and spirits can choose evil, which is disobedience to truth, love, honor, fairness, and justice.

The self-chosen fall of angels – including lucifer, the light bearer, who rebelled against God, truth, and their purpose – is a reality we have to deal with on a daily basis. They became the opposite of God: evil, manipulative, dark, and destructive.

When Were Angels and Other Spirits, Like Possible “Watchers”, Created?

Could these be verses saying the angels were already created when God created the earth?

> Job 38:4-7 - 4 "Where were you when I laid the earth's foundation? Tell me, if you understand. 5 Who marked off its dimensions? Surely you know! Who stretched a measuring line across it? 6 On what were its footings set, or who laid its cornerstone 7 while the morning stars sang together and all the angels shouted for joy?

Are Demons Fallen Angels or Disembodied Spirits or Both?

I Believe There Are Both Types. 2 Categories Of Demons. Here Is Why.

The angels that fell and become demons are chained in hell according to these verses:

> 2 Peter 2:4 – God did not spare angels when they sinned, but sent them to hell, putting them in chains of darkness to be held for judgment.
> Jude 1:6 – The angels who did not keep their positions of authority but abandoned their proper dwelling--these he has kept in darkness, bound with everlasting chains for judgment on the great Day.
> Romans 8:37-39 - 37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him who loved us. 38 For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither (demon) angels nor demons (principalities), neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, 39 neither height nor depth, nor > anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Here Paul interestingly differentiates between demon angels (all on his list oppose the much greater love of God in Christ) and demon principalities – another type of demon. Both try to separate us from the love of God in Christ. But they can only do so when we believe a lie and grant them permission.

If that type of evil spirits, then, who are rebellious fallen angels, are in hell bound with chains forever, what are the spirits we encounter in deliverances?

And if they are not those fallen angels, why do those demons often identify themselves with ancient fallen angel strong man demon names like lucifer, satan, moloch, lilith, beelzebub, etc.? And they even – when people see them as they are (not a false "angel of light" (2 Corinthians 11:14)) – see a mix of animals and humans and angels?

Could the demons of today be the disembodied hybrid spirits of the giant Nephilim and humans as some believe?

Could they all be the spirits of the hybrids between humans and fallen angels that were destroyed in the flood?

> Genesis 6:1-6 - 1 When human beings began to increase in number on the earth and daughters were born to them, 2 the sons of God saw that the daughters of humans were beautiful, and they married any of them they chose. 3 Then the LORD said, "My Spirit will not contend with humans forever, for they are mortal; their days will be a hundred and twenty years." 4 The Nephilim were on the earth in those days--and also afterward--when the sons of God went to the daughters of humans and had children by them. They were the heroes of old, men of renown. 5 The LORD saw how great the wickedness of the human race had become on the earth, and that every inclination of the thoughts of the human heart was only evil all the time. 6 The LORD regretted that he had made human beings on the earth, and his heart was deeply troubled.

Here they are again – after the flood of Noah

> Numbers 13:33 - We saw the Nephilim there (the descendants of Anak come from the Nephilim). We seemed like grasshoppers in our own eyes, and we looked the same to them.

It seems that not all life – nor all Nephilim giants died in the flood.

In early church history, Origen, Justin Martyr, Irenaeus, Commodianus, Tertullian, and Athenagoras believed so. In modern church history many deliverance ministers believe so, like Alexander Pagani and Kevin Zadai – including well respected theologians like Dr. Michael Heiser.

The answer, I believe, is that the disembodied hybrid spirits are what we actually encounter – as lying spirits, tempters, spirits of sickness, and in deliverance sessions. They then report to, and carry out the plans of, the fallen angels. They are defined by name according to who they report to and identify with – and they can travel to where those fallen angels are bound and communicate with them.

We Also See Animals Described in the Bible With Clear Demonic Language leviathan: Job 3:8, Job 40:25-41:34, Psalm 74:14, Psalm 104:26, and Isaiah 27:1.

We see Jesus comparing demons to animals (Luke 10:17) – and humans to the same animals (Matthew 23:33).

We see God creating angels where one has the faces of oxen, eagles, lions, and humans in a mix (Revelation 4:6-8):

Also, in front of the throne there was what looked like a sea of glass, clear as crystal. In the center, around the throne, were four living creatures, and they were covered with eyes, in front and in back. The first living creature was like a lion, the second was like an ox, the third had a face like a man, the fourth was like a flying eagle. Each of the four living creatures had six wings and was covered with eyes all around, even under its wings. Day and night they never stop saying: "'Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty,' who was, and is, and is to come."

> Ezekiel 10:14 - Each of the cherubim had four faces: One face was that of a cherub, the second the face of a human being, the third the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.

Does the Book of Enoch Have Any Input of Eternal Value?

It seems there is some validity to it in terms of this discussion. The Book of Enoch is quoted in the Bible here (Jude 1:14-15). Is there more truth in it? Maybe? Possibly. See in: The Book of Enoch Section 1 chapter 7 – verse 1-6. And also Enoch Chapter 15:6-10.

And to be completely clear: nothing in this book's teaching or practice depends on the Book of Enoch. Scripture alone carries the full weight – Enoch is only an interesting historical echo alongside it.

Conclusions

I believe what we encounter in deliverance are not the original created angels who fell. They are chained in hell. But we do encounter their representatives – the dead Nephilim: the disembodied hybrid spirits between humans and the "sons of God" (possibly the God-created "Watchers" who left Heaven to go to earth to have giant unclean offspring). Their DNA was soiled – impure – and thus, they cannot be saved by the pure blood and pure human DNA of Jesus. Their DNA was not human – it was trans-human. These disembodied hybrids who used to live in a body – now look for bodies to live in – to "demonize" – to influence, and to carry out their nature of rebellion, lies, rejection, death, hate, darkness, depression, loneliness, doubt, fear, anxiety, impurity, lust – all that is bad and evil. I realized, when I really woke up by obedience to full repentance into His pure grace and intimate friendship (Say with me: "Hey, Abba Father, you are right here right now!"): Where there is one sin (and there was in me) – all of them are actually present. That's why James 2:10 says: Whoever keeps the whole law and yet stumbles at just one point is guilty of breaking all of it.

Regarding Animal Hybrids

To conclude whether some of the disembodied spirits of the Nephilim were also animal mixes – or whether it is simply the Nephilim themselves, where some are like animals in form and expression – I do not know. There could have been tampering by the Nephilim with animal DNA – like modern people do – and satanists and occultists today are attempting to tamper with DNA to "upgrade" humans.

The Necessity of Knowing This for Deliverance

This is not absolutely necessary to know to do deliverance. But this seems to be the world we actually encounter as we do deliverance.

Do Christians Need Deliverance?

I have tried to answer these questions beginning with the biggest and most foundational ones and then moving down to the very practical and detailed ones. All the answers are with Bible references – which I am adamant for us all to read – in context – with healthy understanding of exegesis. For how to improve your Bible reading – again, please read this: Bible Study on How to Study The Bible.

Can a truly born-again by the Holy Spirit Christian need to get one or more demons driven out from within them (deliverance) – and / or away from them when they bring temptation from the outside? YES! And: YES!

Can We All Agree? Non-Christians – Who Are Not Filled With the Holy Spirit Can Need Deliverance

I will come at this important question from a different angle than many. Please read along with an open mind to the straightforward reading of Scripture.

2 Problematic Bible Facts

There Are No Clear Examples Of Deliverances From Demons Of Born-Again Christians In The Bible

We can see no truly "born again by the Holy Spirit" Christians in the Bible getting a "deliverance session" and getting delivered. But: We also do not see that it is forbidden to do or directly said that deliverance is not needed for born-again believers.

And

We Have Scripture That Seems To Say That When We Are Truly Born-Again By Holy Spirit – And Holy Spirit Lives In Us, Then No Darkness (demons) Can Live There As Well.

But we also know that not everything that was done by the disciples after Jesus rose again was written down. The Book of Acts largely follows the very early church and then starts following Paul.

To be fair to those who hold true born-again Christians cannot need deliverance, Scriptures like these are used:

> Colossians 1:13 – For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves.
> 2 Corinthians 6:14 – Do not be yoked together with unbelievers. For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness?

How Do We Deal With The Discrepancy Between Seeing Deliverance Being Needed For Believers Today – But No Clear Examples Of It In The Bible?

Answer One – Approaching the Subject 100% Biblically

One reasonable way to look first is to look at Jesus and His followers and what they actually clearly did do in terms of deliverance. We do clearly see Jesus teaching on deliverance and doing deliverance and the same with the disciples – also in Acts. But all can agree that deliverance is at least 100% clearly done on people who are not yet born-again by the Holy Spirit. It is clear in the Bible that the Holy Spirit did not come to live inside believers – in their spirit, making them born-again by the Holy Spirit – until Jesus had died and risen again (John 7:39). Maybe some of the people in Samaria were born-again – and then they received deliverance – but it is not clearly stated:

> Acts 8:5-8 – 5 Philip went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed the Messiah there. 6 When the crowds heard Philip and saw the signs he performed, they all paid close attention to what he said. 7 For with shrieks, impure spirits came out of many, and many who were paralyzed, or lame were healed. 8 So there was great joy in that city.

So Far So Good. What Does This Mean?

Maybe you are a so-called cessationist, which is a demonic heresy – see Matthew 22:29. A cessationist Christian believes Jesus, Holy Spirit and Abba Father no longer do miracles of healing, prophecy, dead-raising, and deliverance. But if you believe all miracles still happen through normal disciples today, then what we have found is actually super challenging – and good news – for those of us who see deliverance as a normal, necessary reality for all disciples to be trained well in.

Why? Then a very clear and undeniable Bible fact is that Jesus and His followers did deliverance of people from evil spirits – and that it is 100% sure that those Jesus personally did deliverance on were not yet Holy Spirit born-again Christians. Yes, they were believers in the Old Testament God and in Him as Messiah. But they were not born-again by Holy Spirit. This leads me to say clearly through the power of the obedience commanded in the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20), where we are commanded to obey all that Jesus commanded His disciples:

Surprising but 100% Undeniable Biblical Conclusion 1

As disciples directly and personally under our Master, Jesus, this is a true right and completely established fact that we must learn to do proactive (Jesus specifically went and confronted the demons in the Gadarene demoniacs: Luke 8:22-38) deliverance of people who are not yet born-again believers!

This conclusion is crystal clear and, as far as I can see, thoroughly Biblically backed by Jesus and His 12 and 70 as well as in Acts. But it is "funny", for it runs against the grain of what many people who both do and don't do deliverance teach: Do not do deliverance on people who are not born-again believers. But were the people "believers" in a God and a Messiah, Jesus? Yes – but not born-again by Holy Spirit! I, therefore, do not agree that we can only and should only do deliverance on born-again believers – for Jesus and His followers definitely did it before Holy Spirit came. I, therefore, think we should do like Jesus and His followers: Do both!

Some will object here with the empty house (Matthew 12:43-45): 'If they are not born-again, (the house is filled) the demons return – seven times worse!' I take that Scripture 100% seriously. Notice: Jesus said it WHILE He and His followers were doing deliverance on exactly the people who did not have Holy Spirit yet. So the answer is not that they must first be born-again and therefore withhold helping them into freedom before they are Christians – the answer is what Jesus commanded in John 5:14: Fill the house with holy clean convictions and actions and block the access to the house, by closing all doors of sin: Own sins, generational curses, trauma-based lies, and more! Therefore neither inner healing nor deliverance must stand alone, but always contain and lead to deep personal responsible voluntary repentance, salvation, and real discipleship – exactly as this book teaches from beginning to end.

One Absolute Here And Now Through This Study Established Bible Fact – Leading To Action

So, many people who are not yet born-again need deliverance and we, who believe in Jesus, and are born-again disciples, need to obey Him, follow Him, and give it to them, if they want it. So, we, clearly – just from that one absolute and undeniable fact – need to study it, learn it from Jesus, from His followers – and do it proactively and consistently – to be like Jesus, our Master (Luke 13:32, Matthew 10, Luke 10).

My question, therefore, now is: Are you doing that? If not – repent – into the goodness of the loving obedience to the fullness of the commands of your Master. PS: I am fully aware of how utterly provocative this is – but this is clear Biblical logic with action from Jesus and His followers. You need to find your argument against what I am saying in Scripture – in the normal Words and Practice of Jesus and His followers only. Or if not – then gladly obey. And start to learn and do. Do the work of obedience – based on already always being fully loved.

Act!

Ok – so, now I hope you have decided to start obeying Jesus, loving Him (John 14:21) by doing deliverance on unbelievers – and I tell you; you will find that it is working!! I am doing that – and I am leading them to faith in Jesus either before or afterwards. It's amazing!! They are so open to the love of Jesus, Abba Father, Spirit – when they have received long sought for help.

You Might Have This Objection

Now you need to – as Jesus said – ensure that the demons do not come back in. You have to fill the house to keep them out (Matthew 12:43-45). That means the recipients need to choose to be agreeing obedient followers of the truth. Did you know that pre-believers can repent from believing lies to believing truth? Did you know pre-believers can repent and renounce on behalf of their ancestors? Did you know that pre-believers can forgive and thereby get rid of demons of bitterness, hate, judgment, pride and retaliation? I learnt to forgive long before I became a Christian – and I was set free from torment because of it (Matthew 18:34-35). Discipleship can begin before you believe in Jesus, and you can fill the house with the truth from Holy Spirit before you are saved (Acts 10:31, Luke 11:9-13), with radically holy and pure obedient life choices (Acts 2:36-41). All can choose to fill themselves with the proactive agreement to identity as absolutely beloved of the Father (Romans 8:14-16), and learn how to use their authority to command demons of temptation to leave them (Luke 10:19, Matthew 4:10-11). Should they choose to become Christians? Yes! 100%. I will do all I can to lead them to saving faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. That is the true foundation of all – and the only way to enter Heaven and to be born-again by Holy Spirit. Are they more open to do that once they see the power of God, the authority in the name of Jesus, and the freedom and love proven through that? Yes!

OK – so pre-believers need it, and we should do it if they want and with the leading of the Holy Spirit... And, also, in proactive action. But what about truly born-again believers?

(PS – and some of them (many more than most think) still need deliverance...)

Practically I will let you in on my "secret" strategy here: You will soon find – that if you start doing deliverance on pre- / non-Christians – people who are unfortunately and wrongly not yet born-again – you will also find you need to do it on those who are born-again... Again, I needed it as a born-again Jesus lover – for real (but didn't know I needed it)! You might need it too if you haven't done deep repentance, inner healing, identity, and deliverance work on yourself. And allowed good people to minister that to you. And... I was fully born-again, Bible reading, praying, serving, evangelizing, leading, tithing and offering, church going, church camp going, healing the sick, worshipping, on-fire Christian. But also with demonic un-exposed, unseen, not understood inner-vow demonic and emotional open doors of orphan rejection agreement, accusation, retaliation, withdrawal, isolation, self-pity, lying and impure lust (my kind of self-satisfaction – what's yours?) in me! I didn't realize the roots, only the sinful fruits, and I continuously repented from the fruits, not the roots – a "million" times, each time deeper than ever before – but always returned. I hated watching porn and self-satisfying. I hated myself for doing it. And I continuously decided and promised to stop and I asked for help – but still did it. I confessed it to my wife, my psychologist, my pastors and friends... I set up filters. But, somehow, "mysteriously to me" I was still bound... Now, that is demonic, and it is sinful. My flesh, on all levels, is now so crucified with Christ. I am so healed from the false theology of my performance, and enough of my demons are cast out (I do believe all are cast out)! And I am free on a completely different level than I used to be. Glory to GOD!

YES!! 100%!! I desperately needed repentance, deep true restored intimacy with Abba Father through the blood and cross of Jesus, and I needed deliverance. And I didn't know it. And the internet is overflowing with not-for-profit, raw, and honest testimonies of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers – disciples and pre-believers of ALL kinds – who needed it, are free today, and are helping others.

But Back to Absolute Bible-Based Theology

It is clear, a to me undeniable Bible fact, that non-born-again people need deliverance and we, therefore, need to learn to do it right to help them well.

This is a normal part of what it means to be a Christian.

Understanding of Deliverance and How Demonic Influence Works

FOUNDATION 1

Understanding Legal Rights

This Is Part Of Finding Valid Biblical Arguments Truly Born-Again Christians Also Can Need Deliverance

What Is a Legal Right for a Demon to Gain Access?

First, we need to understand what a legal right is. Imagine there is a traffic law in the spiritual world – just like there is everywhere on earth. This can be broken, and there are consequences no matter if you know the traffic law or not. Humans have free will and can therefore choose to agree with lies or truths. There are lies and truths in all areas of life. God IS Spirit and truth, love, justice, mercy, grace, life, light, freedom, joy etc. Please see a much longer list here. The devil, satan, lucifer, and all demons are the opposite: lies, hate, injustice, unforgiveness, bitterness, death, darkness, fear, manipulation, depression etc. Please see a much longer list here.

We can choose to align with, agree with, believe in and act on either truth or lies. We have real responsibility here that comes with real eternal (in Heaven) and temporal (on earth) consequences. Like Joshua said in:

> Deuteronomy 30:19 – This day I call the heavens and the earth as witnesses against you that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your children may live.

This is foundational. We choose if we will walk in blessings or curses. If we choose to believe in, and prove it by acting on life, light, love, truth, justice, mercy, grace etc. – and the biggest of the descriptors of Dad, brother, Holy Spirit – is Best Friend Forever – then we will walk closely with God – and practice the image we were made in (Genesis 1:27).

On the other hand, if we choose to believe in and act on lies like hate, destruction, killing, fearing, manipulating, controlling, doubting, lusting, rejection, loneliness – then we align with and therefore open ourselves up to that demonic spirit, real demonic influence. These are legal rights. Legal rights of God, through Christ, by Holy Spirit and His angels – or legal rights of demons. What do you choose? We must repent = re-think, and re-act. Change our mind. And change our actions. Think rightly, truthfully about things – so we can live them out in action. We must align with our deepest identity as the highly beloved favored intimate friend sons of God, because that is what we are only but FULLY already through the blood of Jesus. Will you repent into that = think that? And will you act on that? That's the truth, and that is the Kingdom of God, and it is the root of true adoption. I can say: "It works. It worked for me. It still works for me. Holy Spirit will also confirm this in you. Now remain and never leave that position as son of God in Christ."

And legal rights also come about if we open ourselves up to the supernatural without doing it only through Jesus, in the name of Jesus, only by the blood, death, suffering, and resurrection of Jesus, by the Word of God, through Jesus Christ as the only mediator, led by Holy Spirit, led by Abba Father. Why? Because He is the only mediator. Therefore, He is the only safe mediator. For He is the only true mediator. All other mediators between us and God, and us and any spiritual experience, therefore, are liars.

The False Versus the Real Thing

Demons are like fake money compared to the real deal. They can do a lot of supernatural things, say things, move things, change the physical realm, and seem good, pretend to be good spirits. But we are called to test all spirits and command them to reply to this sentence: "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ – testify: Do you serve and obey Jesus Christ who came in the body and gave His blood and died for all?" If the answer is just a little unclear, hesitant, indirect, not theologically sound and straightforward – it is a demon from the pit of hell.

A Loving True Warning

The Bible warns, based on what is true, good, and right, that we are not to contact supernatural spirits at all – apart from going directly to Jesus Christ, Holy Spirit, and Abba Father. And why? He is the only mediator between God and humans (1 Timothy 2:5). And He IS Wisdom, Power, Glory, Presence, Revelation, Knowledge, Truth, AND Friend of Friends – now! He is more than enough. He is eternal Truth and Creator. Anything outside of Him is deception. So, He is not trying to take anything good, exciting, right, true, and beneficial away from us. Never! That is exactly the lie of the lying ugly demon, satan, in the garden of Eden, where he said: "Eat and you will be like God." (Genesis 3:1-6)

Bible Warnings Against Supernatural Contact and Power Outside of the True Jesus Christ

The forbidden practices of: Witchcraft, occultism, astrology, yoga, astrology, clairvoyance, ouija board, idolatry, necromancy (contacting the dead) etc.

Warnings against contacting the dead: Deuteronomy 18:9-14, Leviticus 20:27.

Warnings against astrology and other demonic kinds of guidance: Deuteronomy 18:10-14, Isaiah 47:13-14, Jeremiah 10:2.

Warnings against summoning demonic power: Mark 13:22, Acts 16:16-18, Exodus 7:11-13, 2 Thessalonians 2:9-10, Revelation 13:13-14.

Warnings against idol (false "gods" made by people – representing demons) worship: Romans 1:21-23, Jeremiah 10:1-16, Deuteronomy 4:16-19, Isaiah 44:9-20.

All of these are legal rights – which, when we practice them, open us up to demons. They are agreements. They are faith in action. They are opening doors.

> Hosea 4:6 – God says: My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge.

Legal Rights of Generational Curses Examined

These legal rights can even go on for generations as a generational curse (Exodus 20:5-6, Exodus 34:6-7, Deuteronomy 5:7-10). This 3rd and 4th generation (which is vague – and not precise) is contrasted by 1000 generations – which is also not precise – but really just means many. 3 or 4 then really means – not as many as the unlimited and not as strong as God.

Much here indicates that 3–4 generations is not an important, specific number, since we see that neither figure is precise. Is it 3 or 4? And is it only exactly 1,000 generations, and not forever? These are simply contrasting idioms – expressions indicating a "few" and "weak" curses as compared to the goodness and greatness of the blessings of God, who literally blesses us on earth and in Heaven, even forever!

Jesus even said that sins done many generations ago can be accumulated and passed down and see consequences many generations later – not just the 3rd and 4th generation (Luke 11:47-51, Matthew 23:35-36). It's not that we are judged for someone else's sin by God (Jeremiah 31:29-30, Ezekiel 18), but that there are earthly and spiritual consequences to sin in our ancestors which we need to break with. A child of an abusive or violent alcoholic will suffer from that, and might continue the behavior patterns if they are not broken. This can go on for generations. An ancient ancestor in our bloodline can have dedicated themselves, and even their whole bloodline, to demons – through blood sacrifices of animals and/or humans to idol worship, for instance to baal. Those demons behind that worship now claim legal rights to that bloodline until that blood sacrifice dedication curse is specifically broken by the stronger blood of Jesus, in the much stronger name of Jesus, and are then cast out by the authority in that name.

Jesus, God, the Father, and Holy Spirit are just and righteous perfect judges. We as Christians are filled with Holy Spirit, led by Abba Father, Holy Spirit and angel messengers and helpers to be just, fair, righteous, wise, truth-filled, "perfect" judges of all things. Just see the story of Ananias and Saphira in Acts 5:1-11 – and so many other Scriptures like John 7:24, Matthew 18:15-20, 1 Timothy 5:19-23, 1 Corinthians 6:1-5.

Demons are "legalists" – they claim the right to us if we believe in and act on their lies (which is faith). And since we are to rule and reign on earth (Genesis 1:28), God lets us have what we decide we have – whether it be demons based on lies, or Holy Spirit based on truth, or a mix (James 1:6-8) – in every area of life (James 4:4)!

And demons accuse us of sin. Sometimes the only way God can prove that we love God for Himself – because He is good, is love, loves us first, and is already our best friend, not because of any blessings we have – is to allow the enemy to take the blessings from us. Read Job 1-2.

6 Different Legal Right Entry Points of Demons

- Personal sin like bitterness, lying, rejection, self-satisfaction, violence.
- Generational curses in the bloodline.
- Trauma / Accidents / Sexual boundary transgressions. Some causing soul fractures.
- External curses from witches / Warlocks / Free Masonry and the like.
- Demonic / Cursed items in our possession or our houses or demonic tattoos.
- Soul ties / Soul bonds / Foreign soul part attachments.

Now that legal rights are hopefully better defined and understood, we can go on and answer specific questions about whether Christians can need to get demons cast out of them.

FOUNDATION 2

Incorrect Words Used About Demonic Influence in the English Bibles

Here is another foundational topic, before we even fully address the specifics of whether true born-again Christians can need to have demons cast out of them.

First, please understand, that I generally trust good English Bible translations like the ESV, NIV, NASB, and NLT! They are great. Built on millennia of knowledge and battles. But it is easy to see that the enemy has tried – and has succeeded – in influencing Bible translation traditions in a way where demonic influence is not properly understood, and therefore not properly exposed and dealt with.

GIANT Problem: The Unbiblical Demonically Erroneous Use Of The Word "Possession" or "Possessed" In English Bible Translations

We have an extremely problematic Bible translation fact: What if demons are still around and are real and are still influencing people behind the scenes in both Christians and pre-Christians all over the place? What if the demons even managed to get into the Bible translation tradition in this point: The traditional word used: "possession". To be completely upfront: In the original Greek, which the Bible was written in, the word is – "daimonizomai" – and precisely translated means: influenced by demons or demonized. It has absolutely no connotations of ownership, like the English "possessed". Nor is it correct that this is an unlawful "possession", for demons enter through legal rights that must be broken. demons do not "own" anyone. Nor do they simply come in and possess without having a legal right to it. They can, however, come near someone who is without sin, and speak and tempt (think of Jesus in His temptation). SeeMatthew 4:1-11.

This is literally one of the biggest problems that has to be tackled head-on: The use of the word "possession" and possession vs oppression in most English Bible translations and modern charismatic Pentecostal theology.

Answers

- I grant that it is not clear in the Gospels, Acts or the letters in the Bible that a fully born-again by the Holy Spirit (which happened after Jesus' resurrection) – Who now lives inside them – Christian is shown to go through deliverance. It is clear that pre-believers or maybe brand new believers(?) receive deliverance for instance through Philip (Acts 8:7) and Paul (Acts 16:16-18).
- The erroneous translation and use of the word "possession" in 99% of all English language Bibles and its consequences. Demons do not "own" anyone. Please see further deeper Bible and Greek word study below.

I would like to challenge you to go look it up yourselves – for instance here – right now:

To be demonized / influenced by a demon: Daimonizomai / δαιμονίζομαι – biblehub.com/greek/1139.htm

To have: Echó / ἔχω – biblehub.com/greek/2192.htm

It is very easy to do by clicking the words above.

These 2 words are used in the original Greek manuscripts of the Bible – which are both falsely and badly (not just inaccurately) very sadly translated as "possession" or "ownership" in all modern translations of the English Bible.

Word One – daimonizomai – δαιμονίζομαι (and all derived forms hereof)

The word daimonizomai and its derivatives occur 25 times in the New Testament and are always translated "possessed" but should literally never (!!!) be translated "possessed" – but always – "demonized" – meaning: "influenced by demons". This wrong, misguiding, I dare say even, demonic translation has caused the theology (foundation of truth) and thereby ministry (practice) of deliverance to have the wrong foundation and practice of many, even strongly charismatic / Pentecostal Christians, leading them to not or almost not perform inner healing and deliverance. In English "possession" contains the clear and over-arching thought of "ownership" – so the consequence has been the theology, especially developed in the USA and England, that Christians do not need deliverance, because: How can the Holy Spirit "own" a person and a demon "own" that person – at the same time? Also, the word "possession" is extremely all-encompassing, either/or, extreme and violent in nature – whereas "demonized" / "under the influence of demons" has levels, flexibility, and influence levels. Meaning, a demonized person can even have hidden demons, that influence a little at various times – or more at other times.

Please Read This Yourselves in the First Link Above

δαιμονίζομαι; 1 aorist passive participle δαιμονισθείς; (δαίμων); to be under the power of a demon.

The word itself does not talk about ownership in any way at all – but influence. And demons REALLY prefer to hide. It's a smart strategy to hide! Then we don't use the right medicine / tools against them. They hide in many sicknesses, bad habits, negative thoughts, sin, half-truths, limitations, accusations, fears and phobias, shame, temptations, manipulations, religion, pride, etc.

Word Two – echonta - ἔχοντα

The other word used of people influenced by demons is "to have" (Mark 9:17 - ἔχοντα) a demon. This is ALSO translated as being demon possessed in many modern Bible translations – which is just as bad – and this "strike number 2" in extremely bad translation almost proves that demons were influencing the translators – just as they influenced Peter the Apostle (Matthew 16:23) & Judas (John 13:27). Because every other time this word is used in the Bible – 26 times (!!!) – it is simply translated as "to have". At least in some translations where "to have a demon" is written, this is 100% accurate according to the Greek, and accurate to the full perspective of true theology as well as real-life practice and experience. It is not the demon who has the person – but the person who "has" the demon – due to open doors in that person's life.

My Heartfelt Recommendation and Prayer

My recommendation, therefore, to you is: Whenever you read or hear the word "possessed" or "possession" in the Bible or sermons going forwards from this moment – change it immediately inside yourself to: “demonized” / “influenced by demons” / “has a demon”. And, whenever you have a chance to speak to someone about this error – seek to correct it. Unfortunately, right now, you are up against Bible translators and scholars – who usually do not practice and therefore really do not understand deliverance (Matthew 22:29). And even those who believe in it and practice it are not consistent in correcting this error. People tend to stick to translation tradition on this point – which is understandable. But that is exactly why you must make up your own mind about this and study it out like a Berean – in order to humbly, yet firmly on truth, love, and justice be able to stand firm.

VISION FOR ACTION: Highest Level Action – Let’s Believe We Can Change This

Those reading this who have influence on actual Bible translators – please talk with them about this real problem. Show them videos of good Christians who get deliverance from good healthy ministers and Bible scholars – and hear them tell the testimony stories – and share this book with them. There is nothing fishy or questionable here at all. Let’s change this for the glory of our King, Jesus! Those who have lots of money and are wondering what to do with it for eternity. Invest in a project like this: That we would have an English language Bible where the words around freedom from demons are correct. And while they are at it some phrases around Matthew 18:15-20 should be changed to “shall have been allowed or forbidden” as well as super clear language around the first (Heaven / hell, faith alone, the blood alone) and second judgment after passing the first (deeds of love and faith with reward or no reward).

- Etc. Etc. Etc.

Even today people who are charismatics (which means they fully believe in the power of God for healing, prophecy, raising the dead, Holy Spirit baptism etc.) think that because people have the Holy Spirit in them – how can there be room for evil spirits “possessing” them as well? This again ties in with this fully evil, false and lying Bible translation tradition fact.

And the even greater problem here is: If a person is full of Holy Spirit because they are born-again – how can they, at the same time, be "owned by" (possessed) or totally "controlled by" one or more demons?

Another argument for the need for deliverance for Christians (among those who believe the supernatural is for Christians today) is the present-day existence of the Holy Spirit grace gift of "discerning of spirits". This is a helpful gift when it comes to deliverance. It helps us discern what kind of spirit is present. Is it the Holy Spirit, a holy angel of Jesus, Jesus Himself, a demon, or a human spirit – or a mix?

Further Important Point on the: Possession vs Oppression Debate

Now that we are at this. A lot of Christians who believe in deliverance and practice it go into futile arguments and say that truly born-again Christians cannot be totally "possessed" = 100% taken over by a demon – because the Holy Spirit lives in them. They say they can be "oppressed – but not possessed". This dialogue is already derailed before it starts, because it is based on trying to fit non-biblical words and wrong language to the issue – even though the error is sincere, since it is an attempt to be loyal to the Word of God as they read it in English, not the Greek, which is the actual inspired original text.

Here is one of the major problems with this way of talking about it: The fact is – that in some deliverance sessions – where genuine born-again believers are getting set free – the demons pop up to the front – and take over the consciousness of that person for a time. According to this wrong differentiation between possession vs oppression – they cannot then, be truly born-again believers – because at that very moment – when the demon is "up", talking, moving the person's body, they are possessed = not a Christian – which is 100% wrong! That is part of the proof that this debate is derailed and unnecessary. It is, again, derailed by the wrong translation of "daemonizomai". And since we as Christians should be – and like to be – word nerds, for whom words and meanings actually matter (because we serve the Living Word of God, and truth is eternal and matters), the traditional Bible-translation choice here really matters. It must change globally!

Early Church Fathers & Deliverance

So, in the years after the Bible was written and finalized, of course there were Christian leaders leading and writing things. What they wrote is not Bible, but it can serve as an indication of what they were given by the first disciples.

And we also know that we have at least 7 early church fathers – who all clearly taught on and described deliverances they saw or did on Christians.

On Everyday Believers (Non-Apostles, Non-Priests) Casting Out Demons

Origen (185-254 A.D.) - "And this, we may observe, Christians do without the use of any curious magic, or incantations, but merely by prayer and simple adjurations which the plainest person can use. Because for the most part it is unlettered persons who perform this work: thus making manifest the grace which is in the word of Christ, and the despicable weakness of demons, which, in order to be overcome and driven out of the bodies and souls of men, do not require the power and wisdom of those who are mighty in argument, and most learned in matters of faith" (Contra Celsum, VII,4).

This view is linked to the idea that demons are the disembodied spirits of these hybrids, a concept supported by early theologians like Origen, who saw demons as spirits of the Nephilim.

On Christians Being Demonized

Tertullian (155-240 A.D.) - "In the outcasting, accordingly, when the unclean creature was upbraided with having dared to attack a believer, he firmly replied, "And in truth I did it most righteously, for I found her in my domain"(De spectaculis, 26).

On Demons Causing Physical & Mental Illnesses

Minucius Felix (unknown - 250 A.D.) - "They disturb the life, render all men unquiet; creeping also secretly into human bodies, with subtlety, as being spirits, they feign diseases, alarm the minds, wrench about the limbs;" (Octavius, ANF 4).

On Exorcisms Post-Faith, Yet Pre-Baptism (Baptism Honored as a Deliverance Tool)

Hippolytus (ca. 210 A.D.) - "From the day that they (who are to be baptized) are elected, let there be laying on of hands with exorcism every day. When the day of baptism approaches, let the bishop perform exorcism on each one of them, so that he may be certain that the baptizand is clean. But if there is anybody who is not clean, he should be set aside because he did not hear the instruction with faith. For the alien spirit remained with him." (Apostolic Tradition, 20,3).

Clement of Alexandria (150 - 215 A.D.) also postulated that if the enemy is inside the city, the wall (of baptism) will work against its purpose. It is important that the demon not – so to speak – slip under the seal of baptism. Then it would be more difficult to drive it out afterwards (Excerpta ex Theodoto).

On Demons Recognizing Authority or Rank Within Kingdoms

Tertullian (155-240 AD) - "It is not, then, that we do not believe in demons, but we have learned that they are servants and subject to another, and before that other we are warned to bow down, to whom they are made subject after an inferior fashion."

On Interrogating Demons & Demons Speaking Truth When Adjured in Jesus' Name

Tertullian (155-240 A.D.) - "Let a person be brought before your tribunals, who is plainly under demoniacal possession (daemone agi). The wicked spirit, bidden to speak by a follower of Christ, will as readily make the truthful confession that he is a demon, as elsewhere he has falsely asserted that he is a god" (Apol. 23, 4-15).

Minucius Felix (unknown - 250 A.D.) - "Saturn himself, and Serapis, and Jupiter, and whatever demons you worship, overcome by pain, speak out what they are; and assuredly they do not lie to their own discredit, especially when any of you are standing by. Since they themselves are the witnesses that they are demons, believe them when they confess the truth of themselves; for when abjured by the only and true God;" (Octavius, ANF 4).

Theophilus of Antioch (ca. 180 A.D.) - “This is clearly evidenced by the fact that even today demons are exorcised from possessed in the name of the true God, and then the deceiving spirits confess themselves that they are the demons who once worked in the poets…” (Ad Autolycum II,8).

On Demons Stirring the Minds of Unbelievers Against Christians

Minucius Felix (unknown - 250 A.D.) - "And thus, introduced into the minds of the ignorant, they secretly sow there a hatred of us by means of fear.... Thus, they take possession of the minds and obstruct the hearts, that men may begin to hate us before they know us; lest, if known, they should either imitate us or not be able to condemn us." (Octavius, ANF 4).

On Demons Possessing Objects or Taking Shapes of Animals

Athanasius or St. Anthony (251-356 A.D.) - “The demons made such a racket that the whole place was shaken, knocking over the four walls of the tomb; they came in droves, taking the shapes of all kinds of beasts and reptiles.” (Life of Anthony).

ARGUMENT 1 - That Christians Can and Do Have Demons

Idolatry by Born-Again Christians

On the basis of the foundations laid above, these are the legal rights – also into the lives of born-again Christians.

Idolatry is the worship of one or more false gods.

But What Does That Actually Mean Practically and Biblically?

According to Colossians 3:5 sexual immorality, impurity, lust, evil desires and greed IS idolatry.

How does that work? It is the opposite of worshipping the one true holy good wholeheartedly loving God.

According to 1 Samuel 15:23 “disobedience is as the sin of witchcraft”. And we know that witchcraft opens you up to demons:

> Acts 16:16-18 - 16 Once when we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a female slave who had a spirit by which she predicted the future. She earned a great deal of money for her owners by fortune-telling. 17 She followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who are telling you the way to be saved." 18 She kept this up for many days. Finally, Paul became so annoyed that he turned around and said to the spirit, "In the name of Jesus Christ I command you to come out of her!" At that moment the spirit left her.

> Revelation 21:8 - But the cowardly, the unbelieving, the vile, the murderers, the sexually immoral, those who practice magic arts, the idolaters and all liars–they will be consigned to the fiery lake of burning sulfur. This is the second death.
> Revelation 22:15 - Outside are the dogs, those who practice magic arts, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.
> Ephesians 5:5 - For of this you can be sure: No immoral, impure or greedy person–such a person is an idolater–has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.

Idolatry is the worship of idols, which is the worship of demons – which is a legal right you choose, opening it up in your life. This happens, for example, if you have a root of bitterness and accusation (destroying your trust in God). This comes from accusing the heart of God for being evil. That comes from agreement with demons that sin is allowed and excused. Then you open up a door – for you agree with lies. satan is the father of lies (John 8:44).

What Do We Actually Do? What Do We Obey? Love In Action

According to Jesus, we show and prove that we actually, only, really love Jesus by obeying – that is, by doing what He commands (John 14:15, John 14:21). This concept is found all over the Bible. True faith, hope, and love is expressed through obedience to the loving, freeing, true, life-giving commands of Jesus. The opposite, unfortunately, is also true – that if we do not obey Him, we hate Him, deny Him and agree with satan. This includes humbly repenting into obedience to who we ARE in Christ – our beautiful true identity as His beloved children.

When we then consider what I talked about with legal rights above – we are in real and serious trouble when we sin. Any kind of sin against the heart, nature, and commands of God that we do is a problem. Why? It is agreement with satan. It is obedience towards a lie. It is obedience to satan and demons. It is disobedience to what we were made to be, and to what Abba Father, brother Jesus, and Holy Spirit think of us. It is not who we truly ARE.

Does this agreement with demons open us up to the influence of demons? Yes. Is that a gradual thing? Yes – from anywhere very weak – to very much. As I usually say, "Demons can be 3 places.

- Far away, no real problem
- Next to us (annoying – we command them to leave like Jesus did in Matthew 4:10)
- In us – where they manipulate and control us. Also here, we go to war.

With step 3, we are in a unique situation of war here. We have literally been given authority over the army of our enemy! In the name of Jesus and in Christ, we have been given complete authority over ALL demons (Luke 10:19). We need to command them to leave our presence – and to come up and out of us if they are in us, in Jesus' name! And no, you cannot delegate that back to Jesus. He has given you the authority and commanded you to use it. You can either obey that or disobey that clear command. Your choice. Please repent, change, and use that free God-given gift boldly in Jesus' name! Be very bold and courageous (Revelation 21:8, Proverbs 28:1, Acts 4:13, Acts 14:3)! And ask God for courage to be bold – that is a great prayer, which even the bold Apostle Paul prayed:

> Ephesians 6:19-20 - 19 Pray also for me, that whenever I speak, words may be given me so that I will fearlessly make known the mystery of the gospel, 20 for which I am an ambassador in chains. Pray that I may declare it fearlessly, as I should.

I had to admit that I had both worshipped the one true God, Jesus Christ – AND – I believed He halfheartedly loved me! That is full agreement with a 100% lie! It is 100% agreement with the accuser of God (Revelation 12:10-12). It is a lie that I am treated by God with even 0.0001% injustice or unfairness. The cross says it all. God is wholeheartedly all-in, in love with you and me. All demons are FULL of exactly those emotions and lies and convictions of rejection and that orphan mindset.

That we have ever been rejected by Abba Father – is simply one big illusion, a lie, a house of cards with no strength in comparison with God's power of truth – for it is untrue. It is a total lie from the pit of hell. God has forever loved us (Revelation 13:8). It is true that they are rejected and that they feel it is unfair. They ooze it! We need to repent out of the lie – into the truth that we are wholeheartedly loved by Abba Father – by getting the proof for that only through the blood, suffering, and death of Jesus for us on the cross.

I believed the lie. I believed the lie of God loving me – but not completely – thereby opening myself up to demonic influence. That then led me to counter-reject God. I said – and a demon helped me – "Because You do not completely love me, I will hold back the deepest part of my heart from You." That then, logically, led me to self-pity, feeling very sorry for myself, because God was not treating me fairly, and then to self-satisfaction, which to me mainly was porn and time-waste, compromises of disobedience rooted from feeling rejected.

What is it for you?

This mindset led me to open my life – through a sinful, rebellious, lie-based belief – to corresponding demons with the function of rejection, self-pity, and lust. I thought I only had an "impure lust" problem. And I did! And I repented and said sorry and pulled myself together and re-decided to never do it again. But that was only the fruit of a root system that empowered, energized and produced the fruit.

When I thoroughly dealt with the roots through repentance into my true identity of my Abba Father's best friend – and then the demons through authority – and then started living in my calling, stopping the porn came easy.

Through obedience to rejection, I used to be "worshipping" an idol – a false "god" – a god who had both love and rejection in his heart for me. Whatever we obey – which shows up in our actions – is our real "god". Through obedience to the lies of satan, I became obedient to satan, I opened up to satan, and gave him access to my emotions, my body, my soul.

The first commandment is (Exodus 20:3, Deuteronomy 5:7): You shall have no other gods before me.

I did – and didn't realize it! Do you?

As a born-again, spirit-filled, Bible, church, prayer, people, God-loving Christian, who hated sin and continually repented – I had areas of my life that were polluted by false doctrine, lies, sin, and with demons helping me from the outside – and from the inside. And I was blind to it for 17 years up until 2020, when COVID came…

I am so happy to have found, accepted, and now proactively choose to choose to focus on the true identity I have been given, and I deeply needed as His most highly uniquely favored child with a super important purpose. I choose obedience in love to that. I now know how to use authority over the evil hateful enemy. I received inner healing from deep wounds, letting go of bitterness. I learnt how to suffer in, with, and only through the presence, comforting, strength of Holy Spirit looking to Jesus on the cross only – not just "powering through", "pulling myself together". What if that "myself" is emotionally wounded by emotional trauma?

To act on sin is idolatry, it is agreement with rebellion and the rebel and liar, lucifer, which is demon worship, which opens the door to demons.

That is real life. That is the real logic of the sinful nature – the fallen flesh, of which Paul says in Romans 7:18, that "I know that in my flesh dwells no good thing". And it is the interplay reality of the spiritual world tempting us to sin and influencing us to such a degree that they are entering us and manipulating and trying to control us from the inside as well.

This is my theological logic number 1. It is clearly evidenced in these Scriptures:

> Hebrews 12:15-16 ESV - See to it that no one fails to obtain the grace of God; that no "root of bitterness" springs up and causes trouble, and by it many become defiled; that no one is sexually immoral or unholy like Esau, who sold his birthright for a single meal.

Bitterness leads to self-satisfaction. Esau sold his identity of favored dear and intimately beloved son through bitter accusation against God. So did I!

I self-satisfied – for I was not satisfied with God's behavior towards me in this world. My mistake was to agree with lucifer, that God was mysteriously a little bit against me. So, I could not give God the deepest part of my heart – for I felt and judged, that He had not given me His. I distrusted His heart. And I am created to live in – and be fully satisfied in and with – my Abba Father, through Jesus, by the Holy Spirit's satisfying peace, warmth, love, presence, and help (John 14:26). But if I distrust someone – I will not – out of healthy self-protecting love – give them my most vulnerable part. The problem was that I wrongly misjudged the heart of God. So, I effectively self-sabotaged my friendship with Abba Father based on a complete lie.

Please read all of Romans 8:1-39!

Why does it work for us by faith to choose full adoption agreement? How does God win over and heal an emotional giant mountain of hurt, grief, disappointment, rejection, loneliness, self-pity, bitterness, sorrow, injustice, pain, and retaliation? The answer: It is true! The blood, the cross, the utter and complete suffering, the death of Jesus – and the obedience towards the Father of Jesus proves – Dad loves me like that. The choice of Jesus was to love me like that. The love of Jesus prevailed – even though I didn't deserve it, no, in fact, I deserve the opposite of His mercy, grace, love, forgiveness and kindness. I deserve wrath, destruction, death. But He, Jesus, took all of that. Now that, is our true GOD

As a born-again Spirit filled Bible reading, Bible obeying Christian, I took vengeance on God for the pain in my life that I mistakenly thought was coming from Him and was coming out of a heart of Him not fully loving me. I thought and bought and believed that God loved me super much – but not completely. satan's whisper from his identity helped me become his ally in his rebellion against the goodness of God – even as a theology educated passionate Christian leader.

I deeply repented saying sorry to Dad for hurting and accusing Him wrongly and I ran and still always run into the goodness and intimate friendship with Abba Dadddyo, through the blood alone, by Holy Spirit, in Christ, in Jesus' name alone! I opened the door to demons. Now I shut the door of agreement. I opened up new agreement with the perfect written Word of God, the Bible, and the living Word, Jesus Christ. And I also cast those ugly, lying, dark, defeated demons out of me and away from me! Ahhhh – the freedom, the peace, the love, the joy!! The restoration of purpose and fruitfulness.

By the blood and grace of Jesus, I have been reconciled to my Abba Father. By Holy Spirit, I now agree, and cry out: Abba Father! Fully agreeing and adopting your true adoption, not being an orphan, 24/7 – every millisecond, NOW, is a crucial part of full healthy deliverance.

What Is Idolatry Also?

The traditional understanding of it is that it is directly doing various sacrifices with food, animal blood, even human blood to false gods – like those of other religions, witchcraft, occultism etc.

Imagine you have an ancestor 100 generations ago who sacrificed children to idols, false gods and dedicated themselves and their entire bloodline to those demons. What if those dedications have never been broken in the name of Jesus and put under the blood by anyone in that bloodline to legally stop that dedication? Then those demons still claim access to that bloodline! And God cannot deny that it is a true claim to have access. Those are the top level (Ephesians 6:11-12) "strong-men" (Matthew 12:29, Mark 3:27, Luke 11:21-22) demons that we tackle in healthy generational bloodline curse breaking interrogation style Holy Spirit led deliverance.

The same goes for Free Masonry dedications – or any other unjust spilling of blood in the past. There can be demons attached to the bloodline today – because of those sins of passion and cursed dedications.

This is one of the at least 23 areas that all Christians need to do repentance, truth, humility work in order to get the deep inner healing, Jesus has already made available and proven is there for us by faith.

ARGUMENT 2 - That Christians Can and Do Have Demons

Unforgiveness in Christians

Unforgiveness is clearly a form of idolatry. It is disobedience to Jesus and obedience to the words and nature of satan. So, if not dealt with, it is the worship of demons opening both Christians and pre-Christians up to demonic influence of sin, depression, and sicknesses.

Can you then be a Christian if you have not completely forgiven all others – including yourself? YES! Look up Matthew 18:34-35. See how those who do not "from the heart forgive" are assigned "jailers to be tortured" (Greek) from the Father! That sounds a lot like demons are allowed to "jail and torture us" if we will not forgive.

Notice the Father does not disown and reject the son. They are still Christians. But the Father gives the unforgiving person over to suffering, torture, isolation, depression – even by people who precisely resemble demonic personalities. The Father who has completely forgiven the sinner a huge mountain of debt, allows demons to attack that person who has chosen to not be forgiving to others who owe a small debt in comparison.

I therefore conclude that a bitter root false judgment of unforgiveness is a legal right where we align ourselves with satan and his lies. This legally allows demons to attack us. We choose to agree. We come under death and destruction. We rebel against the love, faith and truth of the Father. So, we receive what we choose to believe. That is justice.

Do all who harbor unforgiveness in their heart need deliverance with specific commands – commanding the demons of bitterness to leave? Not necessarily. It can be a root of bitterness (Acts 8:23, Hebrews 12:15-16). But could there be demons of rejection, orphan spirits, depression and sicknesses attached? Yes – certainly. Read Mark 11:23-26 – where faith, answers to prayer, and forgiveness is closely linked.

This is one of the areas that all Christians need to do repentance, truth, humility work in order to get the deep inner healing, Jesus has already made available and proven is there for us by faith.

ARGUMENT 3 - That Christians Can and Do Have Demons

Physical & Emotional Healing Comes Through Faith in Action

When we are born-again by Holy Spirit through faith in Jesus, not all sicknesses leave us at that exact time even though the Bible clearly says: He bore all sicknesses on Him on the cross.

> Matthew 8:16-17 - 16 When evening came, many who were influenced by demons were brought to him, and he drove out the spirits with a word and healed all the sick. 17 This was to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet Isaiah: "He took up our infirmities and bore our diseases."
> 1 Peter 2:23-25 - 23 When they hurled their insults at him, he did not retaliate; when he suffered, he made no threats. Instead, he entrusted himself to him who judges justly. 24 "He himself bore our sins" in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; "by his wounds you have been healed." 25 For "you were like sheep going astray," but now you have returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

If truly born-again Christians do not need deliverance after they are born again – why are they not also 100% healed – and even 100% sin-free, for Jesus also took all sin in Him for all of us forever? The clear experience of people who are born again is that they have a need for continual lifelong submission and repentance from sin into the goodness of God, and they also still need both physical and emotional healing, and deliverance. This is seen both in ancient church history – and in modern days – as well as in the New Testament.

What is completely made new is our spirit in us. We are born-again in our spirit by Holy Spirit who comes to live inside of us. The Christian life is one long journey to then practice that Spirit of adoption and intimate NOW friendship with Abba Father. Yes, take a moment now to stop and acknowledge by Holy Spirit in you (not by emotions but by truth), that He is there right now for you, deeply loving you, intimately befriending you, knowing you.

After faith in Jesus, there is still work to do – to apply, practically, the victory Jesus achieved on the cross. The good thing is this: the blood and death of Jesus have fully paid for all our sin forever, permanently – simply through faith. That is why Jesus said in Luke 10:20: However, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven. The blood of the cross is PERMANENT. It is unshakeable. It never changes. Demons come and go. Sickness comes and goes. Sometimes people get healed, delivered, raised from the dead. But those raised – die later. Those delivered might choose to open up again. Those who are sick but get healed – might get sick again. BUT those who simply believe in Jesus – remain forgiven, remain loved, remain best friends of Abba Father, even in spite of extreme unjust or just suffering. Now THAT is permanent – established by God Himself, outside of us. We cannot undo it. We cannot destroy it. We can choose to believe it – or reject it. That is on us. It is perfect – made eternally perfect by the One who is Perfect. That is the firm foundation on which we stand.

In this I rejoice more than over all the miracles that God does of healings, deliverances, dead-raisings, prophesies, provisions, and blessings. He is my treasure. He is my love. He is my Best Friend Forever, my secure fortress of love forever in the Spirit (not in the physical first).

Heaven is my home first, not this earth, which is under destruction and death. While I go for bringing as much of Heaven's power and justice, freedom and love, yes, the very bleeding humble gentle heart of the Father offered in peace and friendship, to earth as I can in and through my free will decisions. That is our mission. As best friends with Papa, Abba to bring others into that very same completely reconciled state of being which I have. For we all have it.

Does the miracle power of Holy Spirit provide attention as well as give evidence to the love and reality of God? Yes. So, we will go for miracles with passion and boiling zeal. But first – we rejoice and remain in the fullness of the love of God – no matter what does or doesn't happen in our physical lives – just like Jesus did as He made His way to His death on the cross.

COUNTER ARGUMENT 1 - That Christians Can and Do Have Demons

Holy Spirit Living With Demons?

Holy Spirit lives in us, we are the temple of God as Christians. How can demons live in us at the same time? As Christians we go from being children of darkness to children of light.

> Colossians 1:13 - For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves.
> 1 Corinthians 6:19-20 - Do you not know that your bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit, who is in you, whom you have received from God? You are not your own; 20 you were bought at a price. Therefore, honor God with your bodies.
> 1 John 4:4 - You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world.

> 2 Corinthians 6:14-16 - Do not be yoked together with unbelievers. For what do righteousness and wickedness have in common? Or what fellowship can light have with darkness? 15 What harmony is there between Christ and Belial? Or what does a believer have in common with an unbeliever? What agreement is there between the temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God. As God has said: 'I will live with them and walk among them, and I will be their God, and they will be my people.'
> Romans 8:9 - You, however, are not in the realm of the flesh but are in the realm of the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God lives in you. And if anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, they do not belong to Christ.
> Ephesians 1:13-14 - And you also were included in Christ when you heard the message of truth, the gospel of your salvation. When you believed, you were marked in him with a seal, the promised Holy Spirit, 14 who is a deposit guaranteeing our inheritance until the redemption of those who are God's possession–to the praise of his glory.
> John 10:28-29 - I give them eternal life, and they shall never perish; no one will snatch them out of my hand. 29 My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all; no one can snatch them out of my Father's hand.
> 1 John 5:18 - We know that anyone born of God does not continue to sin; the One who was born of God keeps them safe, and the evil one cannot harm them.
> John 8:36 - So, if the Son sets you free, you will be free indeed.

The problem then comes – because demons also see us as their houses / temples. We are the house of whatever shows up in the thoughts, emotions, and fruit of our lives. Luke 11:24 – They "rest" in a body. They see us as houses that they "live in" (Luke 11:26). What and then also who will we house through our faith and action?

Explanation – Short Facts

Where Do Demons Live and Where Does Holy Spirit Live in People?

Demons are disembodied spirits and live in the flesh – and can therefore influence us by giving sicknesses, influencing emotions, speaking thoughts, and influencing body movements. They can certainly bring sickness (Luke 13:16) and influence the body, the brain thoughts, and emotions of a person (Mark 9:22).

Here is an interesting, plausible illustration of how we humans are body, soul, and spirit (1 Thessalonians 5:23). Even those of us who are born-again and filled with Holy Spirit can still house demons in the physical flesh. The illustration is to see our bodies as temples of Holy Spirit – which is also very Scriptural (1 Corinthians 6:19-20). When we then look at how the temple is laid out: the Most Holy of Holies is where God lives by Holy Spirit – which is our heart and spirit (Galatians 4:6, 1 Corinthians 3:16, Ephesians 2:21-22). Our soul could then be the Holy Place, and our bodies are then the Outer Courts of the temple. Jesus cleared the big temple in Jerusalem several times, fiercely driving out those who were not supposed to be there… (John 2:13-17, Mark 11:15-19) – just like He wants to drive demons out of us.

Holy Spirit lives in our spirit – and can also heal us, speak to us, strike us, and influence us physically – along with the angels as well (John 3:6, Romans 8:9, Acts 12:23, Luke 1:20-25).

Saved – Yet Still Not Perfected

We know for a fact that, even though Christians are born again by Jesus, most still have deep emotional trauma – and demons can live in us through the lies we believe due to trauma. So, we need to work with that. We also know that sickness is still there even though Jesus paid for it all on the cross, so we need to apply the healing from the cross to all our sicknesses. That is work. We also know Christians can both sin, due to free will and temptations. And they can choose to no longer believe in Jesus.

Born Again – Yet Still With Free-Will Choices That Open Legal Rights

Even though we are believers in Jesus Christ and therefore are born-again: We still have free will – and we can therefore harbor legal rights of open doors of agreement with lies and sin. The reality of the responsibility of free will choice is still a reality in the lives of all born-again Christian believers.

God and Demons Close to Each Other

Can demons be close to Jesus and Holy Spirit? Yes. There is still close dialogue between God and demons. See:

The fast and temptation of Jesus where Jesus ended up talking with the enemy was arranged by Holy Spirit: Matthew 3:17-4:11

Book of Job 1-2. God is super excited about Job – twice in a row. And satan twice claims that Job only loves God because of the physical blessings. The only way to disprove satan, is that God allows satan to take away the physical blessings.

See demons speaking in the spirit realm with God: 1 Kings 22:19-23 – and God agreeing – this is a good plan that He allows.

We find Jesus talking about satan requesting God to be allowed to test Peter's and all the disciples' faith: Luke 22:31-32. Jesus had not just shut down satan… He prayed for him, that his faith may not fail – and it didn't.

Does God like and love the enemy? God is love – but also justice and truth. Those are not opposites. So, since the enemy is hate, is injustice, is a liar – the enemy is met by justice and truth – not forgiveness.

God is in authority, and we are in authority in the name of Jesus – to rule and right in intimate partnership and friendship with Holy Spirit. Sometimes both God and the enemy pick a fight, and then the enemy has to ask for permission. Other times God decides to allow the enemy to attack ahead of time – if we do certain sins – like unforgiveness (Matthew 18:34-35).

Is that fair? 100%! We have clearly been given free will, a conscience, and creation which reflects and is proof of our Creator (Romans 1:18-20). We also continually judge others on what is right and not. That judgment also hits us and is a standard we break ourselves (Romans 2:1). When we then still sin – as born-again Holy Spirit filled Christians and as not – God judges us with justice – and is allowed to allow demons and angels to carry that judgment – so our flesh might be purified (1 Corinthians 5:1-5). That does not make God evil, unfair, or unloving – and He has also given us all we need: even Himself, in love, and our full adoption as His sons – for free.

He will never allow us to be tempted beyond what we can bear and resist (1 Corinthians 10:13)! When a demon, "a messenger of satan", was sent to Paul to keep him humble, it did not cause him to sin, it caused him to stay humble and remain in grace alone (2 Corinthians 12:1-10).

COUNTER ARGUMENT 2 - That Christians Can and Do Have Demons

Cessationism

Did God decide to stop doing miracles of healing, deliverance, prophecy and dead-raisings and all other types of miracles – because now, we have the Bible?

Think it through with me: the devil and the demons certainly didn't lose their power. But God did… because He produced a book? It's another form of idolatry. Let's worship the book instead of the fullness of the trinity – the Living God, the Living Word of God.

I am so happy God didn't lose His power and has still given His power and His authority to us by giving us Himself, and He with the power is inside us now (1 John 4:4, Romans 8:11, Philippians 3:10).

Some believers and church traditions don't believe the supernatural power gifts of the Holy Spirit of God are for today, even though they believe the Bible is the eternal perfect Word of God. This sad and untrue standpoint is called cessationism (the Holy Spirit gifts have "ceased") or they believe it is still today "naturally not as needed". This means they will fight against God on this – while they are thinking they are serving God. This in effect turns them into the Pharisees, Sadducees and Teachers of The Law, who fought and killed Jesus and what He wanted to do in the area of the supernatural (not all areas) – even though they are amazing born-again Christians. If you are a cessationist – repent!

> John 5:39-40 - 39 You study the Scriptures diligently because you think that in them you have eternal life. These are the very Scriptures that testify about me, 40 yet you refuse to come to me to have life.
> Mark 12:24 - Jesus replied, "Are you not in error because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God?
> 2 Timothy 3:5 - (People will be) having a form of godliness but denying its power.

I Like This Classic Saying

If you just have the Word – you dry up!

If you just have the Spirit – you blow up!

Both the Word and the Spirit – you grow up!

Conclusion

I hope the Bible, Jesus, my teaching, my personal stories, your personal stories, and the teachings and stories of so many others worldwide have by now convinced you that deliverance is for both pre-Christians and Christians who are truly born-again by the Holy Spirit of God.

Foundational Inner Healing, Demon, & Deliverance Facts

Foundational understandings to do and understand deliverance well. Healthy theology is the foundation of healthy practice.

Here is a list of clear Biblical doctrinal and theological facts around the spiritual world – that lead to theory, tools, and practice.

The 4 "Influencers" of This Physical and Spiritual World

1. The Free Will of People

Biblical basis: 2 Timothy 2:12, 1 Corinthians 6:2-3, Ephesians 2:6, Revelation 5:10

God respects and honors your will. He loves and trusts you, honors you, and believes in you so much He gives you true free will to choose for yourself what you will believe and do. The Bible says: "For freedom – Christ has set us free." (Galatians 5:1) When I was free of my demons, I discovered I was no longer manipulated against my will. I was free to choose. Will you and I love or hate? Will you get bitter or better? Will you surrender or fight? Will you believe God totally wholeheartedly loves you or that He is only half-heartedly for you or fully against you? Will you choose to live now (and now and...) in His love for you? Since we do have free will to choose – God is correct to lovingly command us to do things that are good, just, loving, and freeing, and true – which we can choose not to do – but to our own detriment. We are actually created by God to rule and reign on and over the earth with God, who is love, and with each other. That is also why God honors our wills as responsible regents, placed caretakers, able stewards of all that is God's that He has entrusted to us to take well care of.

> Will you get bitter or better? Will you surrender or fight?

2. The Free Will of Demons and Angels

Biblical basis: Psalm 91:11, Hebrews 1:14, Isaiah 14:12-15, Revelation 12:7-9

Angels are messengers who do the bidding of God. They are soldiers, warriors, worshippers, protectors, guardians and servants of Christians as they obey God only. We do not worship them. We do not command them. We can ask the Father to send angels. Some demon types are angels who rebelled, disobeyed their calling, got proud and independent, and were cast out of Heaven. They did not want to worship God – but wanted to worship themselves as god instead. They are exactly the opposite of God and the angels. The demons we cast out of people are the spirits of human / angel watcher hybrids. They in turn serve the angels – who are bound in hell inside the earth.

3. The Influencer of the Fallen Broken Dying Atoms (Physical Creation)

Biblical basis: Romans 8:19-22, Genesis 3:17-19, 2 Corinthians 4:16-18, Luke 13:1-5

The brokenness, destruction, and death of present creation. Storms, planets crashing, accidents, rogue animals, and diseases. It all strikes randomly according to atoms, chemicals, math, and chance. The Bible says creation groans, suffers, longs for the revelation of the sons of God = all believers (ladies are sons here – just like men are brides of Christ).

4. The Free Will of God

Biblical basis: Joshua 24:15, 1 John 4:8, Deuteronomy 30:19

Of course, God has a will – but He doesn't manipulate, micro-manage, and remote control everything. He is looking for both obedience and friendship collaboration with us (John 15:15, Genesis 3:8). God LOVES humans – and His creation. God IS love. He cannot not do all He does in complete perfect humble gentle yet ferocious love. But the foundational ingredient to love which makes love truly valuable is free will. The kind of love He wants from us is voluntary – freely chosen by our own decision. He chooses all of us in Christ – has already done so – but we must choose if we will choose Him back. So, we had to be able to say no. And we can. Crazy, scary, real, but so honorable, so valuable, so loving of God to let us choose! We can say no to God. Dangerous as well. For we choose poorly – if we do not choose to let Him love us, and to love Him back. God did not create will and emotionless pre-programmed computers to just endlessly, mindlessly, unemotionally, worthlessly repeat: "I love you, God."

Conclusion

Seeing these 4 "influencers" on the events of this world should actually help some of you know: Ok – so I am not all responsible myself for the bad that happens to me and that I do. Demons are involved. People are involved. Fallen nature is involved. I am not solely responsible. Justice is served by a true division of responsibility. You are, however, 100% responsible for how you respond to it! These 2 verses illustrate that we are meant to be in a collaboration with God in everything:

> Luke 1:37 ESV - Nothing will be impossible with God. Mark 9:23 - Everything is possible for one who believes.

We do not cast out the flesh and crucify demons! We crucify the flesh and cast out demons! Yes, we are 100% responsible to be mature and make fact-based faith decisions. And demons, other people, nature and God are 100% responsible for their decisions and the consequences that follow.

> We do not cast out the flesh and crucify demons! We crucify the flesh and cast out demons!

The Error of God Being "In Control"

Biblical basis: 1 John 5:19, Hebrews 11:6, James 2:14-17, Luke 7:30.

Many Christians are apathetic, lackadaisical, lazy, too laid back, and too "nice". They pray: "God send revival." And they do not first, themselves, deeply repent, literally change their lives, and obey the fullness of all the commands of Jesus (Matthew 28:19-20). They comfortably in a misunderstood expression of what they think is "faith and trust" delegate to God what He has delegated and entrusted to them to do. They effectively say: "No thank you." to Jesus saying: "I have been given it all – now I give it all to you, the authority over all demons (Luke 10:19), the Kingdom (Luke 12:32), the responsibility to judge (1 Corinthians 6:2-3), love, act, heal the sick, cast out demons, and raise the dead (Matthew 10:7-8)." They say: "God – you fix that…". It seems and sounds like trust and faith in God's power to do what He wants – but it is disguised religious disobedience to the fullness of commands of God. They will be saved, but the evaluation of what they did with what they were given, will be worse than it should have been. It is the sin of omission – meaning, the deletion of some of the harder, more challenging disciplines of absolutely normal discipleship, like proactively doing inner healing and deliverance, proactive dead-raising, proactively going out to find "the person of peace", and leaders proactively publicly exposing it to those they lead, when there is clear sin of Christian leaders according to Matthew 18:15-20 and 1 Timothy 5:19-22 etc.

We end up not taking a proper level of responsibility for our actions, if God is just "in control". We end up not repenting enough, obeying fully. We end up accepting things on earth that are deeply wrong, evil, unloving, injustice – as the "will of God" – for "God is in control". This is not ok and needs to stop now.

We all live in a tension between the perfect will of God and the permissive will of God. We are all on a percentage scale of actually practicing the fullness of what Holy Spirit leads us to do.

I am not talking about salvation here – at all. We are all already perfect, beloved in the Beloved (Jesus), sons of God through the blood of Jesus alone if we have simply received it by trusting faith! This is about the second judgment, the evaluation of how much we have humbly loved and obeyed what He called us to do.

God's Interaction With Demons

Sin – Legal Rights

When we or our ancestors sin, God can allow demon hybrids (the spirits of the dead Nephilim mentioned above) to torment us to drive us to repentance (1 Kings 22:15-23, 1 Samuel 16:14 + 23, 1 Corinthians 5:5, Matthew 18:34, 1 Corinthians 11:27-29). This is also, what I call legal rights above.

Innocence – Testing

And, as with Jesus, Job, and Apostle Paul, when we do not sin, God can prove the genuineness of our pure love of God for Him alone and His righteousness to the enemy and he can keep us humble by allowing the enemy to attack us and speak to us (Matthew 3:17-4:11, 2 Corinthians 12:7, Job 1-3). Yes, God can sometimes allow, on the enemy's request, demons to tempt us, to test us, and we can fail because we are blind, believing in lies, and we can repent, and learn more about God, ourselves, and the enemy (Luke 22:31-32) – and use that to strengthen others. There are many other Scripture references to support these scenarios. You can go look them up yourself via Blue Letter Bible cross references or other places yourself. God can, in the same way allow or even create negative circumstances like sicknesses or persecution, to test our obedience and keep us humble (Revelation 13:7, Genesis 32:24-32).

Generally, God can command over and use demons to accomplish His will – as well as angels and people and He can, Himself, come down and do things directly as well.

None of the above makes God evil (1 John 1:5, James 1:13-14, James 1:17). None of these things caused the people to sin, so none of the above is an excuse for sin in any way (1 Corinthians 10:13). Through planning the cross – which is the unjust destruction of the Son, and the first separation in eternity between Dad and Son, and between Holy Spirit and Son – the trinity of God without doubt proves the wholehearted love of Abba Father, Son, and Spirit for themselves, for us, and for all mankind!

Very Important: By His Stripes We ARE Healed!

Yes, Jesus healed ALL (Matthew 15:30, Luke 4:40, Matthew 8:17) who came to Him, and by His stripes we are healed (1 Peter 2:24). There is a tension here. The challenge is on us who pray and believe to be like Jesus – where all who come to us are healed. So, we, like Paul, always go first and all in on repentance to our identity, inner healing, healing the soul, then deliverance and healing, raising the dead etc. We do it very persistently (Luke 18:1-8). And we check – does this sickness or annoyance cause the person to live in sin like a false lie of agreement with and conviction of rejection, self-pity, and self-satisfaction – then we 100% go for repentance, holiness, identity, healing, and deliverance of the soul and body. And God will – when we have repented and learnt our lesson – also at times – completely remove much of the negative – like He did with Job. Job was twice as rich and just as blessed after his trial (Job 42:10). So, should Jacob go after, and ask for, healing for his hip dislocation? Yes. Could he get it? Yes, 100% – and maybe not yet – but in Heaven for sure, yes!

The Traffic Law – The Rules of the Spiritual World

A quick note on style before we go further: throughout this book I deliberately write the enemy's names in lowercase – satan gets no capital honor here. See the note in the front matter.

So – there is a set of "traffic rules" with God and demons and humans in this world – and they even apply generationally. Just like with traffic rules on earth – you will get smashed by cars (demons) if you do not follow the rules – no matter if you don't know or think you know the rules. Deep down in the rules of justice of our conscience and through the revelation of nature according to God's perspective, which is true, we know the rules (Romans 2:15, Romans 1:20). And sometimes, even when you do follow the rules – the demons do not follow them, and other people do not either – you get unjustly smashed. Jesus experienced this fully to the extreme! This is where we, like Jesus did (John 15:9-10), must make a conscious choice to remain in the love of the Father through the blood, the cross, the suffering and the death of Jesus – only. When injustice happens – it is not the Father being against us. It is the fallen trinity of demons, humans (us included), and atoms causing injustice. We must, if we are to be mature believers, develop a sight, a vision, a focus that is set first on the Spirit and the cross and the Word and the suffering of the beloved Son – not at all on the unjust circumstances we find ourselves in.

This makes us 100% unshakeable and unbeatable – like Jesus. We are enabled to do that – by Holy Spirit power. And "He who lives in us is stronger than he (defeated satan) who is in the world." (1 John 4:4).

How Do We Truly Win in the Pain of Injustice, Suffering, Persecution, and Grief?

The Bible is clear many places; we need to rejoice that we are found worthy to suffer with Christ because of Christ, even when we have done no wrong (Acts 5:41, 1 Peter 4:12-16). That is to be just like Jesus – and it is to be expected for us as believers in Christ. We will be treated like Him (John 15:20). In extreme and unjust suffering His first obedience was to remain in the love of the Father. Will you choose the same – or go into rejection, self-pity, and self-satisfaction? No – remain in the burning flesh and death to self of suffering – LOVED by Abba Father, best friends with Abba Father. Just like Jesus learnt obedience through suffering (Hebrews 5:8). Holy Spirit confirms and speaks it in you now, and now, and now, in you, forever: "Abba Father!" The strongest most true sentence in the world. That faith overcomes the world (1 John 5:4-5). No demons can overcome someone who is fully reconciled, wholehearted heart to wholehearted heart to Abba Father. We are: Best Friends Forever.

Inner Healing and Deliverance Cannot Be Separated

I used to focus more on deliverance than inner healing. Now I always try to first focus on inner healing and agreement with our identity in Christ. Why? I found that too many of those we prayed for – were wonderfully free at first, but then they were bound again. That is sad. It's a jolly waste of my time, their time, God's time. It's also what Jesus warned against 3 times (even though 1 should be enough). Please see: Matthew 12:43-45, John 5:14, Revelation 2:21-23.

It is, therefore, 100% unhealthy to separate the two. How does that work? If you cast demons out of someone, but they are not free from childhood trauma or they have fractured soul parts that are traumatized, or they have false orphan theology of getting love through effort, or false theology allowing compromises, that means they believe deep down, consciously or mostly unconsciously in lies. According to legal rights, the spiritual traffic laws, which govern the supernatural world, the door is then open for the demons who lie and operate through obedience to lies to come right back in, and that can be worse than before.

Conclusion: You need to learn both inner healing and deliverance – as well as all other forms of healthy fellowship and discipleship. One is not fully effective without the other. It's, again, not an either-or – but a both-and.

Demons Are Territorial, Meaning: Attached to Territories

> Mark 5:10 - And he begged Jesus again and again not to send them out of the area.

> Daniel 10:13 - But the prince of the Persian kingdom resisted me twenty-one days. Then Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me, because I was detained there with the king of Persia.

Some people experience freedom from sicknesses the moment they leave a certain territory…

Common Questions and Answers Around Inner Healing & Deliverance

These answers are also just as much facts from the Bible and inner healing and deliverance practice as the facts above – just phrased as answers to common questions.

How Can I Effectively Lead and Persuade People Who Might Need It to Open up to Receive Deliverance?

Simply put: By openly, humbly, simply asking for permission to share your own story of repentance to the goodness of Abba Father, and receiving deliverance. Maybe also find a really good and healthy story of someone sharing their story online. Many of those I have led through inner healing and deliverance have first heard me tell my story – or others have told my story – and then, due to my freedom story – they dare to come with their brokenness.

What Stops Even Christians and Christian Leaders Who Believe Deliverance Is for Real From Actually Doing the Fullness of It?

Good Questions to Ask Ourselves

One crazy, but maybe valid reason: Are we under the subtle (ninja) influence of demons…?? I was and had absolutely no idea. Now that I am free – I must, I am under obligation and holy fire is driving me to give away the precious blood bought freedom and identity that I realized, Jesus had for me (1 Corinthians 9:16, Matthew 10:8). If demons are there? Would they distort, distract, deny in you, and for others, the ministry of deliverance?

> John 3:20 - For everyone who does wicked things hates the light and does not come to the light, lest his works should be exposed.

Do the people we look up to truly practice the fullness of deliverance? And are they truly mutually accountable to other healthy, mature Christians who really know them – also their mistakes, and whether they sin? And do those fully know and prove it by using all the tools here?

Have we, ourselves, gone through deep inner healing and deliverance – and so then, we are no longer the blind leading the blind?

Have we become prideful – for now we are bearing a lot of fruit compared to others – and then we will not listen and be humble and hear from the Lord through others? Pride is bound to the tail of success.

Do we attack and downgrade other Christians or are we humble, able to be patient, honoring, taking the journey of humility and restoration for all?

Have we become pharisaical, critical, and legalistic – and start tearing others down that we do not agree 100% with – or do we come from below, in brokenness, to restore, to grow, to supply what is lacking (1 Thessalonians 3:10), to help and build and honor what is good – and found in the fullness of Christ? Humility, maturity, and health is so very needed.

Are we fully rooted in our identity in Christ only – not in our ministry, performance, fruit, and drive for recognition?

Are we able to correctly divide the Word of Truth, the Bible, not inserting false dichotomies of false teaching to sound cool and lift up our points – when it's not a dichotomy, but 2 truths, but with a priority?

Do we have the boldness to even start doing it – believing we can? Even though we might not look cool at first.

Are we willing to break through the shame of admitting to sins publicly in spite of our great leadership role (1 Timothy 5:19-25)?

Are we able to navigate past the people who do deliverance in an off, weird, crazy, unhealthy, and unbalanced way – who give it a bad name – so that, instead of ridiculing them, we actually start doing it right and helping others do it right too? PS: Doing it right also earns us more of a right to speak to those doing it – but doing it unhealthily! Some of their rejection comes from not being heard, seen, respected, and understood in the fruit they see is for all to eat. They lack fathers who are not just lording it over them but serving them and going ahead of them!

Many Many More Than Realize it!

How can I say that? Just as one example of how demons enter humans, see if you can follow this relational, psychological, and emotional logic:

- Watching porn is sexual immorality and adultery (Matthew 5:28)
- Sexual immorality is born from a bitter root of bitter rejection (Hebrews 12:15-16 ESV)
- That is a judgment of mistrust in God's goodness and fairness – by putting negative circumstances over the blood of Jesus as to what gets to speak to whether God fully loves you (Hebrews 12:24)
- You now actually have a picture of God in which He is not fully fair, just, and loving – and that is a false god, an idol (Exodus 20:3-5)
- That leads to dissatisfaction with God – the opposite of the truth Jesus paid for us to live in – the full beloved satisfaction of intimate friendship with God – in the midst of suffering (Matthew 3:17)
- That leads you to run away and hide from God (Genesis 3:8-10)
- Because they believed the lie from satan, they had lost the sense that He is fully satisfied with them and fully for them (Genesis 3:5)
- That is full-blown idolatry, for idolatry is the worship of and submission to, agreement with, and obedience under a false god, which is equal to the lies of demons (Colossians 3:5 within the context of Colossians 3:1-17, Galatians 5:19-21, and 1 Corinthians 5:11).

- We worship what we obey. Our words (2 Corinthians 4:13) and actions prove what we actually believe (James 2:18).
- So, when I watched porn, Biblically and in truth defined, that was actual live satan worship in action, of course opening up my mind, body, emotions, and soul to the influence of demons of rejection, retaliation, loneliness, accusation, rebellion, compromise, excuses, and self-pity. The same goes for other kinds of self-satisfaction out of deep hurt, grief, rejection, injustice, unlove, suffering, and pain.

That should put the fear of God into us and cause us to repent into the goodness, love, and friendship of Abba Father (Romans 2:4) with our faces to the floor – get inner healing from all traumas, get deliverance – and seek help!

What I have learnt to do now and always – is to take conscious personal responsible proactive continual decisions and actions to remain best friends with Abba Father – also in extreme unjust suffering! That's exactly what Jesus did (John 15:9-13) and this ensured He always won and did the right thing. That is the right food from Heaven to eat – always. That identity alone – based on the blood, cross and suffering of Jesus alone (John 15:13). And the best thing – it WORKS! Why? Holy Spirit is stronger!!! (Romans 8:37-39, 1 John 4:4)

How many need a level of repentance to the truth, inner healing, and deliverance in the midst of real injustice and suffering from demons, people, the cursed world – just due to this sin of sexual immorality?

Up to 90% of all men watch porn on a regular basis – also Christian men. Also at least 50% of all Christian church leaders do it. Many of these are born-again, Spirit-filled, tongue-talking, radical-living, Jesus-loving, Bible-believing, super-active volunteers, theologically educated, grown up in Christian homes – who desperately fight against watching porn, but experience an inability to just quit. They deeply long for, and need, freedom and deliverance – to be set free – and they get it. Should we not help them? Many of them do not know how to get free. They do not know that – along with repentance, renewal of the mind, aligning with their identity, and running into the love of the Father, but ALSO out of that undiluted, ferocious, precious, tender, burning, soft, and intense love of the Father – they need to learn to use their authority over all of the enemy (Luke 10:19).

If what I wrote above is true – and Scripturally, experientially, and statistically, it is – and we are only looking at one type of sexual immorality, not the many other areas of demonic influence, then THIS TEACHING AND UNDERSTANDING IS VERY, VERY, VERY DESPERATELY NEEDED – NOW!

How Do You Know If You Need Inner Healing and Deliverance?

Here is a list of possible indications that you could benefit from opening yourself up to a journey of inner healing and deliverance. If you do or experience these things – none of them are from God. They are from your flesh, are sinful, and happen due to your sinful choices and/or demonic influence:

Demonic Self-Indulgence: Self-satisfaction outside being fully satisfied in Christ, Holy Spirit and Abba Father

- Pornography Taking drugs

- Alcoholism Fear of people
- Overeating Slander / Gossip
- Smoking Self-harm / Undereating
- Gambling Over exercising
- Wasting time on computer games or series or Social Media

All this is bad, but what are the roots?? Why do we do it?? What is the lie of bitter rejection that energizes, that is the root, of these fruits? Is there denial of free will, bitter root judgment against Dad, trauma, bad theology, demons?

Demonic Belief and Illegal Supernatural Activity

- Anything supernatural that is not through the blood of Jesus. Not in obedience to Jesus Christ

Who Can Do Inner Healing and Deliverance?

This is the right medicine for certain problems. Can we agree that Jesus spent a lot of His precious 3 ½ year ministry time doing deliverance – and commanded His followers to do the same? Can we agree that He was 100% perfect & didn't waste time doing nonsense – things that were unnecessary?

Cleaning Up the Supernatural in Church

If we do not do this – it messes up and taints and distorts the supernatural practices in church – for people have both the Holy Spirit – and other spirits! The supernatural in people – in church people, in prophets, in apostles, evangelists, pastors, and teachers, in saints – gets messier than it should be if we do not OWN this space. Not doing this – makes the supernatural less attractive, less pure, less clean, less efficient, less powerful. This is a grave error of the whole Christian charismatic movement – that healthy real inner healing deliverance is not practiced well.

Therefore, Jesus did it a lot and commanded His followers to do it – and they did it a lot. And it hasn't stopped. I urge all reading and hearing this and I ask – yes, I implore and I co-command you with Jesus: Get healthy deliverance and deep inner healing for yourself and educate yourself to help others get free as well. It is a completely normal part of discipleship for all disciples according to Matthew 28:18-20, Matthew 10, Luke 10, Acts 13-16 and so many other Scriptures.

Anyone can do it using the name of Jesus (Luke 9:49-50). Personal holiness, repentance, humility, strong personal secret place devotional life and sound doctrine, and maturity is important – as well as having received your own personal inner healing and deliverance. This is all part of being a normal disciple of Jesus.

Can We Use Certain Methods Regularly as We Do Deliverances?

Jesus never did anything the same way twice. At the same time, we might simply not have a record of many of the repeated ways He did it, since recording them all would take up too much space (John 21:25). All He did was customized directly to each person He ministered to – and it was 100% led by the Holy Spirit in what He saw the Father do. Yet we have commands like James 5:14-15: Anoint the sick with oil, and they will recover. There are principles of deliverance that apply universally most of the time.

How Does Authority Function? Is It About Loudness?

As I Often Say: Be kind to the person. Be harsh to the demon(s) and let the person know when you are talking to whom.

Some have been even more traumatized by the way deliverance was done to them. 5 big men holding down a small girl, shouting at the top of their lungs… This can, in some cases, work miracles. But it is not a loving, good, or wise way to do it.

Inner healing and deliverance are about authority, not loudness of voice, even though you can feel inspired by Holy Spirit to also speak with a commanding voice of authority.

Deliverance is a work of love and honor, with gentleness and kindness towards the person. But it is wise and important to let the person know that when you speak harshly sharply commanding demons to do this or that – that you are not speaking to them.

How Important Is It to Understand and Act on Our Identity in Christ?

To you who do deliverance: It must and can only healthily come out of you being best friends with Abba Father. And only then can you transfer that to the person receiving it (Matthew 15:14). All inner healing points back to this one big truth – The Love of The Father and all of us being deeply beloved sons of God.

How Much Is About the Leading of Holy Spirit?

Jesus said of Himself in John 5:19-20

19 Very truly I tell you, the Son can do nothing by himself; he can do only what he sees his Father doing, because whatever the Father does the Son also does. 20 For the Father loves the Son and shows him all he does. Yes, and he will show him even greater works than these, so that you will be amazed.

We need to be led by Holy Spirit, Abba Father, Jesus, more than doing things by ourselves. The more we can truly be led by the Holy Spirit as we minister – the more effective we will truly be. And at the same time, inner healing and deliverance is in many ways very systematic, very methodical, very logical and very much built on permissions that need to be broken.

Is This Ministry of Jesus Still Like It Was to Jesus and His Disciples?

I Agree With Jesus: I, With Jesus, The Same, Yesterday, Today, and Forever (Hebrews 13:8), Command You And Send You To Do This! I Would Love To Be Allowed To Train You And Back You And Accredit You!

These Words of Jesus Are Eternal for All People Everywhere = You Now:

Matthew 28:19-20 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely, I am with you always, to the very end of the age.

Matthew 10:8-9 Heal the sick, raise the dead, cleanse those who have leprosy, drive out demons. Freely you have received; freely give. Do not get any gold or silver or copper to take with you in your belts.

Luke 10:1-24 After this the Lord appointed seventy-two others and sent them two by two ahead of him to every town and place where he was about to go. He told them, "The harvest is plentiful, but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field. Go! I am sending you out like lambs among wolves. Do not take a purse or bag or sandals; and do not greet anyone on the road. When you enter a house, first say, 'Peace to this house.' If someone who promotes peace is there, your peace will rest on them; if not, it will return to you. Stay there, eating and drinking whatever they give you, for the worker deserves his wages. Do not move around from house to house. When you enter a town and are welcomed, eat what is offered to you. Heal the sick who are there and tell them, 'The kingdom of God has come near to you.' But when you enter a town and are not welcomed, go into its streets and say, 'Even the dust of your town we wipe from our feet as a warning to you. Yet be sure of this: The kingdom of God has come near.' I tell you, it will be more bearable on that day for Sodom than for that town. Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that were performed in you had been performed in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. But it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment than for you. And you, Capernaum, will you be lifted to the heavens? No, you will go down to Hades.

Whoever listens to you listens to me; whoever rejects you rejects me; but whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me." The seventy-two returned with joy and said, "Lord, even the demons submit to us in your name." He replied, "I saw satan fall like lightning from heaven. I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you. However, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven." At that time Jesus, full of joy through the Holy Spirit, said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do. All things have been committed to me by my Father. No one knows who the Son is except the Father, and no one knows who the Father is except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him." Then he turned to his disciples and said privately, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see. For I tell you that many prophets and kings wanted to see what you see but did not see it, and to hear what you hear but did not hear it."

Since Jesus Himself lived out all these things and then commanded us all to obey all that the 12 were commanded, we are all commanded the same things by Jesus as the 12 in Matthew 10 and the 70 of Luke 10. All Christians can find the person of peace, lead them to faith, heal the sick, raise the dead, do deliverance, baptize people in water and the Holy Spirit, disciple others to disciple others, open their home, and can live in exponential multiplication of that.

We have lost this and need to return to this. And yes, this has huge influence on your daily life, and weekly life priorities. This is what repentance into the fullness of Christ in this area leads to. This needs to be in all Christian leader's job description as a first priority over all other activities, just like it was to Jesus, the 12, the 70, and Paul and Barnabas in Acts 13-15, where they are literally practicing Matt & Luke 10 – but in another culture.

If all Christian leaders lived like this – with this goal, practicing all these things with all their heart and might – and trained all others to do the same (2 Timothy 2:2) – that is revival. And that is what I am going for with all who will go with me.

Yes – to do this, we need to associate with, learn from, come under, and get hands-on training by people who live this. We need to repent, change our limited thinking into the fullness of all things real discipleship, and then change our lifestyles to match that as well. And, yes, that is a major lifestyle change. As Christians, we have now come under a new Master – and He is King, Creator, Perfect God – and we are His disciples, His apprentices, His followers – whom He calls to be like Him.

Many Christians just live under what their parents showed them, what their current church leaders show them, what society expects, and under the fear of the opinions of "normal" people. That is a sin that they, and we all, need to repent of – into all the fullness of the fullness of Christ. We will stand responsible before God for ourselves and before the Word of God – the clear example of Jesus and His followers.

> 1 John 4:17 ESV - 17 By this is love perfected with us, so that we may have confidence for the day of judgment, because as he is so also are we in this world.
> John 14:12-14 - Very truly I tell you, whoever believes in me will do the works I have been doing, and they will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father. 13 And I will do > whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. You may ask me for anything in my name, and I will do it.

Is It Dangerous to Do Deliverance?

No. Jesus clearly said so in Luke 10:19: I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you. If you believe it is – then you believe in fear and accidents – and (Matthew 9:29) what you believe – you will receive…!!

Hollywood has promoted how scary deliverance is. Don't let the enemy fill you with fear of getting rid of them. There is a story in the Bible about the 7 sons of Sceva in Acts 19:11-17. However, it is clear from the story, that they did not actually know their own authority in Christ, nor were they born-again by Holy Spirit power living in them (they just did all in the "name of Jesus, whom Paul preaches"). There is no real personal faith or understanding of their own authority there.

Fear of deliverance is negative, non-sanctioned fear – and therefore opens the door to fear! Like with Job we end up in the sin of fear of something we shouldn't fear. Job said in Job 3:25: What I feared has come upon me. Perfect love drives out all fear it says in 1 John 4:18. And what is not of faith is sin it says in Romans 14:23.

Many have come to me, asking: "Peter, since you do a lot of deliverance, don't you experience a lot of spiritual attacks because of that?" My answer is: "No. None at all." Nothing is falling off the walls. No demons are manifesting in my life or the lives of my family. No accidents have happened. And I do not pray for protection whenever I drive or travel or do anything. I have chosen to believe what is true: I am always IN the PROTECTOR. I simply live in the love of the Father through the blood of Jesus as best friends of Abba Father, because Jesus purchased that fully for me and all who will believe it – and I help people as well as I can.

It's not first about how much you have fasted, prayed, read your Bible, or been to church. It's first about living as the one whom Abba Father is fully satisfied with through the blood of Jesus only. Then, yes, we naturally looong to hang out with and actually spend intimate quality time with Abba Father often one on one. And we willingly follow the leading of Holy Spirit at all times – and we study the Word, fast, pray, evangelize, fellowship, disciple etc.

But doing these things does not increase our authority or anointing. They help us into a flexible state, where we have chosen to submit to Holy Spirit, Jesus, and Abba Father. And through that submissive obedience – we operate out of both His permanent and direct revealed leading. To the same degree that we submit to God's general will and specific will – do we walk in His power and authority – and do demons flee (James 4:6-10, 1 Peter 5:6-9).

Actually, It's the Opposite – It Is Safer for You to Do Deliverance

I know for a fact that the opposite is true. If you do not do inner healing and deliverance, you will not know identity and authority as well for yourself. The better I am at helping others enter into remaining in the love of the Father – which is the strongest superman and super-power in the world – even in the midst of suffering – the better I am to remain there myself.

Who do you think wants to scare you away from doing healthy inner healing and deliverance because it is “super dangerous”?

Conclusion

It’s far more dangerous not to do deliverance – than to do it.

Is It Helpful to Speak in Tongues Out Loud During Deliverance?

If speaking in tongues helps you tune into and hear from the Holy Spirit, then that is normal and great. However – speaking in tongues is not the general model of Jesus or the disciples when doing deliverance. What I have found is that deliverance is mostly done in a healthy way through speaking normal comprehensible languages.

Some say speaking in tongues during deliverance is great. Others say to not do it. I say there is nothing against it. It helps many tune into “Radio Heaven’s” frequency. Seeking God for guidance and strategy through praying in tongues is very helpful – but doing it over people as a tool of actual casting demons out is not something I have seen.

How Many Should Be in an Inner Healing & Deliverance Session?

There should always be someone mature present of the same gender as the one being prayed for. This is both for wisdom, protection, holiness, and care. This is even true for doing online prayer. Deep intimate emotional sexual details can come up.

A man can pray for a man one on one. A lady can do the same. A good but not absolute rule is to always be at least 2 people praying for one other.

Can We / Should We Do Deliverance on People Who Are Not Yet Christians?

Yes. 100%. Jesus only did deliverance on people who were not yet born-again by the Holy Spirit Christians. The disciples themselves even did deliverance on others who were not yet filled with – or even born again by – the Holy Spirit. In Luke 9:49-50 Jesus even allowed people who were not born-again and not directly 100% associated with Him, or directly trained by Him as much as the 12 and the 70 to do deliverance – on people who were not yet born-again…

Jesus simply said to people before they were healed and delivered and after – that they should repent. Paul & Silas seem to have delivered the lady who had a spirit of sorcery (Acts 16:18) before there are any indications of salvation. So, YES, Pre-/ Non-Christians can be healed, can hear from Heaven, can be delivered, prophesied over, and even raised from the dead. Yes, they can hear from God, angels, and feel the presence of God. They can also repent from sin.

Again, yes, Jesus did deliverance and so did His disciples, on people who were not yet born-again Christians – full of the Holy Spirit. But He did warn people to not sin again after they got healed. He said "go and sin no more" (John 5:14, John 8:11). I would be willing to deliver non-believers, but I would first go for them to receive Jesus. If they would not like to receive Jesus – I would warn them to stop sinning and also ask to record the session – so they can see the reality of the demonic in them – so that can help lead them to faith in Jesus. Also, I would say to them – how good is Jesus and the Holy Spirit? You should want the Holy Spirit in you – Who is stronger than he who is in the world (the enemy, the devil). And I would say: The essence of Christianity is to be completely loved and forgiven for free by God through the cross. And to be best friends with and in intimate relationship with the Father. So – why not receive Jesus now?

But would they not be in danger of letting the demons come back 7-fold?

How is the House / the Temple swept clean and ready for demons to move back in? By people not repenting from believing the sin that opened the door. So, they are thrown out – but if we have not repented =

- Turned from believing the lie and acting on it –
- Saying sorry to God from our whole heart to Jesus for breaking His law of love
- By both speech and action to believing in the truth that is the opposite of the lie
- And by then resisting the lying temptations of the enemy and casting out the demons that have the same name and function as the sin.
- And then staying in the total love of the Father – always

That is how to close the doors. And just as Christians have free will and can choose to stay in sin they love – so can people who are not yet born-again Christians. So, pre-Christians can cancel legal rights of demons – just as well as Christians can.

Is There Such a Thing as a Separate Personal Deliverance or Exorcism Ministry?

No. Biblically it is very clear that inner healing and deliverance is actually just a normal part of average discipleship for all disciples. It was to Jesus (Mark 1:39) and His 12 (Mark 3:14-15, Matthew 10) and 70 (Luke 10) – and the global missionaries since (Acts 13-15). Has anything changed? In no way whatsoever from God's perspective. We need to repent from ours, our tradition, our ways – into His perspective on ALL things.

Separate inner healing and deliverance ministries that are super specialists in this field alone are unhealthy, unbiblical, unbalanced inventions of people.

To think otherwise is old and wrongful thinking that does not understand the fullness of what a normal average disciple is when we let Jesus define it. He should get to define what a normal disciple can do and is trained to do. He is our Master, Creator, Definer, Truth, Standard, Leader, God. We, by contrast, can quickly define our own limited "expert" perspective that is not lined up with what Jesus clearly said and did.

This concept of a "Exorcism or Deliverance Ministry" creates lack of health as it creates unobtainable "superstars" who "have" special authority. Some of those doing it promote this view – and it lifts them up to be super special. It promotes pride and self-elevation. And those hearing elevate those doing it in an unhealthy way. Christians then start thinking: "I could never do deliverance – for it is so difficult and advanced and only a few very special people are chosen by God to do it and have the necessary special authority."

That is the exact opposite of what Jesus did in Luke 10. There is a purpose to why, to this day, we do not know their names. It is also not theologically correct and sound doctrine – for Holy Spirit gives us what gift we need when we need it – as He determines – BUT authority is NOT a special gift; it is a permanent position all Christians have in Christ through faith alone. This theology also tends to separate those doing deliverance ministry from under healthy mutual submission under local church leaders – where it must live and be practiced in order to truly thrive and get enough true and healthy traction and relational accountability.

Jesus simply clearly trained all disciples to do all the things He did – one of them was deliverance. Jesus sent all disciples to do all He did – one of the things was deliverance. It was also healing, prophecy, Holy Spirit baptism, raising the dead, reading and doing the Word, teaching, leading people to repentance, living holy lives, etc. – and first of all: proactively continually repenting into the truth and goodness of bathing in the pure radical love of the Father, spending quality time with Him.

What If We Encounter People Who Were Under sRA (satanic Ritual Abuse)?

This is an advanced field of inner healing and deliverance that requires special understanding and training and where we recommend you really know what you are doing, and you are there with the people physically. I have found some ministries dealing with those kinds of deep trauma, split personalities with programmed behavior in those soul-parts and more. I cannot vouch 100% for all that they do and believe and do not know them personally. This is an area I, myself, still need to grow into. The 3 ministries I found are:

- rcm-usa.org
- kanaanministries.org
- bridemovement.com

Please see their teaching, take their courses, read their books and rise up to heal and deliver even more types of people.

There are certainly more good ministries like this out there – and many more to come. Also, please, test them yourself, I might "go bad", they might "go bad". We can all start good, end bad or start bad and end good.

Isn't It Possible That the Demons Return 7 Times Stronger? Should We Be Afraid of That? What Do We Do About That?

This question refers to this Scripture:

> Luke 11:24-26 - 24 "When an impure spirit comes out of a person, it goes through arid places seeking rest and does not find it. Then it says, 'I will return to the house I left.' 25 When it arrives, it finds the house swept clean and put in order. 26 Then it goes and takes seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that person is worse than the first."

The only plausible explanation and meaning is again, legal rights and open doors. It cannot be whether Holy Spirit lives in them or not, for how could truly born-again believing Holy Spirit filled Christians then need deliverance? Holy Spirit lives in all FULLY (John 3:34) – only through personal faith in Jesus. So, through authority given in the name of Jesus, the perfectly cleansing blood, the power of Holy Spirit, our complete adoption into sonship, and placement in Heaven, we can cast demons out of anybody. It is harder to do it if people love their sin and hold on to lies, but it is still possible. We can brute-force and "negotiate" / interrogate them out (Mark 5:1-20). However, it is much easier to cast them out, if people renounce their sin (open doors) completely, wholeheartedly turn from it to the truth and act on the truth (James 2:17).

This Fits Perfectly With These Verses

> John 5:14 - Later Jesus found him (who was healed) at the temple and said to him, "See, you are well again. Stop sinning or something worse may happen to you."
> 1 Corinthians 11:28-32 - 28 Everyone ought to examine themselves before they eat of the bread and drink from the cup. 29 For those who eat and drink without discerning the body of Christ eat and drink judgment on themselves. 30 That is why many among you are weak and sick, and a number of you have fallen asleep. 31 But if we were more discerning with regard to ourselves, we would not come under such judgment. 32 Nevertheless, when we are judged in this way by the Lord, we are being disciplined so that we will not be finally condemned with the world.
> Revelation 2:21-23 - 21 I have given her time to repent of her immorality, but she is unwilling. 22 So I will cast her on a bed of suffering, and I will make those who commit adultery with her suffer intensely, unless they repent of her ways. 23 I will strike her children dead. Then all the churches will know that I am he who searches hearts and minds, and I will repay each of you according to your deeds.

In conclusion then, this Scripture is about whether the doors are closed before and / or after deliverance through deep repentance from lies to truth with solid action on holy truth instead of lies. This closes the doors from demons coming back in.

Is It Possible to Look Cool While You Are Getting Deliverance? What About Doing Deliverances Publicly?

Is it possible to only do deliverance so that you will always look cool and perfect?

Mark 1:21-28 – Did Jesus not "have control" over the demon here?

21 They went to Capernaum, and when the Sabbath came, Jesus went into the synagogue and began to teach. 22 The people were amazed at his teaching, because he taught them as one who had authority, not as the teachers of the law. 23 Just then a man in their synagogue who was influenced by an impure spirit cried out, 24 "What do you want with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are–the Holy One of God!" 25 "Be quiet!" said Jesus sternly. "Come out of him!" 26 The impure spirit shook the man violently and came out of him with a shriek. 27 The people were all so amazed that they asked each other, "What is this? A new teaching–and with authority! He even gives orders to impure spirits, and they obey him." 28 News about him spread quickly over the whole region of Galilee.

Luke 8:28-29 – Did the demons always just immediately do what Jesus commanded? No!

28 When he saw Jesus, he cried out and fell at his feet, shouting at the top of his voice, "What do you want with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don't torture me!" 29 For Jesus had commanded the impure spirit to come out of the man.

Luke 10:21 – Will the Father hide this from us who are "cool", "wise", and "learned"? Yes!

At that time Jesus, full of joy through the Holy Spirit, said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do.

Acts 8:5-8 – Did the disciples repeat this public deliverance behavior? Yes!

5 Philip went down to a city in Samaria and proclaimed the Messiah there. 6 When the crowds heard Philip and saw the signs he performed, they all paid close attention to what he said. 7 For with shrieks, impure spirits came out of many, and many who were paralyzed, or lame were healed. 8 So there was great joy in that city.

Let us be so very careful to not bow to society, culture, and coolness as in – the fear of people's opinions about us and how we look or portray ourselves – more than to obedience to God. Jesus wants us to expose darkness (Ephesians 5:11), and obediently, patiently, passionately, intelligently, "unafraid-ly" bring Heaven and the culture of Heaven, and the freedom of Heaven, and the will of Heaven and the perspective of Heaven and the powers of Heaven – to bear upon the earth. This is love – this is the true "fear of God", this is faith, love, truth in our action. The opinion of Heaven – that is all that matters. Should we now be stupid and should we go all in on weirdness for weirdness' sake? No – but does deliverance offend atheism, coolness, culture – YES. We cannot both obey "FEAR" culture and Heaven here. Which will you choose to obey?

Part of healthy deliverance is confession, repentance, ownership of own responsibility, change to truth, holiness, righteousness, running into the love of the Father (Abba), and commanding evil spirits to leave. And that might be with screaming, coughing, puking, yawning, strangling sensations, being thrown to the ground, kneeling, loud words, weird voices, etc. etc. Is that cool in the eyes of the world? No! Is it cool in the eyes of Heaven? Yes. For it demonstrates the power of the kingdom of God and honors His servants and proves the loss and weakness of the enemy. It also clearly exposes the reality of what is going on in the world. It exposes demons working – just how real their influence is. And a big demon tactic is to stay hidden.

I remember my perspective changing to an even stronger belief and understanding, as I, live, on YouTube during Covid saw regular people seeking deliverance, and it happened before my eyes – and the eyes of thousands of others. The same was true of Jesus and His disciples had you walked around with them. It was just completely normal as part of normal daily discipleship.

Jesus had no fear of the opinions of people – and no fear of the consequences of bringing Heaven to earth for those He delivered, raised from the dead, or healed. For some there were big severe social and physical consequences (John 9, John 12:9-11)! But the Kingdom of Heaven was on display and grew.

Our responsibility as leaders is to explain what is going on supernaturally to those believers and the pre-believers who do not understand – exactly like Peter did at Pentecost. And then to flip it around and say, like Peter; "Friends, God is here!! This is the evidence. Now repent from sin to holiness and believe in Jesus Christ!" And 3000 believed! That is what we are to do when the strong supernatural occurs, not hide it, suppress it, or not go for it. Go for it, explain it, flip it – REVIVAL!

Acts 2 – Peter showed us exactly how to handle the supernatural that is hard to understand and easy to criticize

1. He, alongside 120 others, sought God by the command of God and Holy Spirit came! He went for it and experienced it himself.
2. He lifted up those who experienced the power. He did not hide them away as embarrassments to his coolness and the witness of relevance – and get them back up into the Upper Room.
3. He explained clearly, boldly, into the context of the critique and into the cultural lingo with the other leaders, what was going on – honoring those who had critique and questions!
4. He flipped it around and boldly said: "This is evidence God is real, and God is here. Now repent from all sin and receive Jesus Christ to be forgiven!"
5. The results were revival!!
6. We must have the same approach and attitude today to see the same results of strong supernatural manifestations.

Strong supernatural miracles are God's gifts of advertisement and proof of His goodness, power, presence, and love. We need to get with God's program and get into the good fight of faith.

Should Inner Healing and Deliverance Be Done Publicly for All to See?

Jesus certainly did it publicly both in synagogues, in the temple in Jerusalem, in the midst of large crowds and on the streets. The disciples did the same in other cultures as well.

Jesus never shames people to destroy them and banish them and treat them with injustice. Jesus does not "play around" with demons and ridicule the people who are under the manifest influence of demons. We need to, as much as we are able, treat all humans with honor, dignity, value, and love.

Jesus does, however, clearly do the necessary manifest exposing of demons, as well as lies we believe, and sins we do. This is done for us to repent, and to expose the reality of holiness, repentance, and the exposing of demons and the character of demons. It is also done to show the power of God over demons and to show that Jesus has given us, His kids, His best friends, His disciples and followers, authority and power over them in His name.

Jesus does inner healing, physical healing, prophecy, dead-raising and deliverance to show His existence, grace, mercy, love, power, truth, and justice in proof and action.

Is it true that some do not have this identity-in-God-alone, "unashamed" attitude? They have pride in their own outward appearance and perfection. They hide the bad sides of themselves. They are rooted in shame and fear of what people think of them – instead of only living for the glory and honor of what God thinks of them (which is the true definition of the fear of God). Jesus accommodates for this sinful immaturity with the pharisee Nicodemus, who came at night (John 3:1-2).

Therefore, we should also accommodate this by doing private sessions. Some will only come and get help if that is an option. And it is and should be. But so should public inner healings, displays of the power of Holy Spirit, deliverances – just like in John 2:23, John 7:31, Acts 2 and Acts 8:5-8. The power of God displayed publicly – if explained well by the leaders – will lead many to faith. Miracles, when done healthily, are our biggest and best and most Biblical advertising strategy to a struggling world.

If Peter had not handled Pentecost as well as he did – along with the 11 (Acts 2:14), people would have stayed away and kept their cynical non-believing lack of understanding demonic accusations. And Paul's remarks would have been true of Pentecost: (1 Corinthians 14:23) "If the whole church comes together and everyone speaks in tongues, and inquirers or unbelievers come in, will they not say that you are out of your mind?"

How do we overcome the defeated foe, satan? By going all in by the blood of Jesus, the cross, the shame He endured, AND having no shame in telling our story to Jesus' glory! Jesus hung naked suffering ridicule, death, pain, sickness, on the cross for us – where we should have been, with His full loving gently meek and mild heart made bare, with Father and Holy Spirit co-suffering the unjust separation from the Son!

Will you take the same shame from demons and the world – for believing in Him?

This is the recipe for our victory, for when others hear of the blood of the Lamb and your story of freedom – however shameful and non-cool for you, but glory to Him – the more they will believe they can receive the same from Him:

> Revelation 12:10-11 - 10 Then I heard a loud voice in heaven say: "Now have come the salvation and the power and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Messiah. For the accuser of our brothers and sisters (satan, lucifer), who accuses them before our God day and night, has been hurled down. 11 They triumphed over him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death.

And that death is also "social death". Are you seeking validation and acceptance from a world that crucified the perfect man, Jesus Christ? Fear of man, which is primary obedience to the opinions of people, must go. It is a clear snare hindering our obedience to our King (Proverbs 29:25).

So, stand out – tell your story. Again, and again and again. We will then triumph over our accuser.

Is It Ok to Command the Demons to Give Us Their Names?

Yes. Jesus did it in some cases (Mark 5:9). And we know that the Bible stories are there as examples to us. So, if we read Jesus did something even once – He would easily have done the same thing many times, but the writers didn't see a need to include those other similar stories. We know John wrote: Jesus did many other things as well. If every one of them were written down, I suppose that even the whole world would not have room for the books that would be written. (John 21:25)

Demons Have 5 Types of Names

1. Function names: That are attack types like: Depression (Psalm 34:17), sickness (James 5:14), fear (2 Timothy 1:7), anxiety (1 Peter 5:7), insecurity (Psalm 91:2), hate (1 John 3:15), violence (Proverbs 3:31), rage (Ephesians 4:31), lust (Matthew 5:28), impurity (Galatians 5:19), false holy spirit (2 Corinthians 11:4), false fire (Leviticus 10:1), false light (2 Corinthians 11:14), lying (Proverbs 12:22), rebellion (1 Samuel 15:23), retaliation (Romans 12:19), loneliness (Psalm 25:16), ridicule (Proverbs 22:10), pride (Proverbs 16:18), murder (Exodus 20:13), death (Romans 6:23), suicide (1 Corinthians 3:16), rejection (Psalm 27:10), self-pity (1 Kings 19:4), racism (Galatians 3:28), etc.
2. Personal names: Michael (Jude 1:9), Gabriel (Luke 1:19), lucifer (Isaiah 14:12-15), etc. Each demon has a personal name – just like humans.
3. Attack type Biblical or other descriptive names: Descriptive names that denote their main essence and attack strategy (2 Corinthians 2:11): legion (Mark 5:9 multitude and strength in overwhelming numbers), jezebel (1 Kings 21:25 female dominance), ahab (1 Kings 21:4 apathy), cain (Genesis 4:5 jealousy), absalom (2 Samuel 15:6 feeling not seen and heard, then rebelling) etc.
4. Ancient Biblical or other false deity and idol names: These names also denote their rank, like lucifer and lilith (which are the highest in rank if present). Here are some typical names: beelzebul (Matthew 12:24), moloch (Leviticus 18:21), thor, cleopatra, neptune, mars, astaroth (1 Kings 11:33) etc.
5. Animal type descriptor names: Please see the Q&A section for my answer around this, called: Why Does It Seem Demons Have Animal Types?

So, do spirits have names? Yes, certainly. As you can see, funnily enough they sometimes identify as Old Testament characters, or even modern super-heroes, or others. But that is simply reflecting their designated decided and allowed psychological playbook of attack.

Sometimes the demons have animal names and behaviors like python, scorpions, pigs, bulls, octopuses, bats, and birds. And the people experience strangling, stinging, heavy weights on them etc.

I have cast demons out of people who said their names were for instance: cain, delilah, absalom, jezebel, and all of the above. And each time the people who were freed could relate directly to the personality traits and life-stories, behaviors, experiences, and purposes of those Biblical characters. satan is also called lucifer or beelzebul. Demon spirits that we see a lot of are: jezebel, apollyon, hell, leviathan, orion, and the like. This is very varied, and I suspect I will see new names the rest of my life.

Why Be So Specific With Names, Functions, Rank, Type, Legal Rights Etc.?

It seems that the more they are exposed, the more they lose their hiding, and the less agreement the person has with them. The more they come into the light, the less strength and authority they have – for they only have what we agree with within us. And we are the rulers, the regents of ourselves and of our world; that is a legal right and responsibility, and a call given to us by God (Genesis 1:26, Genesis 1:28, Psalm 115:16, Daniel 7:18, Romans 5:17, 1 Corinthians 6:2-3, Revelation 20:6).

Also – lawbreakers are not just judged for generally being naughty – but with specific judgments for specific crimes. Demons are legalists who specifically claim rights to us due to specific laws of truth, love, honor, and intimacy with Abba Father being broken.

The more precisely the turning from lies to truth is done individually – as those legal rights are exposed and broken through wholehearted repentance and renunciation, also of bloodline-curse dedications – the less authority the demons have to stay.

As Jesus Did Deliverance, He Commanded Them via Function to Go Out, Sometimes

In Luke 11:14 & Matthew 9:32-33 Jesus was driving out a demon that was mute. When the demon left, the man who had been mute spoke, and the crowd was amazed. So, the fact is that a "mute demon" causes muteness and is labeled or named a "mute demon". This also means we can command demons to come out by function. And they do obey that too.

> Luke 13:11 – Sickness, crippling spirit of satan (Luke 13:15) for 18 years. (1) He called her forward, (2) said: "You are set free", (3) then He laid His hands on her, and (4) immediately she straightened up and (5) praised God.

What Are Examples of Ranking Order in the Bible?

Evidence for Hierarchical Military Rank Among Demons

> Matthew 12:22-29 - 22 Then they brought him a demon-possessed man who was blind and mute, and Jesus healed him, so that he could both talk and see. 23 All the people were astonished and said, "Could this be the Son of David?" 24 But when the Pharisees heard this, they said, "It is only by beelzebul, the prince of demons, that this fellow drives out demons." 25 Jesus knew their thoughts and said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself will be ruined, and every city or household divided against itself will not stand. 26 If satan drives out satan, he is divided against himself. How then can his kingdom stand? 27 And if I drive out demons by beelzebul, by whom do your people drive them out? So then, they will be your judges. 28 But if it is by the Spirit of God that I drive out demons, then the kingdom of God has come upon you. 29 "Or again, how can anyone enter a strong man's house and carry off his possessions unless he first ties up the strong man? Then he can plunder his house.

According to Jesus here, the rule of satan is a kingdom. A kingdom has a king, and others who are not king – meaning a structure, an order, lines of responsibility, and accountability. You report to someone – and satan / lucifer is the king. But Jesus is the King of Kings and Lord of Lords – and we rule and reign on the earth in Him. And in Christ we are seated in Heaven – right next to Him (Ephesians 2:6) – with Him, in Him, through Him, we rule and reign by His authority and power – given to us merely by faith, and then practiced in obedience to the fullness of His battery of commands.

Jesus did this for us – and we now need to execute on and personally receive this truth

> Mark 3:27 - In fact, no one can enter a strong man's house without first tying him up. Then he can plunder the strong man's house.
> Luke 11:21-22 - 21 When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own house, his possessions are safe. 22 But when someone stronger attacks and overpowers him, he takes away the armor in which the man trusted and divides up his plunder.

This is a clear ranking and differentiation of authority in the demonic realm

> Ephesians 6:12 - For our struggle is not against flesh and blood, but against the rulers, against the authorities, against the powers of this dark world and against the spiritual forces of evil in the heavenly realms.

Paul lists them in what appears to be ascending scope and intensity:

1. ἀρχαί (archai) – "Rulers"
    - Literal meaning: "Beginnings" or "first in rank."
    - Role: These are the front-line spiritual leaders, the ones who initiate agendas and exert influence over specific areas or domains.
    - Reason for first place: They are the starting points of influence – the command nodes from which spiritual corruption flows.
2. ἐξουσίαι (exousiai) – "Authorities"
    - Literal meaning: "Powers, rights, delegated authority."
    - Role: Those who carry out and enforce the plans of the rulers, often with official jurisdiction in the unseen realm.
    - Why second: While rulers set the vision, authorities give it operational force – they have permission and delegated power to act.
3. κοσμοκράτορες (kosmokratores) – "World-rulers of this darkness"
    - Literal meaning: "Lords of the world-order" (κόσμος + κράτος = "world" + "dominion").
    - Role: Entities with global or systemic control over human culture, ideologies, and societal structures in darkness.
    - Why third: These are not just local or delegated – their influence spans civilizations, shaping the very "world system" to oppose God.
4. τὰ πνευματικὰ τῆς πονηρίας (ta pneumatikà tēs ponērias) – "Spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly realms"
    - Literal meaning: "Spiritual things / beings of evil" in the epourania ("above the skies," the unseen heavenly sphere).

- Role: The highest tier – pure spiritual entities whose sphere is beyond earthly limitations, directly opposed to God's purposes in the heavenly dimensions.
- Why last: Paul builds from the most immediate and local to the most cosmic and transcendent – culminating in the ultimate spiritual opposition in the heavenly sphere.

This understanding becomes very important in actual practical deliverance as we must go not just for small low-ranking demons, but for the actual strong-men in the demonic kingdom hierarchy authority structures attached to each person.

What Does a Deliverance Session Look Like – Also as Opposed to Public or Church Service Ministry?

Inner healing and deliverance ministry in a church service or elsewhere in public is typically shorter – and a lot can happen there even though time-restraints are shorter than in a session. Typically, deeper ministry sessions can be needed afterwards to really dig to the depths of what is needed.

A Typical Session Looks Like This

Time

A session with us typically is scheduled to go for 3 hours. Be attentive that the person might only be able to handle 1 hour or less.

Pre-Preparation

Ahead of time – a form can be filled out with the struggles you currently have and the sin you or your bloodline ancestors have done. This is then sent to the ministry for them to be able to quicker understand your situation and ask clarifying questions.

Please see a link to our English language Deliverance Form Which We Recommend All To Fill Out Ahead of Coming For A Freedom Session: ActionChristianity.com/Freedom-Form

(please also auto translate this into your language using good AI translation as explained in the first pages of this book)

This helps people to see and discover and become aware of the wide variety of possible access doors themselves. And it helps them then to take full responsibility of their own sin with their own mature free will. They then must:

1. Deeply own and repent of the sin and lies of the enemy
2. Renounce every single thing they have said yes to in the form on behalf of themselves and their ancestors
3. Turn to the truth and act on the truth in faith – replacing the lie with the truth – it helps them renew their mind = bad previous thought-patterns
4. Then they can – with authority uproot and cast out the demons in their life by the "name of the sins"

Also, we strongly fully recommend and ask of you that you act by getting as far and as deep as possible ahead of time by intently listening through and wholeheartedly constantly be acting on the contents of the following series. The more you engage yourself proactively in your own freedom the faster you will get fully free. Listen here: YouTube / Podcast / Rumble.

There Are Typically 4 Sections to a Session of Inner Healing and Deliverance

1. Understanding the situation
2. Repentance and renouncing
3. Inner healing of trauma, soul part integration and confrontation of demons
4. Instructions for next steps – booking of another session if necessary.

We also recommend watching public "Directors Walkthrough Sessions" on video on our website and social media channels ahead of time. They are made public with the permission of the one receiving prayer. If you make such videos, ensure you get their permission in writing to share their story. They should be mature believers who know what they are doing in making such a session public.

How Big of a Focus Should Repentance, Inner Healing & Deliverance Have in Our Lives as Christians?

We have to normalize deliverance!

3 times it is made clear that Jesus was more heavily focused on it than on many other things and He commanded the disciples to be so as well – see these 3 Scriptures: Mark 1:39, Mark 3:13-15, Mark 6:7. Many other times it is listed alongside healing and even raising the dead. But these 3 times, deliverance is the only thing mentioned… "Isn't that a bit unbalanced, Jesus? Isn't that a bit unhealthy, a bit much…??"

Clearly not. He could have spent time just doing good, nice things, or teaching, healing, raising the dead, prophesying, but chose this as well.

Why? It is real! It's necessary! It's a fact of life. It is so very desperately needed for so many. We must therefore all decide to "nerd" this. We must seriously "science" this till we can do it and teach it to others!

Since it's normal Christian faith according to Jesus, it should be to us – but only if we allow Jesus to define what is normal Christianity and normal discipleship. And PS: we should and must. He commanded us all to do it (Matthew 28:19-20, Matthew 10:7-8). Jesus is our King, God, Creator, Master, Lord. His life is the normal life we are to imitate – to mimic (1 Corinthians 11:1). We are to follow Him and be like Him, and the excuse that He was perfect and we are not (1 Corinthians 10:13, John 15:22) will not pass at the eternal reward and evaluation – the judgment of our lives – that we will receive. We must, like Paul commanded, go for it – strive for it (Philippians 3:13-14).

Is incubus and succubus a Real Thing?

Yes. This is hard to understand for those who have not heard of or experienced it themselves. These are demons who believe they are married to you and therefore some people literally experience spiritual / physical rape and other types of sexual disturbances from these literal demons. This can happen during the day or night in dreams, visions, feelings, touches etc. incubus is the male version. succubus is the female version of this. We have included this in the renunciation prayers.

Are You Still a Christian and Go to Heaven Even Though You Need Deliverance?

Yes. Salvation is by your faith in your heart that Jesus rose from the dead – and therefore lives today – and you have confessed Him as Lord = leader of your life by any action of faith in your atomic physical body (Romans 10:9-10, Ephesians 2:8-9).

All else is about sanctification – which is essentially simply to practice in the flesh all that was and is already given all people, and received by those who believe it, by Jesus by His blood, the cross, His death. It is obedient discipleship to the wonderful freeing truth of Him in us and us in Him. We choose to let Him transform us from the inside out. We have Holy Spirit in us and are born again and saved, and marked for Heaven, and Heaven, Abba Father, Jesus, and Holy Spirit live in us – simply by our faith in receiving that IT IS FINISHED. We are absolutely perfect in the eyes of Abba Father God – and we are BEST FRIENDS with Him. Real kids of Dad (1 John 3:1). That's what we are. Jesus gave us – what He was and is to the Father – for free. We cannot by our bad deeds or good deeds – add or subtract anything from that perfect gift. In fact – trying to add or subtract – is an abomination, a super serious theological error. Paul said let such a one be condemned (Galatians 1:8). Not even obedient ministry according to our calling or baptism, communion, prayer or Bible reading adds anything to the perfect gift of salvation, perfection, forgiveness, justification that we have been given through the blood of Jesus. That is all not a salvation issue. Can we, if we persist in sin, be at greater risk of denying our Savior and to stop believing in Him for forgiveness? Yes. So, let's not go there – ever. But let us pursue intimacy and peace wholeheartedly (Hebrews 4:11) – as we are wholeheartedly pursued by a love-enravished, gentle, humble Father who is 100% for us (Isaiah 53:10, Matthew 26:39, 2 Corinthians 5:20, Matthew 11:28-30, Philippians 2:8).

And let us then – on that sure foundation, in that platform of being the satisfaction of our Abba Father through the blood of Jesus alone – do what He says – obey Him – who is the love of our lives – who FULLY loved us first. Who shows us how to obey – and Whom we can trust to speak what is good, right, true, and loving. As we live and breathe this freely given intimate friendship with Abba Father, Brother, and Helper – let us – on that grace-foundation only – willingly. As Jesus Himself did – do ALL that Abba Father has lovingly and clearly commanded us to grow into (Ephesians 2:10, Matthew 28:19-20, Matthew 10, Luke 10, the fullness of all Christ was and then did from what He was). Living intimately with Abba Father, and being holy, loving, humble, meek, gentle, patient, doing justice, being obedient, courageous, blessing others, and doing mighty miraculous deeds, and being fruitful by Holy Spirit power will earn us great and amazing honorable eternal and temporal rewards (1 Corinthians 3:10-15, Colossians 3:23-24).

What About Doctors, Medicine, Psychologist, Psychiatrists, and Then: Christian Inner Healing and Deliverance?

The Quack Law

None of the advice in this book, nor in our prayer sessions is medical advice. We are not quacks. We pray, talk, share, and things happen that are people's own responsibility, and we are under the righteous laws of the country we are in (Romans 13:1-7). See the Danish anti Quack law here: retsinformation.dk/eli / lta/2001/272#P23 - §23 & §24. We always refer people to get all the professional help they can get. In your country there are probably laws like this to follow as well.

Physical vs Spiritual

Not all mental or physical sickness is demonic. If you play football and hit your arm on the ground and a bone breaks – that's not demons. If you lack certain chemicals in your brain, that is not demons. Could demons have pushed you into the ground? Yes. But the broken bone is not a demon. Could demons block organs from producing the chemical? Yes. But the lack of the chemical is a chemical lack and not a demon.

Some mental and physical sicknesses are purely physical. Some are a mix between spiritual and physical. Some are purely demonic.

Medicine, Inner Healing, and Deliverance

We do under no circumstances advise or recommend actions or talk about medicine. The only advice about that should come from professionals like doctors and psychiatrists. Medicine can function as a good support structure to hold up the house – while it is being repaired and remodeled. When the house is healed and whole – the medicine can be removed only according to professional advice. The medical doctors should be able to verify and correctly with the right speed take away unnecessary medicine when a person is actually choosing to repent and live in their identity in Christ as sons of Dad, are healed from the trauma, the disturbing fractured soul parts in them are healed, foreign soul parts are removed, and demons are cast out.

In the EU, we need to follow the healthy GDPR laws of the land and do our utmost to honor people's trust and confidentiality, and respect people's boundaries.

We are not authorized doctors, psychologists, or psychiatrists.

We are also under the law to go to the police with any reports about crimes committed – and to report anyone who is a threat to themselves or others.

Conclusion

Medicine is not bad in itself. On the contrary, it can really help. And, since there is a spiritual and demonic world, some sicknesses can only be cured through healthy inner healing and deliverance. That is the right "medicine" to also use, when the sickness is truly caused by that root problem.

VISION AND DREAM I LONG TO SEE FULFILLED IN MY LIFETIME

I have a dream and a vision to create true double-blind scientific medical and psychological research into how healthy Christian, broad-spectrum, wholehearted repentance, inner healing, and deliverance help people into wholeness and complete healing and freedom even from professionally diagnosed so-called incurable or hard to cure mental illnesses like: Complex trauma, PTSD, borderline, manic depression, Dissociative Personality Disorder, schizophrenia, ADHD, ADD, sRA (satanic Ritual Abuse) victims, etc. Because we actually see that happen! If anyone has money and wants to sponsor serious scientific research into that, in order to produce peer-reviewed doctoral papers – let us do it. This can potentially change and open national public sector medical practices to what I and many others are practicing with great results. Please contact me and we can actually make this happen. We have and know people with the skills and credentials for this both theologically, psychologically, experientially, and who are willing to do it. This is right, good, possible, doable, very worthy of effort and in need of lots of money. Please Email us on Discipleship@ActionChristianity.com if you want to help see this vision happen.

And let me say plainly, as my pastor also writes in the foreword: this book does not replace medical, psychological, or professional care. Spiritual care and healthcare are not competitors – they reinforce each other for the sake of the whole person.

Can Demons Repent Like Humans Can While We Are in the Body?

It is very clear from Scripture that demons – whether dead Nephilim hybrid spirits of humans & fallen angels, or the fallen angels themselves – cannot repent. They cannot change their minds from evil and become good. They ARE now forever hate, evil, darkness, deception, against all that is God, good, and true. They are stuck and have had their time of decision and have made their permanent decision.

It Is the Same for Humans After Death

It is also too late for humans to change their minds and believe and go to Heaven after they are dead and separated from their bodies.

1. Adam and Eve sinned in their bodies.
2. Our bodies' atoms are part of that fallen state of death and destruction and separation from the glory of God.
3. We sin in our bodies (and our bodies are made of fallen dying atoms due to the general fall of humans).
4. Therefore, Jesus had to come in flesh and blood, as a human, with human DNA, and live absolutely perfectly – 100% true, loving, and just.
5. Therefore, our death, injustice, and sin can be laid on Him – forever for all people for all time – and He is rightly, with full justice ensured, our Savior by grace through faith. He carries the sin of the world. Will you receive it?

I Urge You to Make Your Decision to Believe in Jesus Now

Now, today, while you can, while you are in your body, is the time of grace, the time of mercy, the time of decision – to repent from sin, believe in Jesus – and be saved (2 Corinthians 6:2).

Is It Wrong to Talk With Demons? And Can It Take Time? What Can We Say?

Many both those who do and don't do deliverance teach it is wrong to have any sort of exchange back and forth and to get any information from demons. They say, demons are liars, you can never trust them. They typically say that demons just need to shut up and go. I am the boss. I wonder how often and how many times they have done deliverance…??

There are many problems with these views:

Jesus talked back and forth with demons and He even agreed to the terms proposed by a demon for easy deliverance (Matthew 3:17-4:11, Luke 8:26-39).

When Jesus commanded a demon to go it didn't always just go (Luke 8:29)! Just like a person wasn't always healed with one prayer by Jesus (Mark 8:24-26). If Jesus twice needed to do it more than once. I probably sometimes need to do it 100 times. And yes – sometimes there is a very real wrestle (Ephesians 6:12) where the demons are stubborn, disobedient, and hard to cast out. This is where we seek Holy Spirit for the attack strategy. And we seek to find and use the right freedom tools, and uncover possible remaining legal rights, outlined in the practical tooling section of this book.

If we have all power and authority over all demons – which we do – and we can command them to go – and they do, can we then not command them to speak the truth as well? Of course. We can command them to shut up. We can command them to give us the information we need.

Much of what demons say in the Bible is true. Study it out yourself. Not all is a lie. Some is a full lie, some is a half-truth. Some is really 100% true. Should we test the spirits if they are telling the truth? Yes. 1 John 4:1 clearly says to test it. I command the demons: "Does this stand as true before the living Jesus Christ? Look Jesus in the eyes and speak the truth, and I ask, Abba Father, that angels strike this demon piercing it with swords, and pouring out the holy fire on it, if it does not speak the truth. Now speak the truth!" I also sometimes say: "The blood of Jesus in your mouth! Now speak the truth!". Typically, the information I torture them to give is the below.

During many of my deliverance sessions I, like many other deliverance ministers interrogate demons. I ask the person receiving prayer to simply convey the first thoughts in them as I command. Many times, it is not a full manifestation, but just thoughts in their mind. I do not seek unnecessary, irrelevant, and interesting information. I do not engage in small talk. I do not let them say what they want. I stop them from that. I am in charge. I command them to tell me exactly and nothing more than what I need from them to:

- Find out what their name is: "What is your name?"
- Who the highest ranking is: "Are you the highest rank in the kingdom you are a part of: Yes or No?" If no. Then: "Who is above?" "Name!" And repeat!

- I command it to say what the legal right is on which side of the family and how long ago.

Then I cast that demon – with their kingdom below them attached to them – out to the pit, in the name of Jesus. And people are truly set free from many demons. Some of those I do not even know – and I do not need to. They are just a part of that kingdom and now need to go.

Is It Right to Seek Out People to Do Deliverance on Them Etc.?

Many say Jesus never sought out people and did deliverance on them. They say they will deal with it if it happens and comes to them.

This is plain wrong. It's a false dichotomy. A false either-or statement. It is absolutely true that people came to Jesus to be delivered. It is also true that Jesus, as always led by Holy Spirit, sought out people to do deliverance (Luke 8:26-39), and dead-raising (Luke 7:11-17, John 11:6), and healing (John 5:1-15), and saving and prophesying (John 4:4).

It also seems like some of us have forgotten Jesus' general commands to all of us to obey all His commands that He gave to His disciples back then – which include to cast out demons, heal the sick, raise the dead etc. There is no difference in seeking to save the lost and to seek and deliver the demonized, heal the sick, prophesy, fill people with Holy Spirit, and raise the dead etc.

This false perception and theology are really an excuse to avoid true proactive faith and obedience to the fullness of the commands of Jesus, and to avoid proactively taking the education of a totally normal disciple.

When You Actually Start Doing It – It Turns Out To Be Hard Sometimes

Deliverance sessions don't always just "flow". See how the disciples struggled with it here (Matthew 17:14-21 NKJV). Demons are stubborn sometimes – even towards Jesus (Luke 8:29). They don't always just leave (Daniel 10:12-13). People might not really repent of their sin and wholeheartedly turn to the truth – and the demons can come back. People might accuse you of being bad, inexperienced, having bad intentions. You might not be recognized for the good you do by anybody – but God – for a while. This can be very discouraging. Deliverance is hard real work. Some simply quit doing deliverance again. The fix is to realize – this is a learning journey. I am not, you are not, the people being prayed for are not perfect. Only One is. We all start somewhere and need to learn – also by doing mistakes. We need to own our mistakes – say sorry, learn from them, adjust our course, repent, turn from sin, be open about it, and also learn new and better ways of doing it. We also need to live in close obedience to Jesus, Holy Spirit, Abba. That is what discipleship is all about. It is a life-long thing. The command to love Jesus obediently – also by doing deliverance – stands. The disciples didn't always succeed by obeying just once, and I might need 1,000 tries. I really love the word: try. It means we do something, while realizing we are not perfect. That's the reality and truth. So, I encourage you! Do not give up! Keep learning! Keep getting back up! Keep humbling yourself.

Keep going! Humble yourself under God's mighty hand – and the enemy WILL flee!

Is It a Good Command to Tell the Spirits to "Come Up and Out With the Breath?"

Yes. This seems to work very well. Many demons will leave that way. Others come out in other ways. Through coughing, burping, yawning. Some come out through the ears, head, legs – whatever. As long as they go.

Since Holy Spirit is compared to wind and they influence spiritually (John 3:8) – it seems a fitting command in that way as well.

Should We Command Spirits to Go to Dry Places or to the Pit or the Abyss and Never to Return?

You can, but Jesus didn't always do this (Luke 8:31). It definitely is a place they do not want to go. Send them out of and away from the person. That seems to be the main and most important thing. But to add "never to return" is also Biblical (Mark 9:25). It seems, though, that some demons, when cast out, go to "the dry places", and then want to return to the "wet place", which is a human. So, some demons try to return. And we should shut the door to that through repenting into the love of the Father out of any lie that does not match that we are in, with, Christ now, and Abba Father is our Best Friend and is totally satisfied with us (Matthew 3:17, Matthew 17:5, John 5:20, John 10:17), by the blood of Jesus only and permanently perfectly. Holy Spirit will help us and fill us and enable us to remain in the Truth. And He is truly in us, there to help, in the Father, in the Son, Christ Jesus – and nothing can separate us from the love of God in Christ (Romans 8:37-39).

How Do Your Words Become Spiritual Realities in a Deliverance Session?

Our words become Spirit and life, confirmed by Holy Spirit in Jesus' name! It is amazing to see and experience! When we speak by faith, under the command of Jesus, by the guidance of the Holy Spirit, according with the truth – then what we speak becomes a reality in the spiritual world, then it is according to His will and the authority He has given us (John 6:63, Hebrews 4:12, 2 Corinthians 3:6-8)! It is mind-boggling and astonishing – and beautiful.

We need to believe, speak, and do like Jesus, who said: "Lazarus come forward!" Or Peter, who said: "Silver and gold have I not – but what I have I give – stand up in the name of Jesus."

Can I Do Self-Deliverance and Should I Get Prayed for by Others With Great Mature Depth of Skill?

Yes. I did that through listening to a lot of teaching on deliverance repeating all the prayers of deliverance at the end of those teachings and deeply repenting, deeply hating my sin, spending actual quality time alone with Abba Father, by reading the Word, serving people, dealing with both roots and fruits, practicing my identity, and my call with ferocious self-responsible fire. One day I could just see and verify, I was free of the manipulation to watch porn and self-satisfy.

But is it right to get help from good seasoned mature believers and therefore also deeply skilled in inner healing and deliverance as well? Yes. God needs to be fully involved, and He is! You need to be fully involved, for your free will is respected always in love, and honour of your choice by God, and others are there to help as well.

I believe all normal Christians should get at least a yearly "spiritual checkup" – just like many go to the dentist or doctor to get a yearly checkup or physical examination. We should have a yearly spiritual checkup examination. This evil deceptive world is a reality – and we, therefore, need to deal rightly with it. Many need to go very deep and find many layers to the "onion of their soul" where the hidden layers of agreements with lies need to be peeled off and their true identity needs to be established instead. And if you haven't done so yet – no matter how far you are in your Christian life, this will help you, free you and help you to practice the fullness of holiness found as requirements in 1 Timothy 3:1-13.

Isn't It Dangerous to Do Deliverance Publicly or in a Private House?

Won't the demons jump on others or into kids etc. in the house? No. Jesus did deliverances on graveyards (Mark 5:1-20), long distance in houses (Mark 7:24-30), in public squares with lots of people around (Mark 1:32-34, Mark 9:14-29), in synagogues (Mark 1:21-28) and in the temple in Jerusalem (not mentioned specifically, but in Matthew 21:12-14 he heals the blind and lame, and many times healings and deliverances was a combination of physical healing and deliverance happening at the same time).

All need to have their own legal right doors closed – and that is not dependent on whether deliverance happens in anyone's proximity. The enemy would love to have us shrink back in fear from the fullness of what Jesus clearly did. Jesus – no one else – is our perfect model and example to test what is ok, good, and right. Let's not be quick to make rules on how to do things if it is clear Jesus did not follow those rules!

Can I Cast Out Demons of People Even If I Myself Need Deliverance?

Yes. That is possible. I know of many such stories. Sometimes they just hide really well. We get used to them and think that oh – it's just me, my lot in life to think like this, be like this. We even take "personality tests" that prove: This is who I am – made by God like that! And all the while we are simply confirming and remaining in our trauma, fears, and limitations – and in the demons and lies that correspond. We are not dying to ourselves – AND then LIVING in and for and through Christ alone! Whenever you find a demon – cast it out. Of course, do all you can to get rid of your demons. Take your own medicine first. Get your own freedom and healing. Then you can better help others. Then you do not become a blind person leading the blind (Matthew 15:14)!

What If Your Church Doesn't Practice This Kind of Fullness of Inner Healing & Deliverance?

That is a serious and real problem given the amount of time Jesus spent doing it and how much freedom people need and get from doing this.

Imagine Jesus literally opening His bag, grabbing His calendar, taking a look and saying (Luke 13:32): "Let's see my schedule the next 2 days. These days are super important because I am just about to go to Jerusalem and die, so I will keep on driving out demons and healing people today and tomorrow." Jesus in BOSS mode. How many of you, Christian leaders, can say you have many days looking like that? Jesus did. Dear fellow leader, I beg you with my whole heart: let us deeply repent. Let's be first in humility, repentance, brokenness, willingness to change. That leadership – to lead in going lower. Let's lead by being first to truly change our lives, and follow Him in how He, our Master, prioritized this. So many sheep and "pre-sheep" need this deep ministry. This cannot be left to a few "experts" or "specialists" – this is what Jesus trained both His 12 and 70 to actually do – not just mentally agree to or to do a little here and there. Jesus spent significant portions of time doing this continually throughout His life and ministry.

What Could Be a Good Action Plan?

Share your own story with them if you have a humble broken story of personal freedom through this type of prayer ministry. We overcome the lying accuser through the blood of the Lamb, the word of our testimony and – in the spirit of not loving our lives – that we are not afraid to look weak and broken in front of people (Revelation 12:11).

Give them this book. Ask them if they would be willing to read it and show them the Action Christianity Social Media channels to see the reality, beauty, and fruitfulness of healthy inner healing and deliverance. Allow them the patience of the journey into this – which takes time. You took your time. I took my time. But then, there must be the humility of openness with real action, time, and movement.

Ask if the leader of the assembly would like to book a call with me or people from our team or people we recommend. We would love to talk with any Christian leader interested in getting healthy answers to honest questions. And we would love to come help, pray, demonstrate, train. Some larger local churches practicing parts of this – not as celebrities to outsource to, but as proof it can be normal – could be:

1. Awakening Church with Ben Fitzgerald
2. Reclamation Church with Michael Miller

3. Sanctus Church with Jon Thompson
4. V1 Church with Mike Signorelli
5. Hungry Generation with Vlad Savchuk
6. LifeSong Church Stockton with Isaiah Saldivar
7. Amazing Church with Alexander Pagani

If they are unwilling to discover, talk, or learn and do it in action, they can use excuses like "this is not for our church" or "we are called to other things". Then that is not a correct and fully obedient option when looking simply at Jesus' own personal job description and commands, which He gave to all His normal disciples in Matthew 10, Luke 10, based on Matthew 28:19-20 and which Paul and Barnabas fully did outside Israel in Acts 13-15 etc. What to do?

You have some important options and choices to make. Fellowship is very important. Friendships as well. But people and opinions and even leaders opinions and job opportunities should never come before God. That is the fear of people over the "fear" of God.

1. First pray! Always seek to hear the voice and get the leading of God for every season of your life. Listen. Be patient. Command the enemy to be silent.
2. If God says clearly to stay. Then read the below observations.
3. If God leads you to join another local church that is healthy and practices this as well. The challenge is: A church can practice aspects of this – but be so unhealthy in other areas that it is worse than one that doesn't. We are happy to try and help you with finding a good church near you. It is so important to be part of a humble, healthy, strong fellowship where the fullness of the power of the Spirit, and the cross and the Word according to Dad's will, is both preached and practiced in a healthy non-manipulative way.
4. Connect deeply to our ministry of home fellowships and discipleship multiplication. We seek and work with people who are mature, and able to and want to start a fellowship in their home – and who will join online gatherings and trainings consistently. We offer to train and engage with you online and with personal contact and helpful engagement to start a house-church in and from your life, your home, your miracles of salvation, healing, deliverance, Holy Spirit baptism, and water baptism etc. We believe God wants to engage us all in a global movement of exponentially multiplying disciples (2 Timothy 2:2) leading 5-fold team leadership based home churches from their homes, that also grow into having public meetings (Acts 2:42-47, Acts 20:20) if public meetings are doable in your country and we need to gather in 5-fold hubs like Antioch (Acts 13:1-3) for sure. Jesus also taught and did miracles from home to home, found people of peace on the streets, in homes, in synagogues, and temples, and preached where it was befitting and right to preach, not shouting in the streets at people or arguing with people, see Matthew 12:19.

Expanding option 2 above

If God says to stay for a season

Know that you are truly free to stay or go. You are free in and under Christ – otherwise you are part of a deeply unhealthy cult and sect. And you should pray – pray deeply and sincerely for what to do. There are many options at this junction.

So, seek God, and do what God says - but know, if your church does not practice this, it also does not train, for practical demonstration by leaders is training, and it also does not truly know the fullness of authority and stop short of much of what Jesus has here. For we only truly know what we fully practice (John 7:17). Jesus led in this area by example. This means it is lacking very important tools (1 Thessalonians 3:10). Tools which Jesus Himself had to use to fully deal with the enemy (Matthew 4:10) – and thereby overcame aspects of temptations, sin, and the demonic that fit the tools of authority, inner healing and deliverance. Not seeing mature others doing it and not knowing and practicing this yourself leaves you personally vulnerable - and the church - both leaders & people, are vulnerable through disobedience. The understanding of what sins of omission are (not doing what Jesus clearly did and commanded) need to be deeply rooted in us. They are a knowing or unknowing failure to step into the fullness of the clear necessary commands and example of Jesus.

By not doing what Jesus did the leaders are teaching and exemplifying and modeling and by example showing those they lead to not personally or corporately fully do it. That is the exciting honor, consequence, responsibility, burden, and reason for the harder judgment of leadership (James 3:1).

This means, if you are absolutely sure Jesus is calling you to stay for a season in a church omitting this teaching and practice and training - which Jesus clearly gave both His 12, 70 and others – then you have to realize you consciously proactively even harder need to place yourself to receive from healthy people who do this well – outside your church. This will be an attempt to counter-balance the lack to try to ensure you personally are in the whole healthy fullness of the strength of God in love, truth & action.

Remember, at the end of our lives, we will all face judgment, evaluation and rewards or rebukes by Jesus according to our love shown in obedient action under His Word, His commands directly personally from Him to us, as they are already stated in the Bible. We will not be evaluated first according to if we do what our earthly Christian leaders said and did and required.

I had to realize in my life, that I had made a certain church culture and the leader there equal to and higher than God - not the direct clear and simple words of Jesus and example of Jesus. So, I repented deeply and sorrowfully and made Jesus my Master, Lord, and God.

This principle of omission of the whole fullness of the life and practices and diary and time choice transformation and imitation of course needs to be applied to all areas of our lives as obedient Jesus followers. The practice of inner healing and deliverance is just one very important aspect of discipleship and life.

And, yes, as you can see here, normal average discipleship according to Jesus is much bigger and much more completely life transforming than what many understand and practice today.

Oh – and I pray: “May churches be raised up that practice so much more of the fullness of the ministry of Christ.” This is exactly the style of Paul: 1 Corinthians 2:1-5 - 1 And so it was with me, brothers and sisters. When I came to you, I did not come with eloquence or human wisdom as I proclaimed to you the testimony about God. 2 For I resolved to know nothing while I was with you except Jesus Christ and him crucified. 3 I came to you in weakness with great fear and trembling. 4 My message and my preaching were not with wise and persuasive words, but with a demonstration of the Spirit's power, 5 so that your faith might not rest on human wisdom, but on God's power.

What About Children and Freedom From Demons?

Unfortunately, just like adults can, children can have and be influenced by demons. We have 2 stories in the 4 stories of Jesus' life about this in Mark 9:14-29 and Matthew 15:21-28.

A clear principle is, that the parents should first go through their own full repentance, identity foundation, inner healing, and deliverance – especially generational bloodline curse breaking interrogation style deliverance. This can set the child free "by remote", because any generational curses are broken by the mother and the father – and that releases the child to instead be free and get the generational blessings intended. We have seen this happen several times.

Also, the parents need to be 100% responsible for their child and aware what this is about and need to fight the good fight for their kids in prayer.

Many children can simply be set free by being prayed for almost unhearable while the children are sleeping.

Jesus healed the Syrophoenician woman's daughter through a deep display of faith and very persistent endurance of the mother. And it was even done remotely.

Why Does It Seem Demons Have Animal Types?

People who have done deliverance over longer periods of time all notice that some of them are like various animal types, like snakes, squids, birds or dragons. Why is that?

Jesus, Paul, and John Called People and Demons by Animal Types

- Luke 13:31-32 – 31 At that time some Pharisees came to Jesus and said to him, "Leave this place and go somewhere else. Herod wants to kill you." 32 He replied, "Go tell that fox, 'I will keep on driving out demons and healing people today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach my goal.'
- Philippians 3:2 – Watch out for those dogs, those evildoers, those mutilators of the flesh.
- Matthew 7:6 – Do not throw your pearls to pigs.
- Matthew 7:15 – Watch out for false prophets. They come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves.
- 2 Peter 2:22 – Of them the proverbs are true: "A dog returns to its vomit," and "A sow that is washed returns to her wallowing in the mud.
- Matthew 23:33 – You snakes! You brood of vipers! How will you escape being condemned to hell?

- Luke 10:19 – I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you.
- Matthew 12:34 – You brood of vipers, how can you who are evil say anything good? For the mouth speaks what the heart is full of.
- Revelation 9:10 – They had tails with stingers, like scorpions, and in their tails, they had power to torment people for five months.
- Revelation 13:2 – The beast I saw resembled a leopard but had feet like those of a bear and a mouth like that of a lion. The dragon gave the beast his power and his throne and great authority.
- Revelation 16:13 – Then I saw three impure spirits that looked like frogs; they came out of the mouth of the dragon, out of the mouth of the beast and out of the mouth of the false prophet.
- 2 Peter 2:12 (and read the whole chapter) – … Some people are like unreasoning animals, creatures of instinct, born only to be caught and destroyed, and like animals they too will perish.

It Is Interesting That God Compares Himself to Animals

It would seem that, with some animals, He has put something of His own character into them.

- Lamb. Isaiah 53:7 – Lamb Who was slain
- Lion. Isaiah 31:4 – A lion who is not afraid in battle.
- Eagle. Deuteronomy 32:10-11 – God is like an eagle that stirs up the nest and gets the new eagles out to fly, and He catches them and carries them on His wings.
- Mother hen. Matthew 23:37 – Jerusalem, Jerusalem, you who kill the prophets and stone those sent to you, how often I have longed to gather your children together, as a hen gathers her chicks under her wings, and you were not willing.

The language of Heaven is often symbolic and in pictures. For instance: We have seen spirits of heaviness that were like elephants. We have seen many snakes that constrict to strangle out the freedom, life, faith, joy, and calling of a person. And we have seen snakes of poisoned bitterness, souring up the life of a person.

Foxes are political or other solutions to problems outside the ones founded inside the Kingdom of God under the Father in the name of Jesus.

Angels / God the Holy Spirit can take over control of animals (Numbers 22:21-39), and he can turn a stick into a snake and reverse (Exodus 7:8-12). If they can – so can demons (Genesis 3:1-5) – up to a certain level – a God-level if you will (Exodus 8:16-19).

Generally – also here: It helps to be specific in terms of the legal system of Heaven – the courts of Heaven. When there is specific sin, it often (not always) needs to be specifically repented of – and then the legal right is broken, and the demon can more easily be cast out.

Practical Inner Healing and Deliverance Tools

Practical Tools to Do and Understand Deliverance in a Healthy Broad-Spectrum (Fullness) Way

Here are both very powerful basic tools that are very straightforward – and there are other, more advanced tools which you will end up needing as you begin to help people "peel all the onion layers" off – to enter the freedom of their promised land.

Imagine you are a carpenter (Jesus was a son of one), and you must choose between a manual screwdriver, a manual saw, a manual drill and their fully charged, electrically powered equivalents. Here are 23 Holy Spirit super-charged power-tools of healthy repentance, inner healing, and deliverance that are ready for us to use. We must take responsibility to proactively apply them to ourselves first. And then we need to learn to help others apply them! They are permanently charged up by Holy Spirit – to heal the soul, renew the mind, and heal the body, and cast out demons and foreign soul parts – so that we get as healthy as we are supposed to be. For our Spirit is already perfect by the blood of Jesus alone. Now we need to choose to align with all that we are given, the very bleeding compassionate and deeply friendly heart of our Father.

I believe on full eternal Biblical grounds that all of these are essential to all Christians everywhere to understand and practice. Do not let a traditional, limited, unbiblical theology – that this is just for a few ultra-specialists – take this ministry of multi-faceted freedom away from you. It was completely normal to Jesus and all His followers.

This is essential discipleship and will help us conquer sin – living in both intimacy with Abba Father, true freedom, wholeness, and the holy loving proactive fruitfulness of MUCH FRUIT (John 15:8) of the fullness of your calling!

The order below is a preferred order of progression – but a person's first point of freedom and the journey from there can easily start in point 19 (or anywhere else) – and then move into any of the other areas. Ask Holy Spirit for direction. Ask for wisdom and understanding – be innocent as a dove, yet smart as a snake. What do we do first?

This list of the 23 tools can be inserted in the top of a Word document, where you write notes for the session:

1. Free Will
2. Salvation
3. Holy Spirit Baptism & Re-Filling
4. Forgiveness
5. Jesus as Lord
6. Occult And Sinful Items Out
7. Physical Well Being
8. Good Theology
9. Identity
10. Justification by Faith Alone

11. Suffering Only in Christ
12. Righteous Indignation
13. Unholy Soul Ties
14. Trauma Healing
15. Word Curses
16. Own Fractured Soul Parts
17. Renouncing
18. Authority
19. Bloodline Generational Curses
20. Foreign Soul Parts
21. Healing of the Human Spirit
22. New Learning and Tools
23. Obedient Discipleship

SUPERCHARGED HOLY SPIRIT HEALING, FREEDOM, AND WHOLENESS NECESSARY ARRAY OF GOD-GIVEN POWER TOOLS

I believe all Christians, especially and starting with all leaders, so they can give it on to those they lead, should fully and as soon as possible go through each of these in depth. It must be their own personal healing and freedom journey, and then it naturally becomes both an intellectual and practical education. And then we need to take the time to get out there and actually do the job. This requires time in your weekly schedule. And if you are worried if you will have enough work to do – do not worry. In my experience virtually all people genuinely benefit from going deeper in this using all the tools here.

Tool 1 – Free Will

The realization must be made and actions taken: The tool of real free will is truth. We have the choice to repent (which means to change your mind, and then your actions). I must completely own this: I am personally 100% responsible to choose to go fully and pro-actively into and actively use all these tools. I must be personally fully willing to change myself, humble myself, take total ownership of my good and wrong choices, yes, to obey Jesus in all-in 100% submission to, humble, broken, transparent, not-"cool" to others wholehearted repentance away from the love of sin which is obedience to sin and agree to the hate of sin that is in God. God LOVES(!!) the sinner AND HATES(!!) the sin. The good message is: We do not repent into nothing! We repent into: the goodness and intimate friendship of Abba Father, God (Mark 1:14-15, Romans 2:4, Luke 14:26-27 + 33, 2 Chronicles 7:14, Psalm 51:17). This fully satisfies every desire, longing, and heals every brokenness in us.

You can change and you are responsible to change, and you must change. God has given all you need and is fully ready in real time to personally help you with all you need. It's not only cold tools and understandings and choices – it is that too. But it is His power and real presence and the help of the Helper (Holy Spirit) Whom we choose to open up to – through free will repentance. He will not make the choices for you. He presents the truth. He loves you. He has given Himself completely to you. He is 100% for you. Look only at the cross to understand it ever deeper. You choose to believe, receive, and act.

So, seek understanding (Proverbs 3:13, Ephesians 1:18). Get knowledge (Hosea 4:6, Proverbs 18:15). And remain focused and take full action on all that.

There are 4 levels to fully realizing our responsibility to make right choices:

- I have real free will with consequences.
- I must find out what is good and what is bad.
- I must choose the good and true.
- I must then act on the good continually also when I am 100% mistreated (like Jesus).

Hints about the greatest good and true in life: God says, and God gets to be God and decide for me that I am fully forgiven best friends of Abba Father, Son, & Spirit through the blood, cross, and suffering of Jesus. I'm a true son of God, beloved brother, bride & soldier. And I have been given all the power and all authority to rule and reign in life that Jesus had. This includes authority over all demons. And I must understand and use it!

Tool 2 – Salvation

Saving faith in Jesus (Ephesians 2:8-9, Romans 10:9-10, Hebrews 11:1)

Confess Jesus is your Lord. Believe He rose from the dead. Ask Him wholeheartedly by faith that He WILL, forgive you of all your sins. Then start accepting and acting on His desire for you having a real, true, and deep friendship with Father, Son & Brother, Jesus, Holy Spirit only through the cross, blood, suffering, death and bodily resurrection of the only personal best friend, Creator God, Jesus Christ. This is all accepted by faith – not by physical sight – but spiritual sight, based on historical truth and facts.

Tool 3 – Holy Spirit Baptism & Re-Filling

Baptisms in Holy Spirit and water and the laying on of hands (Luke 11:9-13, Acts 2:38, Acts 4:31, Acts 8:17, Hebrews 6:2)

Continual re-baptisms in Holy Spirit grace, power, and fire – with speaking in tongues and prophesying – plus baptism in water as a brilliant, powerful, in-Christ touch-point of miracles, and a symbol of the spiritual realities we live in by faith.

Tool 4 – Forgiveness

Wholehearted and complete forgiveness / Letting go of bitter root judgments (Matthew 18:21-35, Hebrews 12:15-16, Matthew 6:14-15, Ephesians 4:31-32, Colossians 3:13)

Stopping and letting go to God of all accusations and judgments against: Abba Father, God, Jesus, brother, Holy Spirit, guide, yourself, & others! 100%! Looking to the cross only where Jesus through God forgave all everything and took the punishment we deserved on Himself and now commands us to live holy. Do not forget to completely forgive yourself – and the biggest of all, let go of all bitterness, disappointments, accusations of injustice against Abba Father, God! That bitter root judgment against God, accusing God of unfairness, was my sin. And I denied it for 17 years… I didn't see how the perfect Jesus suffered on the cross – and I do the same in life at times. I put my call from God above the proof of God's love for me on the cross. I agreed with satan to accuse Dad of unfairness and rejection. So, I retaliated by rejecting Him. All based on a lie from the pit of hell. Get real with God and ask Him to expose any bitter root in you against anyone (except demons).

Tool 5 – Jesus as Lord

Actually, making Jesus and His will and Word 100% Lord of all – practicing and obeying the given holiness – earning great Heavenly rewards! (Romans 12:1, 1 Peter 1:15-16, Galatians 2:20, Romans 8:6, 1 Corinthians 3:8-15)

Total obedience and repentance from all sin into desiring and acting on total holiness – no compromise! Taking total ownership of our free will. We have no excuse for sin (1 Corinthians 10:13).

Committing to complete leadership, sexual, and monetary cleanness, stopping pride, speaking only words of truth, living in complete transparent brokenness, repentance, turning from all sin to purity, holiness, truth, honour.

Getting real accountability from others living in the same way – who are also accountable to live holy according to 1 Timothy 3:1-13 and as a leader pre-committing to submit to 1 Timothy 5:19-25.

This includes the will to recognize and stop any and every conviction or action that is destructive to them or others (Luke 9:23-25). It is also to set healthy boundaries on damaging relationships (Mark 3:20-21,31-35), and to cut off even good things that others might do without it causing sin from them (Matthew 5:30).

It is turning away from the fear of people's opinions – and "fearing" = rating what God says above everything else. Being willing to lose your social status "life", and physical life – as Jesus did first – for you (Revelation 12:10-11).

Tool 6 – Occult And Sinful Items Out

Get rid of occult items and cleansing houses and areas dedicating them Holy to Jesus (Acts 19:19-20, Deuteronomy 18:10-12, Leviticus 19:31, 1 Corinthians 10:21)

Clearing all physical occult / Free Masonry and similar items out and preferably burning them.

Anoint the place where you live with water or oil dedicating it holy unto God, proclaiming the blood of Jesus over it and commanding all curses and demons attached to leave in the mighty name of Jesus.

Demons can be attached to occult items like tarot cards, ouija boards, crystals, dream catchers, occult witchcraft books, free masonry items, ritual knives, touristy things like statues of buddha or jewellery, African items, and even false lying identity can be attached to clothing, dolls, etc. It is best if these are burned – but they can also simply be thrown into the trash. Of course, the owners need to do it willingly, themselves. Some tattoos can also be demonic and then need to be prayed over and dedicated and cleansed by the blood of Jesus – and any attached demons need to be commanded to go. Also lands and houses can be "haunted". These can all be legal rights that need to be broken.

Practical instructions to cleanse lands, homes, and tattoos:

- Get a glass of water or oil.
- Pray over it, setting it aside as "Holy to the Lord". Put your finger in the glass and put a little drop on all 4 corners of the land and the house and over all doors and windows.

- Say: "I dedicate this entire property / tattoo as holy to the Lord Jesus Christ and cleanse it in holy liquid and in the Spirit, I cleanse it in the blood of Jesus. I break every curse over this land / tattoo in Jesus' name and in the mighty name of Jesus I command every unclean spirit to: GO!".

If in doubt about certain objects – ask Holy Spirit to guide. It is better to get rid of a bit more than needed than to keep some cursed item.

Tool 7 – Physical Well Being

Healthy food, rest, friendships, and exercise (1 Corinthians 6:19-20, 3 John 1:2, 1 Timothy 4:8)

We are spirit, soul, and body – and we need to take well care of and steward our "temples", the gift of our bodies and brains wherein God dwells by His Spirit. We need to choose healthy friendships and set healthy self-loving boundaries on unhealthy ones – even with family and long-time friends.

Tool 8 – Good Theology

Stopping all ungodly non-Biblical beliefs (Romans 12:2, 2 Corinthians 10:5, Psalm 119:105, 1 Timothy 4:16)

To uproot lies, we must first know the truth. There is no substitute for disciplining our mind in the Word. It is the essential foundation for wholeness as a believer. Then we must change and practice all the truths obediently – thereby proving in action that we believe the truth now.

Tool 9 – Identity

Identity truly restored and continuously focused on: Orphan heart, attitude, and spirit of rejection healed (John 14:16-20, Romans 8:15, Galatians 4:6, 1 John 3:1, John 15:9-10)

Deep and complete heart reconciliation to sonship. Receiving and living in the identity of Jesus – we are, as He is – the wholeheartedly beloved of Abba Father. Nothing less – nothing more. That is enough – for that we were made!

We need to choose to often spend quality time in the presence of Abba Father – just hanging out as best friends, as the beloved son, the friend and brother of Jesus, in the sweet fellowship of Holy Spirit. THIS is real!

All of this work of inner healing and identity, even this entire life, is about repenting into, understanding, receiving, believing, choosing, trusting, and acting on the fact and truth that we are all reconciled, restored, chosen, deeply, wholeheartedly loved by Father God. And remaining there in the midst of the craziest of pain, grief, suffering, injustice, abandonment, rejection, persecution, sickness, and darkness.

To live there, walking in the cool of the day with Dad, Jesus, Holy Spirit as best friends, son, bride, warrior, ambassador, priest – that is the reason God created us, the meaning and ultimate purpose in life (Genesis 3:8-9, Genesis 5:24, James 2:23, John 13:23, John 19:26, John 20:2, John 21:7, John 21:20).

This position of adoption as sons and best friends of Dad, Jesus, and Holy Spirit is already perfectly and fully paid for. Jesus said, "My God, my God. Why have you forsaken me? Rejected me? Not treated me with love and justice? Not intervened? Left me alone? Abandoned me? (Matthew 27:46)" On the cross,

Jesus became sin (2 Corinthians 5:21). So, He also became rejection – for you – taking all those feelings and experiences from you – if you choose to not let the physical or spiritual world speak to you FIRST (Hebrews 12:24). This exchange of His perfect peace with Abba Father for your enmity, for your rejection is eternally established. When it comes only to your first friendship: With Abba Father, with Jesus, with Holy Spirit – that intimate friendship is always real. To focus on that – is our choice alone. In that choice we agree with the truth despite our physical circumstances and emotions – therefore the Spirit of Truth can meet us there and confirm it. This is repenting from being a little hurt child to agreeing first – with the Spirit of adoption (Romans 8:15-17). God sees our suffering (Hebrews 4:15-16) – and calls us higher in it – into Him – while suffering.

I have done extensive teaching in articles and books on how to thoroughly, brokenly, and fully deal with the lie of rejection and the orphan heart / attitude / mindset and spirit. This is so very deep and must be a complete settled work in us – continually practiced and strengthened, as true friendships are. Please see articles, books and online teachings about this on ActionChristianity.com. Please look for titles like: The Lie Of Rejection, and: The Orphan Spirit.

True understanding of identity also contains realization that others have nothing special compared to you in terms of the Holy Spirit power of God in them or authority over all demons in Jesus' name. You have exactly the same as all others. There are no special ministers that have extra. What others have is understanding, training, experience, repentance, obedience, boldness, and the submission to the leading of Holy Spirit. Those are things we can and must grow in.

We are fighting in faith from complete victory – given in and through Jesus Christ and His blood, death, suffering, and resurrection.

Nobody has anything special above others. Or said in the right way: We all have the best, strongest, most loving, most wholehearted Father, who is FOR us. We do have experience - but we have exactly the same position to choose to say yes to the truth, that we are here on earth as rulers in total authority to rule and reign (Romans 5:17), and in full sonship, and the same name of Jesus - the highest, and the same Spirit in us - the biggest Dad of all!

Don't let anyone fool you into thinking they have something special, that you do not have from God. They will make money on you and keep you dependent on them. That is a lie from the pit of hell. You have it all – now it is just a matter of learning to use it – also from others who have fruit, experience, and humility. To learn how to use what we have is what we all need – and we do need to learn that from people who have maturity in humble submission and obedience, and who want to give all that they have to others.

Tool 10 – Justification by Faith Alone

Pure doctrine of righteousness by faith alone by grace alone with no good deeds added on top and no bad deeds deleting the perfection by faith. This must be understood and believed (Romans 3:22, Philippians 3:9, 2 Corinthians 5:21)

Understanding that we are perfect, justified, made righteous through the blood of Jesus through faith and any action proving we receive that truth. On that foundation – we now practice and flesh out who we are. God's saints, holy, righteous, perfect, truth-filled children by Holy Spirit power in the eyes of the Father by the blood of Jesus only, empowered to live in holiness by focus on Holy Spirit truthfully saying: "Abba Father!" in us. We choose those Words of God to be true about us. We reject lies of the devil or people or ourselves.

Tool 11 – Suffering Only in Christ

Co-Suffering with Christ and intimate friendship with Abba Father in our extreme suffering chosen – against feelings, based on truth (Romans 8:17, 2 Corinthians 1:5, 1 Peter 4:13)

Doing it right within and with Christ Jesus in His and Abba Father's love and strength. Especially as this suffering goes absolutely through the roof multiple times over a long period of time! Then and right there! We must choose to maturely remain in His love! This is living by the super-strength of God! This makes us invincible because we remain in Abba Father's love in the Spirit – when we are treated with full-blown injustice in the flesh. Then we must choose to focus on the Spirit and declare, with the Spirit of truth, in agreement with the truth: I remain in Your love (Romans 8:6, Romans 8:15-17). Then we co-learn obedience through suffering – like Jesus (Hebrews 5:8). This is the ultimate maturity which we must learn directly from Jesus who suffered 100% pure injustice – AND remained in the love of the Father there. This will make us invincible (Romans 8:38-39). Romans 14:8 - If we live, we live for the Lord; and if we die, we die for the Lord. So, whether we live or die, we belong to the Lord. Philippians 1:21 - For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain. Galatians 2:20 - I have been crucified with Christ, and I no longer live, but Christ lives in me. The life I now live in the body, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

Tool 12 – Righteous Indignation

Learning to be angry with a healthy and appropriate and accurate level of holy righteous just indignation against all forms of evil, sin, injustice, and omission of obedience to love and truth (Ephesians 4:26, Mark 3:5, John 2:15)

Stopping the Christian "nice person" syndrome where we say and do nothing in the face of injustice. We need to be expressing anger right and clearly at injustice, non-love, sin, and compromise. This right kind of anger is not bad. It is right and good and sets things straight. Jesus got very appropriately angry – yet didn't sin! Get angry at sin, at demons, at injustice, at compromise, at stealing, at lies, at sin, death, and destruction.

Tool 13 – Unholy Soul Ties

Unholy soul ties broken (Hebrews 4:12-13, 1 Corinthians 6:16, 2 Corinthians 6:14, Galatians 5:1)

Praying a prayer and declaring: "I now separate soul from spirit, and marrow from bone. I sever by the sword of the Spirit, the double-edged Word of God, sharper than anything, every unholy soul tie attached to "persons' name". I send away every attached foreign soul part (it is good to mention the names of those the person has been with sexually in an unholy way or have been dominated and manipulated by in a bad way) and I receive back all my own soul parts to me from them – washed in the blood of Jesus."

I often have people do a prophetic act here – like Agabus did with Paul (Acts 21:10-13), and Elisha did with King Jehoash (2 Kings 13:14-19), and ask them to prophetically with their hand being the sword – cut the soul ties over – as if it is the sword of the Spirit cutting the ties.

Then command all demons attached to those soul ties through those legal rights to leave in Jesus' name!

Tool 14 – Trauma Healing

Healing from all kinds of trauma (Psalm 147:3, Isaiah 61:1, 2 Corinthians 1:3-4)

We are most likely presently negatively influenced by extreme negative past experiences, feelings, and beliefs. We, unfortunately, sometimes live today by lies we learnt in the past.

Christian trauma truth healing through Jesus Christ goes back in prayer into the past with Holy Spirit as Guide, Truth, Comforter. God is eternally present NOW, also in the past! He remembers all. We let Holy Spirit be our Guide and let Him select events one at a time and ask Him to expose lies we believe – and ask Him to speak the truth we need to see, understand, receive and apply practically. Sometimes, in these sessions, Holy Spirit even reminds people of negative error-filled "truths" they concluded about "life" that they forgot – but still subconsciously or emotionally navigate by today.

Then we invite Jesus right into that trauma, into the situation and into the emotion. And we ask Him to speak His truth against the lie. We ask Holy Spirit to show what Jesus says to it – and we ask Holy Spirit to show people where Jesus was and is in that situation.

This eternal truth by Jesus heals, changes, and transforms the deep identities of shame, rejection, and loneliness into their true identity of sons of God, best friends of Abba Father, Brother, bride of Christ, Holy Spirit. Peace, joy, righteousness is the only chosen foundation now. Sometimes we even go back to before conception to see the Father's joy, Jesus' joy, and Holy Spirit's utter, pure, and complete joy of the soul being created.

Sometimes even trauma in the body comes forward, and some people feel emotional or psychosomatic pain, spiritual pain, or a combination of these leave them, as they are healed, set free, and delivered by truth, identity, and authority in Christ Jesus.

When we have done this work, we can then deal much stronger with the demons hiding behind those legal rights influencing through those believed and practiced traumas.

Tool 15 – Word Curses

Breaking word curses – replacing them with the corresponding good truth (Proverbs 18:21, James 3:9-10).

Sometimes people have spoken lies, curses, limitations, wrong doctrines of theology, and unbelief over us. And we have heard it and agreed with it, received it and acted on it. These words are like evil arrows sitting in us, poisoning our minds and lives. We have responded to those injustices in a childish, non-Christian, not mature way – and we still live from those false conclusions about life.

How do we treat this? We ask Holy Spirit to recall any curses, any lies spoken that the person is still influenced by today. As He brings those up, we ask Him to clarify anything that is important around it:

both the emotions, the words, the unspoken things that should have been said and done instead, and the actions. Then we ask Holy Spirit to reveal what actions the person took to mitigate, heal, and fix it that were not good. Then we – in Jesus' name break every lie and replace it with truth. We ask Holy Spirit to speak, reveal the true truth that God speaks – the blessings instead of the curses.

Repentance and renunciation of the lies need to be done, and demons can be attached here – and should then rightfully be confronted and cast out at this point.

Tool 16 – Own Fractured Soul Parts

Own fractured soul parts integrated (Psalm 23:3, 1 Thessalonians 5:23, Hebrews 4:12, James 1:5-8)

Children have the ability when exposed to trauma of various kinds to fracture or split their soul into fractured parts or completely separated personalities. This is like a safety mechanism given by Jesus to children to endure and live on despite severe boundary transgressing trauma.

These fractured soul-part children often contain hidden forgotten trauma events, that they can expose, and these little children have found childish unhealthy "solutions" to the lies and the trauma, that are not casting all cares on Jesus.

Jesus can heal the wounds. In prayer we ask the fractured or separated soul parts to come forward. And they just do if they are there… Some have names. Some just have images and identities. Some speak very clearly. Some not so much. These are not demons – and should be addressed gently as children.

We ask them gently if they will tell us what they contain of both trauma – and solutions.

Then we ask Jesus to come into the trauma and ask Him what He says to the trauma, what He says to the solutions and where He is in that terrible traumatic situation. Jesus is so faithful right there – to speak truth that sets free, to show His care, to show His perspective.

Then we ask the child to give their trauma and their childish "solutions" to Jesus and the main person to handle.

And when they say yes – we ask them to give it to Jesus. It's a dialogue. If unwilling, we ask Jesus to show them His grace, mercy, strength, and the cross where He took it all. Then they let go usually. We ask what is holding them back and ask Jesus what He says to that to help them let go.

Then we ask the fractured soul part child to go to Jesus.

If they are not willing, we ask Jesus to let them feel His love and peace. If they are still not willing, we ask Jesus to show them hell as opposed to His mercy and grace. Then they are always willing.

Then we ask Jesus to integrate that part of the person's soul into their main personality. And He just miraculously does. He sows them together to be one whole and healed soul, and the fractured child soul part is dissolved into the main personality.

After doing this, people feel whole and in charge of themselves at a completely new and healthy level. This is really a complete wholeness, a real healing and freedom from disturbing trauma, which is put on Jesus, and the resulting doublemindedness.

Then we can much easier deal with the demons hiding behind the legal rights of fears, trauma, and lies that were hidden in those fractured soul parts.

Tool 17 – Renouncing

Renouncing all legal rights generally (Daniel 9:1-19, James 4:7, 1 John 1:9, 2 Corinthians 10:4)

Generally confessing and renouncing sin on your own behalf and on behalf of all your ancestors praying prayers of humility, help, healing, and authority. Breaking generational curses and own sin. I have a long prayer of general renunciation at the end of this book.

Please go to Appendix 1 at the back of this book to find a full renunciation.

Tool 18 – Authority

The person themselves need to learn to use the perfect authority & power already completely given (Luke 10:19, Matthew 28:18)

We all must learn to correctly use the gift and language of authority that we literally ALL have in the name of Jesus over all demons. It's not for a few, but a necessary tool for us all – even just when we are tempted, and when we need to have demons cast out of us. What is the language of authority?

Clearly in a commanding tone and voice: "I command you, demon of lust / doubt / fear / anger / rejection / self-pity / accusation / depression / self-satisfaction / excuse-making – LEAVE ME! Up and out through my breath, now! And away from my presence."

Not: "God – will you remove this?" That's not the right tool for that job. The answer from God to "Will you remove this?" is: "Yes, this is how – I gave you the authority to do that. Use your given gift."

Not: "Dear demon, would you be as kind as to please please please leave me alone? PS I really mean it." They will answer: "Nah. You are not using persistent clear bold faith filled authority – which is your legal right to use! You don't understand your authority by faith alone, and you are not breaking our legal rights."

Many have experienced, during deliverance sessions, that when demons are confronted and commanded to leave – but are first commanded to tell what legal rights they have, if any – they say: "None! Why are you here, then? Nobody commanded me to go!!!!!"

Tool 19 – Bloodline Generational Curses

Generational bloodline curse breaking interrogation style strong man confrontational deliverance (Mark 3:27, Mark 5:1-20, Exodus 20:5, Galatians 3:13, Numbers 14:18)

This is one of the strongest tools of deliverance available. It is, interestingly, but understandably from the view of the enemy, also one of those least used and understood. Therefore, considerable space will be given to describe and understand this type of deliverance.

Practically as You Go Into Confrontation of the Demons

- As you go into prayers of inner healing and deliverance there might be tears, snot, mucous, vomit, so always have tissues and a plastic bag ready if that happens.

- If the session is on location, be gentle with people and be thoughtful about where you touch their body – if you touch them at all. Always ask for permission – and men never touch women other places than shoulder – or top of head, with clear permission.
- Be aware of if it is the person, who is “up” and present or a demon. If the person is present, use a loving voice.
- Understand that when someone has a strong manifestation it is an unusual experience for many people. It can cause confusion and sometimes fear. Help them understand what's happening and reassure them that they are ok.
- Shut down manifestations immediately by telling the demon to “go down now” during renunciations before the time of confrontation. Ask Abba Father, to have angels hold down and bind the demons from manifesting.
- Ensure you deal with people with a loving voice and care and with demons with sharp authority.
- Capacity is very important. Know when to stop. Don't go beyond what a person can handle.
- Instruct that when we command demons to speak, the person reports whatever comes to mind, also if it is a very weak voice.

Explanatory Background

Generations ago – down your ancestry bloodline – back centuries or millennia ago they literally sacrificed humans, children, animals and things to baal, moloch, anubis, shiva, lucifer, etc. They dedicated themselves and their bloodlines to those idols. They are false demon gods, but they still claim this legal right, that has not been specifically broken. Or they sinned greatly by murder, incest, necromancy, bestiality or other occult practices. Or they made blood covenants with other tribes, mixing blood. Or they were involved in Free Masonry and through the vows there they dedicated themselves to curses and demons. The demons, therefore, claim rightful legal access that was given them. Yes, those rights were broken by Jesus generally for all – but like with personal saving faith in Jesus, you must personally believe, receive it, and confess it and therefore, you must renounce each specific right given as well now as a representative of that bloodline that was dedicated!

Those demon false god idols are the “strong men” who must be bound (Luke 11:21-22). They rule various kingdoms in people. Kingdoms responsible for various kinds of destruction and plans with different access rights. Demons have military authority structures.

You can also, yourself, have given them access through your own sins. You also need to repent, turn away from them – into acting on holiness. Renounce them and remain in the love of the Father – which is enough (to be best friends with God, walking with Him always) – and the very meaning and purpose of life, the reason for your creation.

Practically This Is How I Do It

Make it clear to the recipient that when you speak to the demon, you speak with a firm and commanding voice – not to them. To them, we speak lovingly with care and understanding. And if some soul parts of children come up, it is even more with child-care in the voice. They should not make up anything and guess at something. There is no pressure on them. They should just report what they experience coming to them or let the demon come to speak, who wants to come forward and speak.

They do need to wholeheartedly agree that all trauma, all fractured soul parts, and all demons need to go, all sin needs to be exposed, and they must actively hate sin, and love Jesus.

Why do all this in this way with hierarchy, etc.? Because you then talk to the "chief" of a "kingdom", you now deal with the boss – not some underling store clerk distraction like a spirit of lust, or anger. So, you command with Jesus' authority over "the strong man", who is weakened and bound, as all legal rights are gradually broken, as the demons themselves expose those rights that they claim. Otherwise, the low-ranking sub-demons may leave, but you miss the overarching legal rights via blood curses in the lineage. They are not broken – and thus they come back more easily because the bloodline is still cursed, and the higher-rank still have legal access!

Could this not just be done through Holy Spirit guidance as well? Yes. And sometimes that happens. But I do think Jesus wants us to see the authority we have been given over all the power of the enemy – in action through us.

In essence you are interrogating the criminals (demons), who are also the witnesses of what happened in the past. You are binding these liars under oath to speak the truth before the throne and courtroom of Jehovah God to reveal their legal rights to be there.

How Do You Do This Effectively and Practically?

- You & the person together ask the Holy Spirit in agreement to expose the demons. Say something like: “I ask for Holy Spirit judgment fire over all demonic kingdoms present here. I ask the blood of Jesus to drench all demons present.”
- Speak sternly to the demon – while looking into the person’s eyes – commanding them to be exposed.
- Say: “I demand and command that whoever Jesus has chosen to be revealed, be revealed, now! Come forward and speak your name now.”
- If the demons are taking their time, or showing signs of being there, but being defiant, ask: “Jesus, I ask you to judge them for their delay and defiance and I command that they now receive the judgement due to them.” If they’re there they will receive it. They will get weaker & weaker and finally give in.
- Then they will eventually speak into the person’s mind, or out their mouth.

Judgment Over the Enemy’s Kingdom

A First Prayer Can Also Look Like This

“I now bring Jesus' fire and judgment over all demons and demonic kingdoms present in ”person's name”. Judgment fire from Jesus – fall now. Jesus' blood and Word of Truth – come and expose spirits of lies, death, shame, guilt, deception, and curses. I command all spirits of lilith, queen of heaven, lucifer, apollyon, abaddon, and Jupiter to come forward for judgment now!”

Throughout The Following

Expect them to be stubborn and lie – but that you in Jesus' name, with faith, perseverance, and insight, together with a willing recipient, have been given all power and authority over the entire enemy's strength.

To make them weak and compliant, when they resist or say irrelevant things you have not commanded them to say, you can continuously, when necessary, say:

- "Jesus' blood in your mouth."
- "Jesus' judgment, fire, and destruction over your entire kingdom."
- "I ask you Father, to send mighty angels of God to come and help us. And to pierce this demon with your fire-swords dipped in Jesus' blood and hold them down until I say so."

You as a prayer leader, remember: This is a cross-examination, a criminal interrogation – not an interesting conversation about strange dubious information from demons, who are liars, distractors, and deceivers by nature.

Holy Spirit Selects the First

"I now ask you, Holy Spirit, to select the demon for judgment that you want to bring forward. In Jesus' name, you who are selected by the Holy Spirit for judgment, come up and forward for judgment now. What is your name?"

To know the kingdoms, levels, types, and strong-men, you will probably encounter, please see Appendix 2 at the end of this book.

Keep pressing, punishing, commanding until something happens. It can take a few minutes. Anoint them, if necessary (virtually also), with holy oil – holy for the Lord Jesus Christ. If nothing really comes forward, then test different names from the Excel sheet linked here and see if there is a reaction. Have them renounce the individual demon and then command it to come forward if it is there.

Command the demons to expose their name, rank, and legal right – whether generational bloodline curses or personal. Go up the rank to the top one attached to that "kingdom". Then command them to give the legal rights. Then have the person confess and renounce those on behalf of their ancestors. Then command the top demons in each kingdom to leave with their entire kingdom under them attached to them as they go out together.

Move Up In Rank To Ensure You Are Not Dealing With An Unimportant Low-Ranking Demon

Command: "Are you the highest-ranking in the kingdom you are part of? YES or NO?"

If yes – test it, if you are in doubt about whether they are lying. Ask: "Does it stand as true before Jesus Christ?" Command: "Look Jesus Christ in the eyes now and tell the truth. Are you the highest? YES or NO?" Use commands of torture and "Blood of Jesus in your mouth" to drive them to obedience.

If it stands firm and is true – go to the next point. If no. Then command: "Who is above you? Name now!"

When You Have the Highest-Ranking in the Given Kingdom

(e.g., kingdom of fear or e.g., lucifer / lilith – or lower-ranking – can be very different)

- "Do you have legal rights to be there? YES or NO?"
- Answer: "No" (some are literally there but actually have no rights!!) Go to casting them out below.
- Answer: "YES". "What legal rights do you have to be there?"

3 Types of Legal Rights

1. Own sins – unwillingness to turn from lies / sin/demons' help.

Two types of generational curses – all the way back to Adam and Eve.

2. Passion: Murder, major injustices.
3. Curse – typically: Offerings with blood, spells.

The top demon tells what sins = legal rights it has and its entire kingdom under it has. Especially important also: Command it: “What is your overarching curse? There can be more than one. When did you first enter this bloodline?”

You only need 3 pieces of information about each legal right when doing generational curse breaking deliverance:

- What is the legal right?
- How many generations ago did it happen?
- Father's or mother's side of the family?

If it is their own sin, you just need to ask what it is.

Regarding personal repentance: Help the person decide to get the help they need from Jesus – not a deceiving, evil, lying demon from hell. Here there is free choice. “What Jesus has is infinitely better than anything an evil liar, demon, has for you. Do you want everything Jesus has for you?”

Continue and continue pressing and getting information, until the demon clearly says “NO” to your command: “Are there more legal rights that need to be broken before you, with your entire kingdom bound to you, come out when I command it?”

Repentance and Renunciation = Break Legal Rights

Go through the entire list of what the top demon in the kingdom has revealed during the interrogation. Ask the recipient of the prayer to say the following:

“In the name of Jesus, and on behalf of myself and my family's bloodline, I renounce the following sins, injustices, and transgressions of God's loving law and cover them under the blood of Jesus:”

For example: “I renounce idolatry of moloch. On my mother's side 35 generations ago. I renounce the sacrifice of children for the attainment of wealth and influence to moloch. I cover myself and my bloodline with Jesus' blood, which annuls all the curses, dedications, and contracts – in Jesus' name!” Etc. for each curse discovered during the interrogation.

Exorcism per Kingdom With the Strongest at the Top

When the demon itself has said that all legal rights in the person and in the bloodline and other curses are broken (or there are none), do the following.

Command the demon itself to say this in Jesus' name after you: “I, ”top of kingdom hierarchy demon name”, with my entire kingdom bound to me, renounce all accesses, rights, and curses to this woman / man of God. I ”top of kingdom hierarchy demon name”, with my entire kingdom bound to me, now leave this woman / man of God, and go to the abyss.”

If the demon is not clearly present in the person. Ask the person to repeat after you: “We now command you, ”e.g., lucifer”, to repeat after us in Jesus' name:” “I, ”Name of demon”, with my entire kingdom bound to me, renounce all accesses, rights, and curses to this God's ”woman / man”. I ”top of kingdom hierarchy demon name”, with my entire kingdom bound to me, now leave this God's woman / man, to the abyss.”

Then you start commanding the demon – with its entire kingdom under it – to leave. Examples of commands:

“”lucifer” – you have said it yourself – all legal rights for you and your kingdom are broken. Therefore, when I command it, you must leave. So, GO! Up and out with the breath now! In Jesus Christ's name. Up and out now! I drive you and your entire kingdom out now! Go! Fire from Heaven burn you out. Dad, I ask that mighty warrior angels come and help pull every single demon in this kingdom out now. Mighty Holy Spirit of God, burn out any stubborn demon that has lost legal rights now. In Jesus' name – out! All under lucifer – to the abyss now.”

Ask the person if they have a physical experience that the demon has left. They can feel a clear sensation that something has come out of them and away and they are now at peace. Regardless of the feelings, check by commanding the demon by name and function to come forward and say “yes” if it is still in the person.

Maybe it is still there and has lied and not revealed all the legal rights it claims to have. Maybe it’s just resistant and needs more torment. If it admits to having more real legal rights, then it's on to more legal rights – because they must leave when commanded when all legal rights are confessed, renounced, repented from and put under the cleansing blood of Jesus Christ.

Maybe a foreign soul part or a separate personality from the person themselves, presents itself and is blocking the deliverance. Then move to that section below and deal with that.

Whenever there is a clear sensation and it has been checked – that demons have left:

Fill With the Holy Spirit's Peace, Healing, Truth, Adoption, Presence, Love

Pray for them to be filled with the Holy Spirit's peace, love, joy, and righteousness (Romans 5:5, Romans 14:17-18). If they do not speak in new tongues and are not baptized in the Holy Spirit in that way – then pray for them for that fullness. Ask the Holy Spirit to fill them with wisdom and give them a thirst for more of God, God's Word, etc. Lead them into healthy following of Jesus Christ – now that they are in Jesus. Help them live out everything that Jesus is in them and what they are in Jesus . See the section on following up below. Also book another session to check up and see to see if more layers have surfaced below those that are dealt with now. The goal is complete adopted identity as the favored wholeheartedly beloved son of God, and the freedom in the soul, heart, mind, and body that results from resting there and using all tools to establish the Kingdom of God inside of us (Mark 1:15, Luke 17:20-21).

Tool 20 – Foreign Soul Parts

Freedom From The Influence And Attachment Of Foreign Soul Parts (Astral Projection: Ecclesiastes 12:6-7 . Possible positive version: 1 Samuel 18:1. Not super strong Scriptural evidence: Ezekiel 13:18-20)

During the above interrogation, foreign soul parts sometimes "pop up" – or the breakthrough is hard to get. Ask Holy Spirit to reveal any, and ask Him to bring them forward. Ask directly before Jesus Christ if they are demons or foreign soul parts – or even fractured or split soul parts.

This is, admittedly, not something clearly seen in Scripture. It is seen and believed in other religions, and experienced through rituals made in the occult, the new age, tribes, and satanic rituals and abuse, hypnosis therapy, and extreme overlording / psychological abuse. Many who work with inner healing and deliverance who do not know how this works, ascribe them simply to being deceiving demons – but the problem then comes that they do not respond as demons must, to pure commands in Jesus' name. Demons are, when pressed, ready to admit to truths. These are different, respond differently, as humans. They respond as foreign soul parts – either of dead or living people. And when treated as such – they end up doing what we want. They leave.

Foreign soul parts attached to the soul and body of a presently living person are a reality we sometimes encounter in inner healing and deliverance. They are clearly not demons for they do not respond to the same commands in Jesus' name as demons or speak as demons. We experience that they are soul parts of dead or living people. Yes, this phenomenon is hard to find and see in the Bible, but it is a reality that must be dealt with rightly to overcome them and get them removed as well as to get access to the stubborn demons hiding behind them.

When we ask foreign soul parts to come forward, they do. If they are unwilling to comply, we ask Jesus to show them his mercy. If that is not enough, we ask Him to show them hell. Then they usually choose mercy and compliance. We ask them for:

- Name?
- Age?
- What are you doing here?
- We ask what has made them attached. We break that curse or ritual (Occult / Free Masonry usually) under the blood of Jesus, in the name of Jesus. The person renounces it.
- We then tell them to now leave this person and release control.
- And we tell them to: "Go to Jesus for Him to deal with you." And when willing, they go to Jesus, and we ask Jesus to take them where He wants to take them. We do not know what that is.

Then we can deal with the demons hiding behind that foreign soul part.

Tool 21 – Healing of the Human Spirit

Humans are body, soul, and spirit. According to Scripture, our human spirit can be crushed, broken, wounded, but God can and will heal it. We need to strengthen our inner man, praying in the Spirit (Psalm 34:18, Psalm 147:3, Proverbs 17:22, Isaiah 57:15, Ezekiel 11:19, Psalm 51:10, Romans 12:2, 2 Corinthians 4:16, 2 Timothy 1:7, John 14:27, Isaiah 61:3, Ephesians 3:16, Jude 1:20).

Practically, pray prayers like this over the people you are ministering to: "Holy Spirit come, fill and touch them. Holy Spirit and angels, bring fruit from the tree of life to heal, bring living water, wash their spirit with the blood of Jesus and restore to them honor and safety. Heal and restore their spirit man. If their spirit man is hiding and in captivity, I ask angels of God to bring them safely here." Ask the person if they see or sense anything happening.

Tool 22 – New Learning and Tools

There is always more to learn. If we stop growing and increasing, we essentially go backwards. So, let's be very hungry and thirsty for more. There are further depths, deeper and better understanding – and from that – better and sharper tools and practices (Proverbs 1:5, Proverbs 9:9, Hosea 6:4, Matthew 5:6, 2 Peter 3:18, John 7:37).

In the world of this tool, you will find things like learning to cut connections to ley-lines, and power sources like praying covens, power sources of the earth, under the earth, the air, and the waters. It could be learning to be dealing with guardians, demons on thrones, councils, and false trees to uproot. It could be dealing with legal rights of greys, nephilim, gathering soul parts and human spirit parts from hiding, trading, and captivity and more. The tools listed here are already quite advanced – especially tool 16, 19, 20, and 21 – and I estimate they can deal with 98% of your cases. So, learn your bread and butter skills first.

This area does not negate all the other tools here, but come later. Rather, these are for a later advanced inner healing and deliverance manual and course. It just means that you and I are not closed books. Neither are you. Sometimes you get stuck in doing this. The situation of some people doesn't seem to shift. Then, maybe, deeper things need to be done in some of the tools listed here – or you need to grow more in understanding of other specialist tools. This is particularly true when it comes to SRA, MK Ultra Programming, deep occultism, advanced Free Masonry curses, deeply satanic bloodlines, etc. So, keep learning, but first, practice and help others practice what are absolute foundations of intimate prayer, meditating on the truths of the Bible, hearing from Heaven, repentance from lies to truth in action, Bible reading and doing, close healthy church fellowship, obedience to all Jesus commanded, etc.

Tool 23 – Obedient Discipleship

Fullness of all fullnesses in Christ: Lifelong Obedient Discipleship Journey In Close Fellowship With Other Good Believers (Colossians 2:6-15, John 15:1-17, Matthew 28:19-20)

Fellowship with Abba Father over and above any other practice in life, for it is the very meaning and purpose of life (Matthew 6:5-15). Learn to do your own fullness of truth Bible studies. Learn to fast before Abba Father alone (Matthew 6:16-18). Learn to operate within prayer always (Ephesians 6:18). Practice your calling practically (John 5:19)– not being idle wasting time (2 Samuel 11:1). Practical obedience to all commands of Jesus – including radically and sacrificially giving time, treasure, and talent, working hard by grace alone (1 Corinthians 15:10) to make an eternal difference, bearing much eternal fruit to the glory and joy of Jesus and you (John 15:8-11). Obeying all Jesus commanded His disciples – including Matthew 10 and Luke 10 – doing it all on one foundation only: Already being the fully loved maturing son of Abba, Dad.

Stories of Inner Healing and Deliverance

A word before the stories: testimonies prove nothing on their own – Scripture alone carries that weight. These accounts simply illustrate, in living color, what the Bible has already established. Test everything and hold on to the good (1 Thessalonians 5:21).

Listen to my 5-hour full story here: ActionChristianity.com/MyStory

My story of …

- deep true wholehearted repentance from believing lies to truth,
- inner healing of wounds and disappointments leading to accusations against the wholehearted goodness of Abba Father,
- correction of key theology from "colder facts" "God is love, and I am the righteousness of God in Christ", to first saying "Abba Father and I are best friends no matter my level of hurt, pain, grief, loss, and suffering." In fact, I have now learnt to use suffering to run even deeper into the love of my Abba Father and remain there, for His love is based on the cross, and so my identity is based only on the love of Abba Father, Jesus, and Holy Spirit proven forever on the cross,
- recognition and honesty of understanding and truly honoring emotions, then dealing with them correctly under truth alone,
- proactively choosing to agree with my true identity in the eyes of Abba by the blood alone in spite of circumstances and feelings and emotions,
- deliverance from demons enforcing those strongholds of lies, and then now
- trying to help others get into that same kind of freedom and training others to train others, who train others etc.

… is weaved into the fabric of this entire book. It is my story to His glory. I have been free for years now from feeling mysteriously bound to watch porn and self-satisfy. I am free from rejection causing counter rejection and retaliation out of the pain of injustice against God and people. I am now remaining in the perfect loving satisfaction of God with me through faith in the blood of Jesus alone and I act on it by spending real quality time intimately in friendship with Abba Father no matter if I "feel it" or not. The more I do so, though, I also often "feel it". That sweet peace and warmth of Holy Spirit presence in me and with me is wonderful. On this foundation alone, I live a radically obedient, surrendered, give-my-all life – just like Jesus did for me first.

How do I know and how did I discover that I was now free from demons and the strongholds giving them legal rights? I was watching TV, and due to negative circumstances and feelings, and then the trigger of someone of the opposite gender not wearing enough clothes, I knew I was stuck in a well-known "go self-satisfy mode". Previously I would say no, but it wouldn't work. I would go do it. Now I simply inside myself again said no. And suddenly I could feel, experience, discover, that my simple "no" – worked! The chains resisting the "no" – were gone and the "no" stood its ground – and I was free to be free to not follow the line of emotions, "non-thinking", and sinful action of lust and self-satisfaction. And I chose to rejoice and enjoy Abba Father's satisfaction – and it was not a struggle I lost anyway! I won, in Christ, by repentance to Dad's goodness, by identity as beloved son, by having taken authority! Since then – I have been free to be free. That happened in 2020 – after not being able to be truly free for 17 years! Thank you, Jesus!!

I now bear much more fruit than ever before to the glory of my Abba Father. Setting people free, healing the sick, leading people to faith, weekly acting on Matthew 10 and Luke 10 – and I did so even when I had a full-time job as an IT sales professional.

A Story Among Several of My Own Dear Wife, Mona Skov

Mona and many around us found it hard to follow and join in on my internal transformative journey from 2020 and the following years. Mona did not watch porn or feel rejected by God. Was there even a problem? But then, one day, probably a divine setup happened…

She explained to me how all the following was happening at the same time in her mind and life:

- She had lost our wedding ring due to a not so clever mistake. And she was in severe pain in her chest due to looking for it in a deep trash-bin – which constantly reminded her of her mistake and loss.
- Our daughter, Elisabeth, had confronted her on gossiping about her colleagues, and she was right.
- A day with our daughters and little baby grandson had not gone well with crying and other disturbances.
- Mona had asked me to park the car right, and I had not done so, so we got a parking fine.

All these events made her very upset and frustrated about her expectations not being fulfilled. And this was also a recurring theme of conflict in her life and our marriage.

This all culminated the day after, a Saturday, when I asked Mona if we could pray together – and she wanted to but JUST … COULD … NOT … DO IT! But she knew it was right and good.

What was wrong she asked?

Then a breakthrough for Mona happened in the space of inner healing and deliverance. Now she is married to someone who is learning to lead people to inner healing and deliverance.

I said: Do you know that what you are doing is to grumble and complain – and that is a sin? That hadn't occurred to her before.

I then simply asked if we could ask Holy Spirit to show her where this frustration came from. Suddenly she remembered an episode, a root door, from her past, where she had planned everything perfectly, and was really misunderstood and mistreated. She was around 10 and had planned a perfect playdate with her friend. But unfortunately, her mom did not think this was a good idea and instead scolded her for it. Mona was devastated, frustrated, cried! Today Mona realizes it was tough for her mom working night shifts with 5 kids and many headaches – but back then it was such a disappointment – a destruction of beautiful plans and expectations.

I then asked Holy Spirit to show what Jesus thought of the situation. He said: "You were innocent. It was a good thing. You should not have been scolded." Mona broke down. This exposed the root of why Mona, throughout her life, had reacted with frustration and anger far above the appropriate level whenever what she expected, hoped, and planned did not happen! Now she knew where it came from and why.

But God was not done healing her. Then she felt a deep stomach pain – and she remembered this stomach pain from her childhood when she was not together with her mom and had to be picked up early from church kids camps. She had an unhealthy symbiosis with her mom. She had become her mom's best friend and confidant as a child, not a good and appropriate thing. Suddenly Mona puked – many times! And the pain left!

We were blown away. 2 major unplanned, but planned by God, inner healings in one day. It was clearly a God-setup.

We are so thankful to Jesus Christ for His love, care, and attention to help us into more freedom. These 2 things in Mona were disturbing our marriage for 26 years!! Just like my issues broke parts of our marriage!! We loved each other and stayed together in spite of us – due to the grace of God and strong commitments to Him, and each other. But how important is it that we take this seriously and let God do deep soul, spirit, body operations on us!!

½ year after Mona also found out she was inviting and befriending self-doubt and failure – because she thought that was the right way to ensure she did a good job. Now she is shifting to another motivator: Love for God, herself, and people – as seen in Jesus Christ. Such an important switch.

We are both still in an ever-deeper process… but are also truly doing so much better than we used to. For freedom – Christ HAS set us free. And we are now more free than ever. We are our Abba Father's honored, valued, deeply wholeheartedly, favorite, beloved son / daughter and His very best friend!

That's His choice toward us – and that is our choice to receive and give back to Him – through the cross, the blood, and the suffering of Jesus for us.

The Amazing Story of Shokofeh

This is one of the wildest stories of inner healing and deliverance, my wife and I have experienced. Very few deliverances are like this. Most of them are super quiet with maybe some yawning, burps, a bit of pain, and a release of weight with joy and peace.

Here we went through several rounds of prayer. Her ancestral heritage is from Iran (Persia), and she has a background with muslim tendencies. She was so beautifully desperate for freedom, so ferocious and passionate, so open, and such a warrior – and still is. She had involved herself with deep occultism, practiced kundalini meditation, and endured bad relationships. She was diagnosed with borderline, ADHD, and bipolar (the last she feels was a misdiagnosis). In church services she would sometimes manifest with loud cries. But very few knew and understood what it really was. Therefore, many both inside and outside church believed it was just psychological challenges. She had undergone therapy in the psychiatry system on and off. One time she went to the acute psychiatric ward because of severe stress-induced depression, as she was suicidal.

She was then brought to me in my house by the church leadership and we started praying.

As we started praying, we had demons like moloch (of child murder), and hell (very intense destruction and fear) manifest and come out. There was puke and loud screaming. At one point she tried to get out the window and jump down 2 stories to commit suicide due to a spirit of death and suicide coming up. The demons in her cried out loudly for lucifer to come and save her.

This all led to many times of prayer and ended with her also getting free from a false primary presenting identity created to be strong and cope with bullying and family trauma.

This has been a deep re-routing of and foundation of her identity and beautiful freedom in Christ Jesus. She is now free from medication, trauma, demons, fractured soul parts – and even some physical sicknesses. And currently (2025) she is in the Bible School, Acts Academy, in Denmark – and loving it.

The freedom is so evident in this fierce beloved warrior bride of Abba Father God. The best is yet to come – and world, watch out, as she blossoms to the fullness of her created purpose – in Christ, through co-suffering within the peace, love, and strength of Christ, through trials – and victories.

A Story From Kristian Molbo, Professional Therapist

Kristian was troubled by transgenerational curses, but he wasn't aware of it himself. He had a sense of being "cursed," as he put it, but he mostly used the word metaphorically. He had never been able to make a romantic relationship work without a lot of conflicts, and sometimes the relationships ended in quite painful ways. Infidelity and other unhealthy connections with women were recurring and naturally contributed to conflicts and pain. With all this in his past, he eventually concluded that he probably couldn't be with anyone and instead lived a life with changing and non-committal partners.

He used women. He might as well, as he said. Otherwise, they would use him. He also held a fundamental belief that women were not to be trusted.

Although Kristian is a Christian, he didn't believe that demons were a reality that concerns most Christians, including himself. He thought they exist but that they affected people who actively invite them in. In his understanding, being a Christian makes one automatically immune to being demonized. In his view, demonic influences were rare.

Kristian could tell that there was a history on his mother's side of the family involving infidelity, rape, alcoholism, violence against women, and violence and neglect of children. As far as he knew, it went back to his great-grandmother and had affected the generations after her. His own upbringing was marked by a negative view of male sexuality in particular, but his own parents' relationship was not marked by infidelity or partner violence.

Nevertheless, Kristian ends up sitting with me, Peter Skov, and feels an urge to ask for deliverance. The moment Jesus' name was invoked over the supposed demon, it manifested. It made him writhe. Made him curse at me and curse at Jesus. The demon was commanded to tell where it had entered his bloodline, and many generations back, it explained that it had entered through blood dedications to demons and through the rape of women and children.

The demon calls itself Azalok, and Kristian can also describe what it looks like. Human-like, almost black, with black eyes, thin legs, and disproportionately long arms with long fingers, pointed ears, and bald. It stands about knee-high to an adult man.

It is necessary for Kristian to receive a total of three deliverances, and in the meantime, he works on uncovering the lies the demon has manipulated him into believing and instead replacing them with truths. The more lies he rejects, the weaker the demon's hold on him becomes. But the demon does not give up without a fight. After the deliverances, Kristian is attacked by repeated severe anxiety attacks and confused states where it is difficult to think clearly and where true values and the Christian message are questioned. Kristian learns to use Jesus in the process, and the demon's attacks are subdued every time he commands it to leave in Jesus' name. But the battle is a combination of deliverance, rejection of demonic lies, replacement with truths, and a personal choice to protect and maintain his own integrity.

During the process and after the second deliverance, the demon speaks to him and tries to make a deal with him. It says, "I can make all the discomfort stop if you stop the deliverances. And then I will give you what you desire most." Kristian rejects it outright. He has experienced the pure evil Azalok has practiced in his life. At the beginning of the process, he finds that he can talk to it and asks why it has subjected him to things that have been so painful. Its answer is honest. And purely evil: "Because I find it amusing to see you suffer. Because I find it amusing to see women suffer. And because I find it amusing to see you make women suffer." At that moment, it becomes clear to him that it has nothing good to offer. That it in no way thinks of him but sees him and other people solely as entertainment and is entertained by human suffering.

Kristian also sees that the demon has given him certain powers to manipulate women and to have a heightened sense for them. A sixth sense he has sometimes been able to impress women with, making them feel seen and causing them to fall for him. The demon has also taken hold of his sense of desire. It gives him the feeling that he can only feel desire if he has it with him. That he is only sexually functional if he has it with him. This is, of course, also a lie. And the price for these abilities, which are used quite ruthlessly, is pain and suffering for himself and others.

At the third deliverance, Azalok lets go. But not without a fight. It feels like Velcro being ripped off inside the body. A violent coughing fit marks that the demon is on its way out, and shortly after, a calm falls over him. The demon is out.

A new reality then emerges for Kristian. Suddenly, he becomes able to engage in a committed, mutual, trusting, and loving relationship with a woman, with a desire that no longer extends to all sorts of women but is kept within the relationship with this one woman.

At the same time, his Christian reality and faith have been strengthened. He has experienced how the cross has helped him understand that all the wrongs he has committed against women are forgiven, forgiven the moment he committed them. He doesn't need to feel guilt or shame over them. He only owes it to himself to learn from them and stop doing it again. That is what repentance and conversion mean. He has also seen firsthand how Jesus, more powerfully than anyone else, has driven the demon away and cleansed him by being a model for a true way of life.

A Story From Joakim Sundbom, Health Care Worker

I became a Christian at the age of 15 and was dedicated to serving God, despite facing intense personal struggles with addiction to pornography and masturbation, along with unwanted same-sex attraction. By age 23, the internal conflict and feeling of hypocrisy became overwhelming. The conventional advice I received from mature Christians, such as being told to "just fast and pray," coupled with their judgment toward others who 'fell away' or struggled with addictions – suggesting their salvation wasn't genuine – led me to internalize the destructive lie that I was too broken for God to use or love. With a broken heart, I left the church.

Over the years, attempts to return were unsuccessful, as I could not escape cycles of sinful habits. I often felt the church was focused on "normal" people, acting more as a social club with shared moral rules, lacking God's presence or real power and faith.

A significant positive change began about three years ago when I started a carnivore diet. This change dramatically reduced inflammation, high blood pressure, and high blood sugar, completely eliminated severe allergies, and resulted in a weight loss of over 25 kg. This dietary shift seemed to sharpen my spiritual awareness, making typical entertainment feel meaningless.

Roughly a year and a half ago, the futility of my existence became overwhelming. Despite appearing fine externally, I was consumed by internal anxiety and agony. Every distraction faded until an intense inner alarm seemed to cry out, "Repent! The time is short!"

In my distress, I simply asked God for "help." In that moment, I was immediately and completely delivered from the addiction to pornography and masturbation. This realization that an oppressive influence had lifted shattered the lie that I was beyond repair, prompting me to thank God profusely. For the first time in my Christian life, I could successfully resist temptation in that area. A week later, I asked God to help me stop smoking and was instantly delivered from that addiction as well. I successfully resisted two subsequent attempts by a demonic entity to tempt me back to smoking, and the temptation has not returned.

These miracles initiated weeks of intense repentance, leading me to research deliverance. Since I knew of no one practicing deliverance in Sweden, I found resources on self-deliverance, specifically Bev Tucker's manual. After working through the manual and casting out everything listed, I noticed a profound quietness in my head; my ADHD symptoms vanished. What felt like 20 instruments constantly playing simultaneously in my mind was suddenly silent.

Following this, I dedicated several hours a day to praying in tongues, listening to sermons, and meditating on Scriptures about God's grace, redemption, and forgiveness through Jesus' blood. Despite constant accusations from the enemy, I persisted in pursuing full freedom and healing in Christ. My shattered spirit was slowly pieced back together by the Word and the Holy Spirit. I joined a local church, but regrettably, some sermons only fueled doubt and unbelief, which I had to actively rebuke afterward.

I then booked a session with Peter Skov, whom I found on Isaiah Saldivar's deliverance map. During this session, I was delivered from generational curses and associated demonic influences, which broke the stronghold of unwanted same-sex attraction.

My hope and desire to serve God have been powerfully reawakened. I have rededicated my life to Him, and the gifts of the Spirit have begun to flow. I now cast out demons, lay hands on the sick, and witness God's power working. For the first time since my conversion, I can truly walk in the Spirit, bear the fruits of the Spirit, put the flesh under, and live holy.

Throughout this process, I constantly held onto two core prayers:

- Help me love what you love, God, and hate what you hate.
- I am not going anywhere! I want what is real, and I want You, God!

The more I witness the goodness of God, the deeper my repentance becomes. The more I love Him, the more alive I feel. I am now resting in the Father's love and beholding Him in Jesus and the cross, instead of focusing on my own flesh and brokenness. My faith is in Him, not faith in my own faith. Furthermore, when I now encounter a demon or unclean spirit, I engage it with ferocity and with the intent to utterly destroy it. God is my hope and my strength.

How Do We Effectively Follow Up on Those Needing Deliverance?

After getting deliverance, people have now taken new land that used to be influenced by trauma, the enemy, and lies of orphanhood. This land needs to be filled with truth, love, life, wholeness, and most of all, the intimate, proactively chosen, already-given-from-God friendship with Abba Father God, Holy Spirit fellowship, and brother Jesus – our very Best Friends Forever. Here is how:

Practically This Could Involve Establishing This Plan

- Share Their Story. Encourage them to share what good God did in their lives based on the blood of Jesus first – and so as to not hide in shame and encourage others – while they keep growing, seeking, asking, knocking going for more freedom in Holy Spirit.
    - Mark 5:18-19 - As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-influenced begged to go with him. 19 Jesus did not let him, but said, "Go home to your own people and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you."
    - Revelation 12:11 - They (the believers) triumphed over him (the accuser) by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony; they did not love their lives so much as to shrink from death.
- Stop Sinning – Start Obeying. Warn them to not return to believing the lies and doing the sins that opened them to the demon influence in the first place – that nothing worse should happen to them. Instead help them replace those sins with the corresponding truth in action from the Word of God.
    - Matthew 12:45 - Then the demon goes and takes with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they go in and live there. And the final condition of that person is worse than the first. That is how it will be with this wicked generation."
    - John 5:14 - Later Jesus found him at the temple and said to him, "See, you are well again. Stop sinning or something worse may happen to you."
- Intimate Friendship Directly With Our Wholeheartedly Loving Abba Father. Ensure a daily schedule is established where the person often spends time hanging out one on one with Abba Father, Jesus, Holy Spirit. Help them to literally continually agree inside: “Abba Father, you love me, I am your beloved child, and you are fully satisfied with me.”
    - Luke 5:16 - But Jesus often withdrew to lonely places and prayed.
    - Matthew 6:5-8 - 5 "And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the street corners to be seen by others. Truly I tell you, they have received their reward in full. 6 But when you pray, go into your room, close the door and pray to your Father, who is unseen. Then your Father, who sees what is done in secret, will reward you. 7 And when you pray, do not keep on babbling like pagans, for they think they will be heard because of their many words. 8 Do not be like them, for your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

- Proactive Self-Feeding And Deep Complete Self-Repenting And Resisting The Enemy. Agree with the recipient that they self-help themselves by feeding themselves healthy spiritual food getting rid of bad food. This involves Bible reading, book reading, listening to sermons, continually thinking of the friendship of God in every "now" in their lives, healthy Christian fellowship etc.
    - Mark 1:15 - "The time has come," he said. "The kingdom of God has come near. Repent (think differently = correctly) and believe the good news (message)!"
    - Meaning, stop believing the bad message – that there is a bad message between you and Dad. There is a good message: You are already deeply loved, fully reconciled, best friends with Abba Father through the blood of Jesus.
- Healthy Local Fellowship Serving. Help them get connected with people who practice the fullness of obedience to the discipleship Jesus practiced and practiced with His disciples. This includes multiplication.
    - Matthew 28:19-20 - 19 Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, 20 and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."
- Fullness Of Obedient Discipleship. Help define true discipleship that includes being obedient to all the commands of Jesus.
    - 1 Corinthians 11:1 - Follow my example, as I follow the example of Christ.
- Only follow people as they are following and doing something Jesus did. When they don't – don't. If they are omitting, deleting, subtracting from what Jesus did and commanded – do not follow that.
    - Go to my YouTube channel, youtube.com/@ActionChristianity, and listen and study through my course on Normal Discipleship (44 sessions) – and let yourself be completely transformed in heart, thought, action, habits, priorities and lifestyle.
- Consistent Healthy Bible Study. Help them to stand on and apply truth themselves by reading and studying the Bible for themselves in a healthy way.
    - Acts 17:11 - Now the Berean Jews were of more noble character than those in Thessalonica, for they received the message with great eagerness and examined the Scriptures every day to see if what Paul said was true.
- Holy Spirit Filling and Re-Filling. Ensure they are filled with Holy Spirit – and speak in tongues – and are growing into the understanding and passionate flaming fire for seeing all supernatural gifts flourish.
    - 1 Corinthians 14:5 -I would like every one of you to speak in tongues.
- Ministry of Prophetic Words. Help them get prophetic words and begin to step into the fullness of their calling.
    - Acts 19:5-6 - 5 On hearing this, they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus. 6 When Paul placed his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke in tongues and prophesied.
- Live Out The Full Call of God. Many waste enormous amounts of time doing meaningless things or sinning, scrolling, fantasizing, focusing on emptiness, based on hurt, self-pity, and are bound to self-satisfaction. King David stopped "going to war", as he should – and wasted his time in purposeless boredom. Then he had time to sin. Read the whole sad story here: 2 Samuel 11:1-27.

Which war should we fight? The one not against flesh and blood, but against demons (Ephesians 6:12). The laborers in the harvest will always be few (Matthew 9:37-10:1) – so be one! Now replace that and radically be practicing and obeying our Dad-given tasks and purpose – first, as completely beloved sons with clear rights-based maturity, in spite of all feelings, suffering, pain, injustice, hurt, grief, loneliness, sickness, misunderstanding and opposition. Just like Jesus did and thereby showed you how.

How to Get Started Doing Inner Healing and Deliverance?

Vision

You could actually do this absolutely for free for people. And by also letting them know that if they want to give, and have money, that is right and honoring – and that you live by doing this – then they are welcome to support you. Then you, like I do, could live from doing this! To repent and get help with inner healing and deliverance can never be withheld from anyone because they don't have money. We need billions to be trained to do this, and I mean that number – and I will go for this to happen!

Enough "Customers" Getting Enough "Income"?

I can guarantee you that you can live from this. I have so many people coming to me for help that I cannot help them all and I am happy to send them all your way! Let's connect and go in the needed journey for you to get there. Write to discipleship@actionchristianity.com if you want to connect, get trained and equipped to even end up living by doing this or you simply want to do this whenever needed.

Practically These Are the Steps I Encourage You to Take

- Spend Time One On One With Dad Often: This is the most awesome precious time of all. It is the meaning of life, the purpose of life, the reason we exist – to walk in intimate friendship with Dad and ruling and reigning, being fruitful and multiplying in life with Him and with each other.
- See This And Discipleship In General As A Full-Blown Education: An education as a disciple – how Jesus trained His 12 and 70 – was over a 3½-year period of self-application, theology, theories, tools, and practical application – and trial and error. Inner healing lives in the intersection of theology, spirit living, identity, psychology, demonology, authority, courage, humility, and hands on demonstration, apprenticeship, including lots of trial and error. It also yields great fruit and rewards. I have made courses available under Action Christianity
- Start Your Own Healthy Deep Complete Proactive Repentance, Inner Healing, And Deliverance Journey: Seek to get a series of well accredited and trusted, accountable ministers within inner healing and deliverance to pray for you and work with you. The best way to learn each of these disciplines and give them to others is to first apply each of them to yourself fully. This can be done by setting up your own session of repentance, healing, and freedom – with me and my team and others like us – and by attentively, humbly, and proactively listening through my "Guided Repentance, Inner Healing, and Deliverance Series" here on:
    - ActionChristianity.com/GuidedInnerHealingAndDeliverance
- Commit Real Time: Listen through these "Directors Cut" Repentance, Inner Healing, and Deliverance Sessions" where we talk through what happens – as it happens – with the person actually being there afterwards to tell how it felt, what happened inside, and where they are at now. Set aside at least one evening a week to learn practically how others are doing deliverance. Sit in on the live sessions of others getting set free. This can be done online and onsite if possible. Online works just as well as onsite.

- Start Simple And Easy: Help people through things like: Forgiveness, severing soul ties, general confession and renouncing, making Jesus absolute Lord and King, filling people with Holy Spirit – speaking in tongues, leading people to faith in Jesus, helping people understand identity. Helping people establish routines of intimate fellowship with Abba Father. And take authority over lower-level demons of lust, impurity, anger, rejection, accusation, bitterness, loneliness, self-hate, self-sabotage etc. Start with the simpler tools – and move on to the more advanced tools progressively.
- Optimize Binge Listening: Get various great Bluetooth headsets and listen to teaching on this as well as other subjects required to fulfill the basic job-description of Jesus found in Matthew 10 and Luke 10. Input equals output. Seek knowledge, seek truth, seek wisdom (Proverbs 1:5, Proverbs 15:14, Proverbs 2:6) seek the fullness of all good and right things. Hosea 4:6 – God says: "My people perish because of lack of knowledge." If you want to live long and strong – get smart. Seek and you will find, ask, and you will receive, knock and the door will be opened to you (Matthew 7:7-8).
- Sign Up Yourself To Begin To Pray For People And Help People: You can do this by joining ActionChristianity.com/Join, and by signing up on Isaiah Saldivar's map, deliverancemap.com, and other similar maps.
- Proactively Be Abba Father's Favorite Child And Best Friend. Remain! Remain In The Identity Of Sonship: We are all now fully adopted deeply wholeheartedly beloved sons of Dad through faith in the blood of Jesus. All things are summed up in that.
- Go For The Fullness Of All Fullnesses In Christ Jesus (Colossians 2:9, Ephesians 3:19, Ephesians 4:13): Let Jesus, Holy Spirit, and Abba Father take you on the full discipleship education. We are not all 5-fold prophets or evangelists – but we are to be equipped by them to do the work of ministry that they serve us to get to know and do. We all have the fullness of Holy Spirit – and therefore in Him have all supernatural gifts, as He wills and as we seek to do them and as needed in the situation. We all are to obey all the commands of Jesus given to His followers – including giving up everything to serve Him, finding people of peace (those who are positive and open to faith in Jesus), healing the sick, casting out demons, raising the dead, co-suffering in and with Jesus, prophesying, baptizing people in water and Holy Spirit, living pure and holy, living humble, broken yet strong in Him only, knowing the fear of God over the fear of man, etc. We then become mature and multiply disciples who multiply – and that – is healthy revival.

To Keep Growing Bearing Much Fruit to the Glory of the Father - Take These Steps

Growth Steps

- Learn to spend quality time alone one on one in the secret place with Abba Father. This is 100% non-negotiable. Learn the simple intimate child-like, bride-like, soldier-like relationship with the Father – like that of Donna Rigney. Based on the only atoning reconciling grace and faith in the blood, cross, death and resurrection of Christ alone. - Decide to become a completely well-trained "normal disciple" according to Jesus' job-definition of discipleship in Matthew 10 and Luke 10 – so that you are fully aware that it is normal for you to do all that they could, and all that He showed them. Then train others to do it.
- Learn to practice how to "find the person of peace" and disciple them to disciple others – to disciple others and so on.
- Learn to move in the fullness of power of Holy Spirit on a daily basis.
- Find like-minded believers and seek and find the lost, disciple, train, and release them to be and do what you do and more – all going together for the fullness of all fullnesses that is truly ours in Christ. Multiply yourself into all others – who are willing.
- We are all about giving away for free what we got for free. We should all be like that. We are about seeing you get healed, whole, restored, and trained – hands on – to do the fullness of the work of the ministry of Jesus. Contact us to get actual hands-on training using these principles. Get set up, trained and then begin to learn to do your own work with seekers of freedom.
- For the mature, non-orphan, and fully educated: Set up your own ministry and begin to live by faith in a healthy way with healthy mutual accountability, not out of rejection and counter-rejection and retaliation – but giving all space for a radical journey of discovery. Let's connect on Discipleship@ActionChristianity.com and I will send you my entire package of my Christian Organization with laws, bylaws, appendices, accountability setup, best practices etc
- Join Jesus in this vision of normal discipleship: At the very least, all home group leaders are taken through and trained until they actually dare to do it and do it. That includes, of course, everyone in leadership across all of the leadership – that they are trained AND do it as something normal, weekly. And most preferably, that everyone is simply naturally taken through in depth and thereby trained to help others.

THE BIGGEST MIRACLE OF ALL

If you have read the whole book now – wow! Congratulations! It was about inner healing and deliverance and so much more. Maybe you have made it here – but have still not received Jesus Christ as your Forgiver of all your sin? Maybe you have not asked Him, if He would please forgive you?

According to Him, that is the biggest and only totally unshakeable miracle forever. That is also why He said to not rejoice that the demons are subject to us.

> Luke 10:20 - Do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you but rejoice that your names are written in Heaven.

The adoption we have as sons of God is unshakeable. Healings come and go. Temptations come and go. Deliverances are not always successful right away. Money comes and goes. Peace comes and goes. Justice comes and goes in circumstances of life. That was also the case in the life of the perfect man – Jesus Christ. But one thing remains, one thing is sure proof of the posture, attitude, and fire of God's heart: the blood of Jesus, as proof of the wholehearted love of the Father for us – now – and forever.

> The adoption we have as sons of God is unshakeable. Healings come and go. Temptations come and go.

> Hebrews 9:11-14 - 11 But when Christ came as high priest of the good things that are now already here, he went through the greater and more perfect tabernacle that is not made with human hands, that is to say, is not a part of this creation. 12 He did not enter by means of the blood of goats and calves; but he entered the Most Holy Place once for all by his own blood, thus obtaining eternal redemption. 13 The blood of goats and bulls and the ashes of a heifer sprinkled on those who are ceremonially unclean sanctify them so that they are outwardly clean. 14 How much more, then, will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself unblemished to God, cleanse our consciences from acts that lead to death, so that we may serve the living God!
> Hebrews 10:14 - For by one sacrifice he has made perfect forever those who are being made holy.
> Hebrews 10:19-25 - 19 Therefore, brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the Most Holy Place by the blood of Jesus, 20 by a new and living way opened for us through the curtain, that is, his body, 21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God, 22 let us draw near to God with a sincere heart and with the full assurance that faith brings, having our hearts sprinkled to cleanse us from a guilty conscience and having our bodies washed with pure water. 23 Let us hold unswervingly to the hope we profess, for he who promised is faithful. 24 And let us consider how we may spur one another on toward love and good deeds, 25 not giving up meeting together, as some are in the habit of doing, but encouraging one another--and all the more as you see the Day (the final judgment day) approaching.

So – is your name written in Heaven in the Lamb's book of life?

If not – please ask Him to save you – knowing there's nothing He would rather do.

Receiving and Experiencing the Biggest Most Stable Miracle of ALL

Experience God Directly for Yourself

How To Open Your Life To God – Or Return To Your First Passionate Love For God

The biggest miracle of all is to ask Jesus to forgive all your sins – believing that He has already done so by taking on Himself the penalty of that sin – which we deserve due to our selfishness and bad judgment calls. So, the good message of Jesus is: Let yourself be reconciled to God. You cannot undo the unloving unjust things you have said or done against God, people, and yourself by doing loving just things.

So, we need to die, like a seed in the ground, to the idea that we can fix it by ourselves through doing enough good to cover the bad. The good message is: When God looks at you, He already loves you and has already forgiven you and cleansed all injustice and lack of love away from you – for Jesus has already ensured your sin is atoned for (paid for) forever. All your sin, shame, guilt, condemnation, and rebellion were laid on Him. So, you are already always loved because of what Jesus did on the cross – where He took the death on Him that our injustice and selfishness causes.

The requirement now just is that you need to decide to receive His forgiveness, love, reconciliation, restoration, intimate friendship now by grace – for free. He is right there, where you are, and He longs for you – immediately and permanently. When you do – you will be born-again on the inside – by the Holy Spirit – who comes to live inside you. That is the biggest of all miracles, bigger than someone rising from the dead or someone miraculously getting a brand new arm or eye – that we receive the adoption as sons and daughters of God. And we become best friends with the Friend of Friends – our dear Abba Father, God the Father, and Jesus, our brother, and the Holy Spirit – our guide, advocate, comforter, and Spirit of truth.

How do you experience the biggest miracle of all? You can pray this prayer and mean it with all your heart, mind, soul, and strength:

Dear Jesus. I turn away from all rebellion against your goodness. I ask for your forgiveness for all unloving and unjust and impure things I have done. I choose to believe you are alive. I choose to receive your forgiveness for all I have done wrong. And I choose to make you my Master, my Leader, my King, and my very best, highest, first Friend of all friends. I do that seeing that on the cross You chose to make me Your best friend, taking all my sin on You. I commit to giving you everything in my life – and to submit all areas of my life to your love, justice, and truth. I will follow you and submit to you the rest of my life. You lived and died wholeheartedly for me – so I will live and die wholeheartedly for you.

If you have just prayed that prayer with all of your heart to Jesus – congratulations! He has heard you – and He has accepted you as His child, forgiving you, and coming to live inside you by His Spirit. That is the most important decision you have ever made. If you meant it – that is true, no matter if you feel a difference or not. Christianity is not first emotional – but based on truth above feelings – but feelings may come later.

Now it is important that you invest in getting to know your Best Friend – His will, His ways, His likes, His dislikes – and His family. Please contact us and we are happy to help you get started on this amazing lifelong journey it is to know and walk as friends of God. You will find it is both deeply challenging and amazing at the same time. Our encouragement to you is – this lasts, it is not a short-lived gimmick. Jesus calls you to give up everything each day and trust Him. (Luke 9:21-26, Luke 14:25-35) Jesus calls you to live intimately with Him – and from that foundation only – to then practice His will, His life, His honor, holiness, truth, passion, justice, love, care on earth – even though there will be trials, storms, opposition, injustice, and persecution against you. This is what He did. We now live like Him and follow Him in this world.

Let us know you prayed this prayer by writing to discipleship@actionchristianity.com. We really want to help you grow in faith and friendship with Jesus, Abba Father God, and Holy Spirit.

Get The Fire Back For God – For He Is On Fire For You!

To get back the purity, faith, fire, and passion of your first love for Jesus. Learn to seek God intimately as your best Friend. If you have left your first passionate fire and first love for God and you are living in compromise, excuses, and sin. If you are living in disobedience to His love, justice, and holiness – then turn around to Him. Receive His forgiveness. Receive His love. Do what you need to do to get your life in order. Cry out with your whole heart – giving yourself completely to Him – just like He gave Himself 100% for you on the cross and through the rejection and suffering He took for your sin – and the sins of everyone.

Steps on How to "Turn Yourself In" to God Again?

- The first and best step is to take total ownership of your decision to sin – realizing – sin is completely evil and is rebellion against the pure goodness, love, and justice of God.
- Secondly, ask Him for mercy, grace, and compassion. Cry out with all your heart for help!
- Turn away from all your sin completely. This is your decision. If you ask God for help – He will help you. But you must proactively choose to ask, and choose to be humble, soft-hearted, and obedient when He lovingly and clearly corrects and helps you do right.
- Turn TO Him. Run TO Him. The best thing is: He is waiting on you to do this. He will not force you! He honors you and your decisions that much.
- Decide to acknowledge now and forever, past, present, and future – as a continuous mental state – that you are loved and best friends with the Father through the blood of Jesus only.
- Forgive who you need to forgive. Stop being in fellowship with those you need to cut out who cause you to sin.
- Daily – Spend Quality Time With The Father. Be in fellowship with other believers. Fill yourself with the love of God and challenging input.
- Seek to expose the roots of false interpretation of the events in your life that accuse the goodness of God – and accuse the demons, the free will of humans, and the fallen state of the world for the injustices done to you – not the heart of the Father, the Son, and Holy Spirit.
- Get freedom sessions of inner healing, repentance, and spiritual freedom to do a thorough deep cleansing from trauma, bad theology, blindness to sin, and demonic spirits.
- Be an obedient disciple, who makes disciples, who make disciples. Join us all at Action Christianity – become an "Action Christian" who bears much stable exponentially reproducible fruit to the glory of the Father (John 15:8).

Now it should better make sense – why the ministry of Jesus was described and summarized like this, and why our ministry should be defined in the same way:

> 1 John 3:8 – The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil's work.
> Acts 10:38 – God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and power, and He went around doing good and healing all who were under the power of the devil, because God was with Him.

THE END - & THE BEGINNING OF YOUR FULLNESS OF DISCIPLESHIP ADVENTURE IN CHRIST!

Appendix 1 – General Renunciation

Made by the ActionChristianity.com team

General Yet Personal Dedication of Repentance, Renunciation, and Deliverance

Please read through these out loud and mean them with all your heart. It does not destroy anything to renounce something that you or your bloodline is not guilty of. It does destroy something to not renounce those things that are true legal rights.

Please speak the following by faith in the facts of the goodness of Father, Son, and Spirit – based on the cross:

As a personally responsible obedient disciple I by my free decision wholeheartedly engage in the following dedication of repentance into good God truth, renunciation, and deliverance.

I come before You, Heavenly Father, Abba Father, by Your grace, with the full knowledge that I have put my faith and trust in the redemptive sacrifice of my Lord Jesus Christ (Ephesians 1:7). I confess that He is Your Son, and You decided that His holy blood has cleansed me (1 John 1:7). I acknowledge Your love, Your truth, and Your desire for me to walk in wholeness, truth, and freedom as Your child, redeemed by the blood of Jesus (John 8:36; 2 Corinthians 5:17). I ask now for Your complete forgiveness of all my sins (Psalm 103:12), and I humbly request that You fill me with Your Holy Spirit (Acts 1:8). As I embark on this journey toward freedom, I pray that You will make me acutely aware of Your presence (Psalm 16:11), and that Your power and authority will flow through me, empowering me to overcome all things (Philippians 4:13) and to confront the demonic forces that have sought to destroy me (James 4:7).

I make Jesus my example that I will follow above and before anything else and anyone else (1 Peter 2:21) – including our emotions. Because of your blood Jesus, I like You, Jesus, proactively choose to remain in Your secure love, Abba Father (John 15:9), when I am treated with injustice (Matthew 5:10), suffer pain (2 Corinthians 1:5), I am rejected (Isaiah 53:3), sick (James 5:14), and hurt by my closest (Psalm 55:12-14). Therefore, I now choose to judge you 100% innocent Abba Father, God, of the evil of people (Romans 3:23), demons (Ephesians 6:12), and a fallen world (John 16:33).

I declare that I am a child of God (John 1:12), and I have been received into Your family (Romans 8:15). I am not a beggar, but an heir (Galatians 4:7), and You have not given me a spirit of fear, but of power, love, and a sound mind (2 Timothy 1:7). I stand in the authority of Christ (Matthew 28:18), and I serve notice: this is the day of eviction. I revoke all of your claims and legal rights to me and to my bloodline (Isaiah 54:17). Through the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus Christ (1 Corinthians 15:55-57) and by the power of the Holy Spirit (Romans 8:11), I command you to release all holds on my life. I bind you all together as one (Mark 3:27), and I seal your lips with the blood of Jesus (Revelation 12:11), commanding you to be silent and to cease all affliction against me and my bloodline, now and forever (Psalm 91:10).

Repentance and Renunciation of Personal and Ancestral Bonds

Repentance for Foundational Sins of the Heart

I repent of the root of pride and renounce the lie that I can decide what is right in my own wisdom. You are Wisdom, Jesus, I humbly submit to the fullness of your eternal Word, The Bible (Proverbs 3:5-6). I repent of the arrogant thought that I could act as a judge between what is good and evil (Romans 14:10). I confess that Your judgments are righteous, and I choose to align myself with Your ways and Your truth (Psalm 119:137). I repent for any desire for power or influence, for any way that I have attempted to make a name for myself, and for the desire to be seen as important in the eyes of man (Galatians 1:10). I renounce the performance spirit, founded on the lie that my identity rests in my works or accomplishments, and I repent of the belief that I must earn Your love, for You loved me first while I was yet a sinner (Romans 5:8). I renounce all forms of pride, including intellectual pride, arrogance, vanity, envy, and jealousy (Proverbs 16:18). I also repent for all apathy, laziness, entitlement, and rebellion against Your will (Romans 12:11). I repent for any ambition or toil I have engaged in to accomplish my own will, and I renounce the fear of man and any compromise made to gain his approval (Proverbs 29:25).

Forgiveness and Releasing Judgments

I choose to forgive all who have wronged me – my parents, siblings, spouse, ex-partners, or others–who have caused pain through rejection, abandonment, or abuse (Colossians 3:13). I release all anger, rage, and bitterness, and I give to Jesus on the cross all of my resentment and retaliation – even also towards You, Father God, for You hate evil and injustice even more than I do. That's proven on the cross (Ephesians 4:31). I tear up every "I owe you" that I have held against anyone who has not fulfilled their requirements to me, who has not loved me, or who has rejected or abandoned me, including my mother, father, spouse, siblings, and ex-partners (Matthew 6:14-15). I believe that Jesus Christ will tear up every "I owe you" that he has against me, which is far more (Colossians 2:13-14).

I also forgive myself for falling short of my roles and for all shame, guilt, or condemnation I have carried (Romans 8:1). I receive Your forgiveness for judging myself, knowing that Jesus was condemned in my place and took the full wrath of God for me (2 Corinthians 5:21). I repent for my insecurity and for any lie that I have believed about my worth (Psalm 139:14). I renounce any self-imposed rejection and any harsh or critical thoughts or behaviors toward myself (Ephesians 4:32).

Renunciation of Ancestral Covenants and Curses

I declare that I am not in any way responsible for the sins and agreements of my ancestors, but I stand to break all such demonic contracts, promises, vows, and obligations that have created generational assignments against my bloodline (Exodus 20:5-6). I renounce and resist every demon that has come through these bloodline assignments and through any type of witchcraft (James 4:7).

I renounce on my own and my father's and mother's sides every act of violence and sexual sin, including extreme anger, hate, murder, fighting, incest, rape, molestation, abortions, and acts of unwanted sexual attraction (Galatians 5:19-21, 1 Corinthians 6:9-20). I break all curses tied to these sins from myself and my bloodline, and I command all demons associated with these acts to lift their curses now – putting them on Christ Jesus on the cross and under His blood covenant (Galatians 3:13).

I now come against all secret societies and occultic organizations that my ancestors or I have been involved with, and I declare their covenants null and void (Deuteronomy 18:9-12). I renounce and break every curse associated with any involvement in Freemasonry, the Grand Lodge, the Scottish Rite, the Knights Templar, Eastern Stars, Job's Daughters, Rainbow Girls, Brownies, Boy Scouts, or Girl Scouts (2 Corinthians 6:14-17). I also renounce and cut off all fraternity and sorority oaths, vows, rituals, and promises, including any hazing or rituals (Matthew 5:33-37). I renounce and remove the garments of the Masonic lodge, including the hoodwink, the cable tow, the apron, the veil of grief, the shackles on the wrist and ankles, the shiners hat, the shoes, all signet rings, the cloak, and the kilt of the Scottish rite (Ephesians 4:22-24).

I renounce and break every obligation, oath, and agreement enacted by myself or by any male or female members of my family through Freemasonry or any other fraternity, sorority, or secret society (Numbers 30:2). I reject the calling of any man "Master" and renounce all oaths, secret words, and symbols (Matthew 23:8-10). I renounce the Masonic Great Architect Of The Universe, who is revealed as lucifer (Isaiah 14:12-15). I reject the death wish invoked in the oaths and the mockery of Christ's redemptive work (Hebrews 10:29). I also renounce the "Point within a circle" and all phallus worship, as well as the All-Seeing Third Eye of Freemasonry or Horus, and I close that eye and all occult ability to see into the spiritual realm (Deuteronomy 4:19).

The following list provides a comprehensive renunciation of the detailed Masonic curses and their corresponding symbols and rituals, as revealed in the research. I renounce each one by name, revoking all claims and severing all ties:

Masonic Degree, Ritual and Secret Word / Symbol & Corresponding Curses

Entered Apprentice Degree

The hoodwink / blindfold (confusion, fear of dark / light, blinding of spiritual truth), the cable tow noose (fear of choking, asthma, breathing difficulty), the secret word BOAZ, and the serpent clasp on the apron (the spirit of python)

Fellow Craft Degree

The secret words SHIBBOLETH and JACHIN, the Sign of Reverence to the Generative Principle (hardness, apathy, indifference, unbelief, anger)

Master Mason Degree

The secret words TUBAL CAIN and MAHA BONE, the ritual murder (spirit of death, fear of violent attack or rape), and falling into the coffin (fear of death, helplessness, depression)

York Rite Degrees

The Mark Master Degree with secret word JOPPA (curse of deafness, right hand chopped off), Past Master (tongue split from tip to root), and Most Excellent Master (breast torn open, heart / organs removed)

Holy Royal Arch Degree

The false secret name of God, JABULON, and the password AMMI RUHAMAH, along with the oath of removing the head from the body and exposing the brains to the sun

Scottish Rite Degrees

Shriners

The worship of the false god allah, the mock hanging, beheading, and drinking of the victim's blood, and the mock dog urinating on the initiate

I also renounce all other secret societies, including The Prince Hall Freemasonry, The Order of Amaranth, The Royal Order of Jesters, The Ku Klux Klan, The Mystic Order of the Veiled Prophets of the Enchanted Realm, The Women's Order of the Eastern Star, The Ladies Shrine of Jerusalem, The International Order of Job's Daughters, The Rainbows, The boy's Order of De Molay, The Woodmen of the World, and the Knights of Pythias. I renounce all curses and agreements related to the Allied Degrees, The Red Cross of Constantine, the Order of the Secret Monitor, the Masonic Royal Order of Scotland, the Manchester Unity Order of Oddfellows, Buffalos, Druids, Foresters, Elks, Moose, Eagle Lodges, and Riders of the Red Robe (2 Corinthians 6:14-17).

I renounce the idolatry of my ancestors based on geography and religion (1 Corinthians 10:14). I renounce all demons of Norse religions, including odin, thor, loki, fenrir, and freyja / / frigg (Deuteronomy 32:17). I renounce all ties to the Aztecs, Mayans, and Incas, canceling all curses of witchcraft and sorcery, and I reject quetzalcoatl and the false gods chicomecoatl and tlaloc (Revelation 9:21). For my Irish, Scottish, Welsh, or Great British bloodline, I renounce all witchcraft, Druidism, and Neolithic Shamanism, and I renounce the demons aine, arawn, brigit, and taliesin (Galatians 5:20). For my African and Caribbean ancestry, I renounce all demon worship and the practice of voodoo, and I reject the demons python, leviathan, papa legba, and baron samedi (Leviticus 19:31). For my ancestry from India and the East, I renounce all beliefs in reincarnation, karma, and Hindu beliefs, and I reject the false trinity of brahma, vishnu, and shiva, as well as the demons shakti, kali, and shesha (the seven-headed cobra) (Isaiah 44:6-8). I also reject all Asian spirits and Buddhist spirits (1 Corinthians 10:20).

I repent and renounce any massacre associated with war and conquering of lands, theft, abusing others to fulfill our desires, and any forced submission through domination (Isaiah 1:16-17). I renounce and repent of all jealousy and envy, and any participation in slavery in my bloodline, including the buying and selling of other people (Galatians 5:26). I also repent for any way that I have seen people as a commodity or abused the image of God in them (Genesis 1:27).

Renunciation of Personal Sins and Strongholds

I now address the doors that I have personally opened through my own actions and agreements (Ephesians 4:27). I renounce all involvement with the occult and all new age practices, including any occult or false religion books I have read, any psychics or healers I have visited, and any ceremonies or rituals I have participated in (Deuteronomy 18:10-12). I specifically renounce using ouija boards, séances, tarot cards, consulting mediums, automatic writing, astral projection, soul travel, hypnosis, crystal healing, reiki, water-witching, levitation, and table tipping (Leviticus 19:31). I renounce all black magic and white magic, spells, hexes, and word curses (Revelation 21:8). I renounce all demonic spirit guides, spirit counselors, and any fascination with death or darkness, including consuming dark media or horror films (Ephesians 5:11). I also renounce dependency on birth signs, birth stones, horoscopes, luck, and superstition (Isaiah 47:13-14).

I repent and renounce all sexual immorality, including lust, perversion, pornography, fornication, adultery, incest, unwanted sexual attractions, masturbation, temple prostitution, sexual rituals, orgies, voyeurism, polygamy, bestiality, and exhibitionism (1 Corinthians 6:18). I renounce any sexual encounters with demons, and I reject and break all ties with the incubus and succubus spirits, divorcing any spirit spouse who claims me as their own, declaring that I belong to Christ Jesus (1 Corinthians 6:19-20). I break all soul, spiritual, emotional, and sexual ties with all past sexual partners, both wanted and unwanted (1 Corinthians 7:2). I also repent and renounce abortion and any blood sacrifice of children (Deuteronomy 18:10).

I repent and renounce any addictions, finding comfort in anything other than the Holy Spirit (Psalm 16:11). I renounce gluttony, excessive video games, excessive media, drug abuse, alcohol, gambling, hoarding, binging, and purging, and any unnatural obsession (Proverbs 23:20-21). I repent of intentionally dissociating from reality and using these addictions as coping mechanisms to deal with pain or to escape (Romans 12:2).

I also renounce and repent of all self-hatred and self-destruction (Ephesians 5:29). I reject all thoughts, words, and attempts to harm myself, including fantasies about death, and I renounce any agreement that I have made with demons (Romans 8:37-39). I renounce cutting my body, hitting myself, burning myself, and any other form of self-harm, and I reject the relationship with pain and the giving of my blood to demons through these acts (Leviticus 19:28).

I renounce all forms of mental illness, including depression, bipolar disorder, schizophrenia, paranoia, and the fear of losing my mind (2 Timothy 1:7). I reject any ungodly medical or psychological diagnosis that is not in agreement with the truth of who I am in Christ (Romans 8:31). I renounce the binding curses of confusion and demonic fog placed around and in my mind (1 Corinthians 14:33). I renounce and break every curse related to rejection, including perceived rejection, self-imposed rejection, and rejection from my parents or others in my life (Psalm 27:10). I renounce the lie that I am a failure, a mistake, unworthy, or unloved (Ephesians 2:10).

I renounce the lie that I don't need connection with God and/or others (Hebrews 10:25). I acknowledge that I cannot be fruitful in isolation (John 15:5). I repent on behalf of myself and my family line for any way that we have chosen to live disconnected from communion with God and others (1 John 1:7). I renounce all isolation, shame, and the fear of rejection, and I choose to embrace communion with the body of Christ (Romans 12:5).

I renounce religious pride, legalism, and intellectualism that oppose Your Spirit (Colossians 2:8). I reject any belief that I currently hold that has been constructed on a false understanding of Scripture (2 Timothy 2:15). I reject cessationism, fear of the Holy Spirit, and doctrines that limit Your power in my life (Acts 1:8). I renounce the parts of the doctrine of Sola Scriptura, human logic, and false wisdom that is in opposition to the true Word or Spirit of God (1 Corinthians 2:14). I renounce any idolatry of political figures and of any political system or man-made government as the highest form of legislative power, and I submit solely to Jesus' Lordship (Romans 13:1). I also renounce any worship of saints, the virgin mary, or angels (Revelation 19:10).

The Great Eviction: Commanding Demonic Entities to Leave

I declare that Jesus is Lord of my life, and I have been forgiven of all my sins (Romans 10:9). I declare that all authority in heaven and on earth has been given to the Lord Jesus Christ, and I declare that His love has filled me and broken the bonds of fear (Matthew 28:18).

I now speak to all demons, and I bind you together as one (Matthew 12:29). I command you to receive judgment seven times greater than the torment you have caused me and my bloodline, and I command you to restore all that you have taken from me seven times over (Proverbs 6:31).

In the name of Jesus, I command every evil and unclean spirit to release its hold on me and my bloodline now and forever. I command you all to lose your grip and leave, never to return (Luke 10:19).

The following list provides a categorized summary of all the demonic entities I am renouncing on behalf of myself and my ancestors down to the beginning and I am commanding to leave. I declare that every spirit listed, and every unmentioned spirit must now depart:

lilith, ishtar, ashtoreth, isis, artemis, thena, mami-wata, yemaya, diana, kali, shakti, aine, brigit, freya, frigg, aphrodite, and all other false goddesses (Jeremiah 7:18)

quetzalcoatl (the feathered serpent), python, leviathan, shesha (seven-headed cobra serpent king), and all other serpent spirits (Revelation 12:9) gatekeeping and destroyer spirits

papa-legba, baron samedi, jezebel, apollyon, abaddon, legion, cassandra, pania, incubus, succubus, and the spirit of destruction (Revelation 9:11)

lust, perversion, hatred, anger, murder, addiction, poverty, mammon, greed, rejection, fear, suicide, self-hatred, despair, grief, sorrow, laziness, stubbornness, impatience, and the victim spirit (Galatians 5:19-21) spirits of false religion and deception

the antichrist spirit, seducing spirits, deception, confusion, timidity, stupor, the labyrinth spirit, legalism, and the spirit of this world (1 John 4:1)

psychic and familiar spirits, incubus and succubus, the gypsy spirit, the sloth and behemoth spirit, the seducing spirit, the predator spirit, the mute and silencing spirit, the blocking spirit, and all spirit guides or counselors (Deuteronomy 18:10-12)

sickness, disease, infirmity, fatigue, brain fog, anxiety, panic, nightmares, night terrors, and insomnia (Acts 10:38)

Go now! I command you to submit to the name of Jesus and come up & out of me now (Philippians 2:9-11). And away from my presence now (Matthew 4:10-11)! I close every legal door of sin to you, my enemy, and forbid every one of you, evil and unclean spirits to return (Mark 9:25, James 4:7).

Blessing and Renewal: Sealing the New Covenant

I come to you now, Father, as one who has been set free (John 8:36). I bless my children and bloodline after me and dedicate that bloodline to You, that Your blessing will flow to them and they may all know, love, and receive You, as You first loved them (Psalm 103:17-18). I bless them with boldness, courage, and responsible under God rulership, and reject the lie of the poverty spirit and the victim spirit, and any lie that "I am unworthy of Your blessings" (Joshua 1:9). As a spiritual and/or natural parent, I bless all who come after me with the fullness of the revelation of Your love, Your grace, and Your divine wisdom, presence, and power (Ephesians 1:17-19). I bless them with wholeness, purity, and freedom (John 17:17). I declare them to be Your covenant family in the Lord Jesus (Jeremiah 31:33). I bless them with divine health, sound minds, godly relationships, strong marriages, and the ability to steward wealth and to be influencers for good in every sector of society (3 John 1:2). They will be worshipers of You, the one true God and Father of our Lord Jesus (John 4:24).

I forgive myself for falling short of my roles and for all shame, guilt, or condemnation I have carried (Romans 8:1). I receive Your perfect eternal forgiveness for judging myself, knowing that Jesus was condemned in my place and took the full wrath of God for me (2 Corinthians 5:21). I repent for my insecurity and for any lie that I have believed about my worth (Psalm 139:14).

I come into fully proactively chosen agreement with who I already am in your eyes through the blood of Jesus (Ephesians 1:7). I am your favorite fully loved son, your closest friend, your bride, your love and justice warrior, your regent, heir, priest, and representative of Your Kingdom (John 15:15). And I remain here with you, in you, in your love and favor in the midst of suffering, persecution, injustice, pain, death, and destruction forever (Romans 8:38-39).

I commit to staying Jesus-minded and to not get caught up with fighting demons all the time (Philippians 4:8). I know that demons lie, and once a curse or right is broken, it is broken for good (John 8:44). I will keep my mind and relationships clean, spending time reading my Bible, and attending a spirit-filled church (Psalm 119:9). I will not give in to the lie that I am alone, but I will make it a non-negotiable point to be part of a healthy family of God (Hebrews 10:25). I will share my testimony, not to glorify the enemy, but to tell others how God has helped me overcome every demonic assignment and to show them the victory that is possible through Christ (Revelation 12:11).

Appendix 4 – Recommended Books and Courses

The ability to do healthy inner healing, repentance, identity, and deliverance is contained within normal discipleship for all believers. How can I confidently say such a beautiful, radical, and challenging thing: Jesus and His followers saw Him do it continually. Their followers saw them do it continually. So, do you follow people who continually do it? Do you, therefore, continually do it? Do your followers see you do it? It was normal to them. Is it normal to you and those that follow you and those that follow them and so on? Like all things in discipleship and life – it is a real intellectual and practical education. A normal "module" in the fullness of discipleship. Education takes time, discipline, investment, and effort. Therefore, I wholeheartedly recommend the following good books and courses on this subject. While these are leaders and courses I wholeheartedly recommend you learn from – could they fall later? Yes. Are they completely perfect? No. Are you? No! Am I? No!

Keep growing, keep staying humble and teachable, keep getting bolder, wiser, smarter, gain insight, knowledge and understanding as you take courageous action in the perfect love of the Father through the blood of our Best Friend Jesus by the power of mighty Holy Spirit.

Hosea 4:6

My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge.

2 Corinthians 2:11

(We are and work in) order that satan might not outwit us. For we are not unaware of his schemes.

1 John 3:8

The reason the Son of God appeared was to destroy the devil's work.

1 Peter 5:8 NKJV

Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.

John 10:10

The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I have come that you may have life, and have it to the full.

James 4:7

Submit yourselves, then, to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.

Luke 10:19-21

I have given you authority to trample on snakes and scorpions and to overcome all the power of the enemy; nothing will harm you. However, do not rejoice that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven. At that time Jesus, full of joy through the Holy Spirit, said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and learned, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for this is what you were pleased to do."
